Na Au Tibet:

Religious Revival in the Tibetan Borderlands Koen Wellens, 2011-04-01 Revival of religious practices of all sorts in China after decades of systematic government suppression is a topic of considerable interest to scholars in disciplines ranging from religious studies to anthropology to political science This book examines contemporary religious practices among the Premi people of the Sichuan Yunnan Tibet area a group of about 60 000 who speak a language belonging to the Qiang branch of Tibeto Burman Koen Wellens s ethnographic research in two Premi communities on opposite sides of the border and his analysis of available historical documents find multiple advocates and rationales for the revival of both formal Tibetan Buddhism and the indigenous Premi practices centered on ritual specialists called anji Wellens argues that the variety in the shape the revitalization process takes as it affects Premi on the Sichuan side of the border and their counterparts on the Yunnan side can only be understood in a local cultural context This full length study of the Premi the first in a language other than Chinese makes a valuable contribution to our ethnographic knowledge of Southwest China as well as to our understanding of contemporary Chinese religious and cultural politics

A Grammar of Purik Tibetan Marius Zemp, 2018-05-29 In A Grammar of Purik Tibetan Marius Zemp offers a comprehensive description of the phonologically archaic Tibetan variety spoken in Kargil the capital of a region called Purik situated in the state of Jammu Kashmir India This book contains the most thorough and insightful description of the verbal system of a Tibetic language yet written and will be particularly relevant for scholars studying evidentiality It also includes highly valuable discussions of a syntactically and pragmatically well defined class of ideophones which Zemp calls dramatizers and of prosody topics which are too often neglected in language descriptions Finally this book goes beyond what others have done in that Purik data are used to elucidate our understanding of Classical Tibetan and its origins

A History of Buddhism in India and Tibet, 2022-07-19 This volume contains the first full English translation of a thirteenth century history of Buddhism in India and Tibet That means most of all a complete life of the Buddha with the history of his renunciate order and of early Buddhist authors in India Midway through the action moves to Tibet where there is an emphasis on the Tibetan ruling dynasty the translators of Buddhist texts and the lineages that transmitted doctrinal understanding meditative insights and practical realization It concludes with a pessimistic account of the demise of the monastic order followed by optimism with the advent of the future Buddha Maitreya The composer of this remarkably ecumenical Buddhist history remains anonymous but was likely a follower of rare lineages of Dzogchen and Zhij e teachings He put together some of the most important early sources on the Tibetan imperial period that had been preserved in his times and supplies the best witnesses we have for many of them in our own times

A Change in Worlds on the Sino-Tibetan Borderlands Jack Patrick Hayes, 2013-12-19 A Change in Worlds explores the environmental economic and political history of the Sino Tibetan Songpan region of northern Sichuan from the late imperial Qing Dynasty to the early 21st century A historically Tibetan region on the eastern edge of the Tibetan Plateau with significant Han and Muslim Chinese populations Songpan played important roles in the development of western and modern China's ethnic relations policies forestry sector grasslands and environmental conservation and recent developments in eco and ethnic tourism as part of various Chinese states However in spite of close associations with various Tibetan and Chinese regimes the region also has a rich history of local independence and resilient nomadic semi nomadic and agricultural populations and identities The Sino Tibetan diversity in Songpan partly formed by unique ecological conditions conditioned all attempts to incorporate the region into larger and more centralized state homogenizing structures This historical study analyzes the social force of markets and nature in the Songpan region in concert with the political and social conflicts and compromise at the heart of changing political regimes and the area's ethnic groups It presents new perspectives on the social transformation and economies of Tibetans and Han Chinese from the late Qing Dynasty to Mao era and contemporary western China It not only allows for a new understanding of how the natural environment and landscapes fit into the imagination of the Sino Tibetan borderlands it also figures in the challenges of negotiating ethnic and market relations among societies The mix of complicated relations over natural environment resources politics and markets was at the heart of the region's social and political infrastructures with far reaching implications for both historical and contemporary China
