Myths Dreams And Mysteries The Encounter Between Contemporary Faiths And Archaic Realities:

Myths, Dreams, and Mysteries Mircea Eliade, 1967 Myths, Dreams, and Mysteries Mircea Eliade, 1968 Mythes, Rêves Et Mystères. Myths, Dreams and Mysteries. The Encounter Between Contemporary Faiths and Archaic Realities ...

Translated by Philip Mairet Mircea Eliade, Philippe Auguste MAIRET, 1960 Divine Madness Harry Eiss, 2011-08-08 Lila is Sanskrit for play the play of the gods It is the self generating genesis of Bliss created by Bliss for the purpose of Bliss It is the uninhibited impulsive sport of Brahman the free spirit of creation that results in the spontaneous unfolding of the cosmos to be found in the eternity of each moment It is beyond the confining locks and chains of reason beyond the steel barred windows looking out from the cages of explanation beyond the droning tick tick tick of the huge mechanical clocks of time Come let us enter the realm of the madman and the finely wrought threads of Clotho as they are measured out by Lachesis and cut by Atropos to create the great tapestry of life including the intricate intertwining designs of dementia with the trickster the shaman the scapegoat the shadow the artist and the savior Come let us join in the divine madness of the gods

Language and Communication at Work François Cooren, Eero Vaara, Ann Langley, Haridimos Tsoukas, 2014-03 This book examines language and communication as an inherent part of on going organizational processes It explores language and communication as constitutive of work analyses how they actually work and examines their role as part of strategic and institutional work in and around organizational phenomena Fallen Animals Zohar Hadromi-Allouche, 2017-10-05 The premise of Fallen Animals is that some how and in some way The Fall of Adam and Eve as related in the Bible has affected all living beings from the largest to the smallest from the oldest to the youngest regardless of gender and geography The movement from the blissful arena of the Garden of Eden to the uncertain reality of exile altered in an overt or nuanced fashion the attitudes perceptions and consciousness of animals and humanity alike Interpretations of these reformulations as well as the original story of the Paradise Garden have been told and retold for millennia in a variety of cultural contexts languages societies and religious environments Throughout all those retellings animals have been a constant presence positively and negatively actively and passively from the creation of birds fish and mammals to the agency of the serpent in the Fall narrative The serpent in the Garden of Eden is but one example of the ambivalence which has characterized the human animal relationship over the centuries both across and within cultures societies and traditions The book examines the interpretations functions and interactions of the Fall physical moral artistic and otherwise as represented through animals or through human animal interactions When Man Becomes God Donald E. Gowan, 1975-01-01 Pittsburgh Theological Monograph Series General Editor Dikran Y Hadidian Interreligious Comparisons in Religious Studies and Theology Perry Schmidt-Leukel, Andreas Nehring, 2016-07-14 Can religions be compared For decades the discipline of religious studies was based on the assumption that they can Postmodern and postcolonial reflections however raised significant doubts In social and cultural studies the investigation of the particular often took precedence over a comparative perspective Interreligious

Comparisons in Religious Studies and Theology questions whether religious studies can survive if it ceases to be comparative religion Can it do justice to a globalized world if it is limited on the specific and turns a blind eye on the general While comparative approaches have come under strong pressure in religious studies they have started flourishing in Theology Comparative theology practices interfaith dialogue by means of comparative research This volume asks whether theology and religious studies are able to mutually benefit from their critical and constructive reflections Can postcolonial criticism of neutrality and objectivity in religious studies create new links with the decidedly perspectival approach of comparative theology In this collection scholars from theology and religious studies discuss the methodology of interreligious comparison in the light of recent doubts and current objections Together with the contributors Perry Schmidt Leukel and Andreas Nehring argue that after decades of critique interreligious comparison deserves to be reconsidered reconstructed and reintroduced

Hermeneutics, Politics, and the History of Religions Christian Wedemeyer, Wendy Doniger, 2010-03-08 This volume comprises papers presented at a conference marking the 50th anniversary of Joachim Wach's death and the centennial of Mircea Eliade's birth Its purpose is to reconsider both the problematic separate legacies of these two major twentieth century historians of religions and the bearing of these two legacies upon each other Shortly after Wach's death in 1955 Eliade succeeded him as the premiere historian of religions at the University of Chicago As a result the two have been associated with each other in many people's minds as the successive leaders of the so called Chicago School in the history of religions In fact as this volume makes clear there never was a monolithic Chicago School Although Wach reportedly referred to Eliade as the most astute historian of religions of the day the two never met and their approaches to the study of religions differed significantly Several dominant issues run through the essays collected here the relationship between the two men's writings and their lives and in Eliade's case the relationship between his political commitments and his writings in fiction history of religions and autobiography Both men's contributions to the field continue to provoke controversy and debate and this volume sheds new light on these controversies and what they reveal about these two scholars legacies

The Bible among the Myths John N. Oswalt, 2009-08-30 Sixty years ago most biblical scholars maintained that Israel's religion was unique that it stood in marked contrast to the faiths of its ancient Near Eastern neighbors Nowadays it is widely argued that Israel's religion mirrors that of other West Semitic societies What accounts for this radical change and what are its implications for our understanding of the Old Testament Dr John N Oswalt says the root of this new attitude lies in Western society's hostility to the idea of revelation which presupposes a reality that transcends the world of the senses asserting the existence of a realm humans cannot control While not advocating a the Bible says it and I believe it and that settles it point of view Oswalt asserts convincingly that while other ancient literatures all see reality in essentially the same terms the Bible differs radically on all the main points The Bible Among the Myths supplies a necessary corrective to those who reject the Old Testament's testimony about a transcendent God who breaks into time and space and reveals himself in and through human activity Goddess Mystery Cults and the Miracle of Minyan Prehistoric Greece Dionysious Psilopoulos, 2023-01-03 As this book demonstrates the cradle of the Mystery Cults of the Goddess and of Western civilization is the Aegean region an area extending from the Balkans to Crete and from the Ionian Sea to Asia Minor The Eleusinian Mysteries do not originate from Old Europe or Egypt but from the worship of the Pelasgian goddess Daeira Mother Earth who preceded Demeter and whose cult was indigenous to Eleusis As shown here in the Mysteries of the Goddess the initiates descend into the depths of their psyche perceive the midnight sun transcend duality and achieve cosmic consciousness symbolized by the unity and harmony of the Great Goddess The Pelasgians Minyans and Minoans the Aegean region's prehistoric tribes and ancestors of the Mycenaeans and modern Greeks share the same cultural heritage continuity and autochthony with the region's Proto Greek pre Deukalion Flood inhabitants The book also argues that religious and scientific traces of pre Flood knowledge can be discerned in the Mysteries and the technical achievements of prehistoric Minyan and Minoan Greeks Even from the third millennium the Minyans and Minoans with their advanced nautical geographic and astronomical knowledge sailed not only the Mediterranean but using the Atlantic currents had reached the copper mines of northern Europe and America

Discipleship, Secularity, and the Modern Self Judith A. Merkle, 2020-07-23 Judith A Merkle examines the situation of Christian spirituality today in a secular age through the images of dance silence and music Drawing on the work of Charles Taylor as well as core aspects of the tradition of Christian theology on discipleship Merkle asks how these new conditions affect the practice of Christianity as modern discipleship The author calls God the music maker She argues that response to the reality of God can be captured through the image of dance Merkle reminds us that people in secular society connect to God in diverse ways not in the least through the call of creation and the call of conscience She explores discipleship as a lens through which we can understand how a community of faith service prayer worship and sacramentality can be viewed and integrated in daily life She emphasizes how the interconnection between prayer Eucharist and a believing community is inseparable from the dance of discipleship as it can be lived in secular society The image of dancing to silent music is a powerful symbol of Christian religious experience in modern times Meaning and Myth in the Study of Lives Stuart L. Charmé, 2015-09-30 This book explores major theoretical issues in the study of an individual life through its focus on Jean Paul Sartre Sartre's quest for an existential psychoanalysis led him to develop what he called true novels in the landmark studies of Flaubert and others In clarifying Sartre's philosophical ideas in relation to the analysis of the self Stuart L Charmé examines the attraction repulsion of Freudian concepts and explores parallels to Erikson's ego psychology Certain mythic qualities in religious biography and autobiography are seen as central to Sartre who presents lives including his own as normative models The book concludes by making a provocative link between the modern preoccupation with self analysis in biography and autobiography and a fundamental religious need that was once fulfilled by primitive myth The Mythology of Modern Law Peter Fitzpatrick, 2002-09-11 The Mythology of Modern Law is a radical reappraisal of the role of myth in modern society Peter Fitzpatrick uses the example of law as an integral category of modern social thought to challenge the claims of modernity which deny the relevance of myth to modern society Faith and Fiction of Muriel Spark Ruth Whittaker,1984-06-18 Northrop Frye Robert D. Denham,2004 The notebooks contents not only expand on ideas laid out in Frye s published works but also touch on subjects most readers would not associate with Frye such as his wide reading both in Eastern religious texts and in esoteric traditions ranging from astrology to the Kabbalah BOOK JACKET Maps of Meaning Jordan B. Peterson,2002-09-11 Why have people from different cultures and eras formulated myths and stories with similar structures What does this similarity tell us about the mind morality and structure of the world itself From the author of 12 Rules for Life An Antidote to Chaos comes a provocative hypothesis that explores the connection between what modern neuropsychology tells us about the brain and what rituals myths and religious stories have long narrated A cutting edge work that brings together neuropsychology cognitive science and Freudian and Jungian approaches to mythology and narrative Maps of Meaning presents a rich theory that makes the wisdom and meaning of myth accessible to the critical modern mind Deceptive Images Charles S. Liebman,2018-02-06 Deceptive Images is a profoundly thoughtful effort by a social scientist who is a participant observer in American Jewish life to come to terms with his concerns about how American Jews and Judaism have been studied and his sensitivity to the policy implications of such studies Liebman writes about what he cares deeply about as a social scientist he is able to use concepts and theories in which he has been trained although not without a sense of their limitations In the passionately argued book that results Liebman contends that those concerned with American Jews both social scientists and communal leaders have placed too much emphasis on what Jews do and too little emphasis on Judaism itself Because they have depended too much on quantitative studies to help them understand contemporary American Jews they have given too little encouragement to efforts to probe the meaning of Judaism in the lives of American Jews This stimulating volume takes exception to the notion that American Jewish life is flourishing It calls for reassessment both of the study of American Judaism and the priorities of American Jewish organizations The End of the World as We Know it Daniel Wojcik,1999-05 Wojcik English folklore U of Oregon sheds new light on America s fascination with worldly destruction and transformation exploring the origins of contemporary apocalyptic beliefs and comparing religious and secular apocalyptic speculation He examines vision of the Virgin Mary the transformation of apocalyptic prophecy in the post Cold War era and apocalyptic ideas associated with UFOs and extraterrestrials Includes bandw illustrations and photos Educational and creepy for general readers Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Myths of Origins ,2024-05-06 The articles in Myths of Origins provide insights into the universality of myths of origins as patterns of literary creation from Antiquity to the present The essays range from an investigation of the six models of beginnings in Western literature to the workings of modern myths of origins in postcolonial literature and relocate the discussion on myths of origin in a wider context that besides the humanities considers linguistics and the impact of new technologies The contributing authors to the volume shed light on issues relating to myths of origins by linking this subject to literary creation and adopting a multidisciplinary approach
