, Precarious Lives and Marginal Bodies in North Africa Hervé Anderson Tchumkam,2021-03-12 Marginal Bodies and Precarious Lives in North Africa Homo Expendibilis presents an examination of North African literature situated at the crossroads of literary analysis political philosophy and sociology The author analyzes social categories in relation to civil and social protections and in particular the ways in which disruptions to these protections can lead to social degeneration The author s analysis starts from the premise that precarious lives in North Africa have become true bodies of exception In other words they are deemed dangerous expendable and unworthy of the rights and treatment accorded to full citizens Thus the author assesses portrayals of violence in contemporary literature as a crystallization of the existing disjunction between the socially disqualified and those who wield colonial political and religious power Moreover the author argues that in order to understand contemporary politics and the current climate of insecurity a deeper understanding of precarity in North Africa from colonial times to the present is crucial By affirming their right to exist the author argues that the marginal bodies of North Africa offer unique insights into the society that marginalized them and thus from the often inaudible and invisible periphery they nevertheless challenge the dominant ideas of the center

Howells, 1988 This book is a comprehensive study of the writings of Jean Paul Sartre As well as examining the drama and the fiction the book analyses the evolution of his philosophy explores his concern with ethics psychoanalysis literary theory biography and autobiography and includes a lengthy section on the still much neglected study of Flaubert L'Idiot de la famille One important aim of the book is to rebut the charges made by many theorists and philosophers by revealing that Sartre is in fact a major source for concepts such as the decentred subject and detotalised truth and for the revolt against individualistic humanism Dr Howells also takes into account much posthumously published material in particular the Chaiers pour une morale but also the Lettres au Castor and the Cranets de la droite de guerre The work is a substantial contribution to Sartre studies but has been written with the non specialist in mind to that end all quotations are translated into English and gathered in an appendix Littérature et critique Claude-Edmonde Magny, 1971-01-01T00:00:00+01:00 End miquement
