Stuebel, 1976 Pacific Island Legends Bo Flood, Beret E. Strong, William Flood, 1999 A collection of forty three traditional and historical stories from the Pacific Islands New Zealand and Australia Oral Traditions of Southeast Asia and Oceania Herman C. Kemp, 2004 Albert Wendt and Pacific Literature Paul Sharrad, 2003-11-08 Albert Wendt is the leading writer and exponent of Pacific literature His work is consistently different in style politically challenging and ranges across essays plays poems stories and novels two of which have been filmed This book is the first full length study of his work There is an introduction to Pacific literature as a whole and Wendt s Samoan background Chapters offer readings of all Wendt s major texts in chronological sequence relating them to his essays to literary movements of the time and to key motifs from Polynesian culture There is an extensive bibliography of works by and about Wendt Mimesis and Pacific Transcultural Encounters Jeannette Mageo, Elfriede Hermann, 2017-10-01 How do images circulating in Pacific cultures and exchanged between them and their many visitors transform meanings for all involved This fascinating collection explores how through mimesis wayfarers and locales alike borrow images from one another to expand their cultural repertoire of meanings or borrow images from their own past to validate their identities South Pacific Handbook David Stanley, 1993 An all new edition of the original comprehensive South Pacific guide completely revised and updated with over 85% new material Stanley provides an accurate portrait of all 15 insular territories of Polynesia and Melanesia offering an insider s knowledge spirited commentary and adventurous coverage Contains nearly 200 concise reliable maps glossary and index Moon Publications Beyond the Horizon Clifford Sather, Timo Kaartinen, 2008-05-16 Society is never just a localized aggregate of people but exists by virtue of its members narrative and conceptual awareness of other times and places In Jukka Siikala s work this idea evolves into a broad ethnographic and theoretical interest in worlds beyond the horizon in the double sense of past and abroad This book is a tribute to Jukka s contributions to anthropology by his colleagues and students and marks his 60th birthday in January 2007 By exploring the near distant inward and outward horizons towards which societies project their reality the authors aim at developing a new productive language for addressing culture as a way of experiencing and engaging the world Theorizing Self in Samoa Jeannette Marie Mageo, 2025-10-01 Theorizing Self in Samoa develops a new theory of the self in culture through a psychological and historical ethnography of Samoa As in many non Western cultures Samoan understandings of the self are more sociocentric accentuating the social roles that people play than egocentric emphasizing individual interior feelings and perceptions Yet in Samoa as in any culture aspects of the self that are not emphasized in cultural explanations of personhood continually reappear and must somehow be accounted for Jeannette Marie Mageo argues that all cultures attempt to encompass these stray experiences of the self within a discursive system She introduces a way of charting human development through cultural discourses which helps reveal how emotion gender and sexuality are constructed in Samoan society and other cultures including our own The second half of the book explores the effects of cultural contact and colonialization on the innermost experience of cultural subjects With its long ethnographic record Samoa provides a unique opportunity to consider the dialectic between historical change and personal experience opening a perspective on the ways in which cultural history is forever leaving its fingerprints upon human lives Theorizing Self in Samoa marks out important territory for psychological anthropology and students of Oceania and will appeal also to students and scholars in cultural studies women s studies and history Jeannette Marie Mageo is Associate Professor of Anthropology Washington State University

Cultural Memory Jeannette Marie Mageo, 2001-02-01 How do foreign schemas and objects enter into indigenous ways of understanding the world How are the cultural self and the cultural other constructed in acts of remembering What is memory s role in the generation or degeneration of cultural meanings In contemporary Pacific societies these questions are not merely the subject of scholarly debate but speak to pressing life concerns This volume offers fruitful responses to such questions providing insights into colonial memory and its limitations and proposing explanations that illumine cultural memory processes These processes in turn elucidate ways of authoring cultural history and shed light on cultural identity which like other forms of identity is built from a remembered self Contributors explore valorizations of certain aspects of the remembered past amnesias about other aspects Both are part of the rhetoric of colonizing cultures and of cultural identity and nationhood in many contemporary Pacific societies The provocative analyses and responses offered here are both academic and personal close engagement with individuals and their ways of life is evident These are at once intellectual journeys through the colonial landscapes of Pacific memory and attempts to understand the problems of politics and personhood cultural identity and meaning for real people in real places Cultural Memory confronts many of the most central anthropological issues of our time

Was Earth Created Good? Arthur John Wulf, 2025-06-24. Was Earth Created Good offers a reappraisal of Earth as presented in Genesis 1:1-2:4a from a Samoan gafataulima (accomplish/fulfill) capable hermeneutical perspective. The inspiration for the study arose out of a personal dilemma concerning author Arthur John Wulf's religious beliefs and the reality he is experiencing in the world today, specifically the tensions between Earth's perfect portrait in Genesis 1:1-2:4a and the recurring natural disasters he suffers from in his Samoan local context. Attention to his ecological situation gave rise to questions that challenge the repeated divine evaluation of Earth as good in Genesis 1:1-2:4a. These questions identify the need for context-specific hermeneutical frameworks that take into account local ecological situations in the interpretive process. In this light, Wulf proposes the Samoan cultural concept of gafataulima as an ecological hermeneutic to reevaluate the quality of Earth as presented in the Genesis 1:1-2:4a creation narrative using the Samoan version of narrative grammatical criticism, which he refers to as a tala mamanu reading. Discussions throughout seek to carefully balance the exploration of the text's historical significance within the wider framework of Wulf's Christian faith. Drawing on a rich array of biblical scholarship, this study explores the significance of God's declaration that the created Earth was good in light of the ongoing challenges of natural disasters faced by the people of Samoa. I believe Arthur J. Wulf's book will be an important piece of scholarship from which biblical scholars will benefit greatly.

Dr. Caroline Blyth: The author's meticulous attention to cultural context and ecological relevance makes this work a pioneering contribution to theological scholarship and practical environmentalism.

Rev. Dr. Samasoni Moleli: In this great work, Arthur Wulf shows another example of a biblical interpretation that considers the reader s world now bringing a new dimension into reading the creation story in the Bible It is not the opportunity to impose his meaning on the text but to recognise that meaning making is shaped by the questions and issues he brings from his contemporary situation and takes back to that situation I recommend this excellent book to Bible readers who practise using their life experiences from their worlds as hermeneutics to explore the Bible Rev Prof Vaitusi Nofoaiga Narratives of Nation in the South Pacific Nicholas Thomas,2005-06-27 A collection of essays which focuses upon local perceptions of the state efforts to ground nationhood in tradition the character of national narratives and recent transformations of the Pacific nationalism Case studies are included from Papua New Guinea Vanuatu Samoa and the Cook Islands Subject Catalog Library of Congress, Penina Uliuli Philip Culbertson,Margaret Nelson Agee,Cabrini Ofa Makasiale,2007-09-30 This diverse collection of essays examines important issues related to mental health among Pacific Islanders through the topics of identity spirituality the unconscious mental trauma and healing Contributors Emeline Afeaki Mafale o Margaret Nelson Agee Siautu Alefaio A Aukahi Austin Tina Berking Philip Culbertson Caroline Salumalo Fatialofa Yvette Guttenbeil Po uhila Joseph Keawe aimoku Kaholokula David Lui Karen Lupe Maika Lutui Cabrini Ofa Makasiale Tavita T Maliko Peta Pila Palalagi Suiamai Simi Seilosa Skipps Patterson Karanina Siaoisi Sumeo To oa Jemaima Tiatia Sione Tu itahi Fia T Turner Tupou
