Nagasaki Journey Rupert Jenkins, 1998-05-01 An oversize book of B W photos taken by Yosuke Yamahata of Nagasaki Japan the day after an atomic bomb was dropped on the city Yamahata and two other men had been sent there by the Japanese Army to document the effects of the bomb That day Yamahata filmed 100 images the most extensive photographic record of the immediate aftermath of the bombings of either Nagasaki or Hiroshima on which the first atomic bomb had been dropped on August 6th The book is an essential record of the nuclear age and is even more significant in light of contemporary nuclear proliferation and the potential for nuclear terrorism      Nagasaki Journey Yōsuke Yamahata, Rupert Jenkins, Ansel Adams Center, 1995      Nagasaki Journey Yōsuke Yamahata, Rupert Jenkins, Ansel Adams Center, 1995 Collection of photographs which were taken to document the effects of the atomic bomb dropped on Nagasaki on 9 August 1945      Nagasaki Journey , The Exploratorium located in San Francisco California features a photographic collection of images of the destruction caused by the atomic bomb dropped on Nagasaki on August 9 1945 The photographs were taken by Japanese photographer Yosuke Yamahata      Tattered Kimonos in Japan Robert Rand, 2023-12-26 Examines the meaning and impact of World War II through the eyes of Japanese men and women who survived that conflict      Empire of Ruins Miles Orvell, 2021 Americans have been fascinated by ruins as symbols of the past and now as symbols of the future Empire of Ruins tells the story of what ruins have meant to Americans and how their representation in photography often both beautiful and terrifying has shaped their meaning      NAGASAKI JOURNEY: THE PHOTOGRAPHS OF YOSUKE YAMAHATA AUGUST 10, 1945 Yosuke Yamahata, 1995      Living with the Bomb: American and Japanese Cultural Conflicts in the Nuclear Age Laura E. Hein, Mark Selden, 2015-02-18 The development and use of the atomic bombs at Hiroshima and Nagasaki number among the formative national experiences for both Japanese and Americans as well as for 20th century Japan US relations This volume explores the way in which the bomb has shaped the self image of both peoples      Network of Knowledge Terrence Jackson, 2016-02-29 Nagasaki during the Tokugawa 1603 1868 was truly Japan's window on the world with its Chinese residences and Deshima island where Western foreigners including representatives of the Dutch East India Company were confined In 1785 tsuki Gentaku 1757 1827 journeyed from the capital to Nagasaki to meet Dutch physicians and the Japanese who acted as their interpreters Gentaku was himself a physician but he was also a Dutch studies rangaku scholar who passionately believed that European science and medicine were critical to Japan's progress Network of Knowledge examines the development of Dutch studies during the crucial years 1770 1830 as Gentaku with the help of likeminded colleagues worked to facilitate its growth creating a school participating in and hosting scholarly and social gatherings and circulating books In time the modest informal gatherings of Dutch studies devotees rangakusha mostly in Edo and Nagasaki would grow into a pan national society Applying ideas from social network theory and Bourdieu's conceptions of habitus field and capital this volume shows how Dutch studies scholars used networks to grow their numbers and overcome government indifference to create a dynamic community The social significance of rangakusha as much as the knowledge they pursued in medicine astronomy cartography and military science was integral to the creation of a Tokugawa information revolution one that saw an increase in information gathering among all classes and innovative methods for collecting and storing that information Although their salons were not as politically charged as those of their European counterparts rangakusha were subversive in their decision to include scholars from a wide range of socio economic backgrounds They created a cultural society of civility and play in which members worked toward a common cultural goal This insightful study reveals the strength of the community s ties as it follows rangakusha into the Meiji era 1868 1912 when a new generation championed values and ambitions similar to those of Gentaku and his peers Network of Knowledge offers a fresh look at the cultural and intellectual environment of the late Tokugawa that will be welcomed by scholars and students of Japanese intellectual and social history

A Reader in Edo Period Travel Herbert Plutschow, 2022-03-07 Largely ignored hitherto by Western scholars Plutschow s Edo Period Travel provides the first in depth study of the subject which is centred on fifteen of the period s most notable travellers some of whom are well known in other fields as intellectuals artists poets folklorists and natural scientists for example but rarely if at all as travellers The first traveller put in the spotlight is the celebrated intellectual and botanist Kaibara Ekiken 1630 1714 and the last is the explorer of Ezo now Hokkaido and government official Matsuura Takeshiro 1818 88 Such was the thirst for knowledge in the Edo period that some travel accounts estimated to number over 2000 became best sellers in their day not least for their voyeuristic appeal including those of Kaibara Ekiken and Tachibana Nankei which are included in this volume This important research on how the Japanese discovered their own country and cultural identity has considerable interdisciplinary appeal Of particular interest also is the author s discussion on the nature of this new travel writing and the self centred observation and seeing that developed in the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries he calls the Japanese Enlightenment

Nuclear War Raymond G. Wilson, 2014 Nuclear War Hiroshima Nagasaki and A Workable Moral Strategy for Achieving and Preserving World Peace Raymond G Wilson The real truth of the matter is as you and I know that a financial element in the large centers has owned the government of the United States since the days of Andrew Jackson Franklin D Roosevelt There is considerable reason to believe President Roosevelt s statement is quite true thus the financial element in the large centers shares responsibility and blame for the tens if not hundreds of thousands of war deaths in the last two decades The people of the world need protection from those responsible for provoking nations to war In the United States this responsibility lies with all elements in the highest levels of government the decision makers It lies with those who tinker with political and economic machinations most likely for the advantage of a financial element in the large centers These are probably people young enough and sufficiently uninformed to have no conception of the atrocity of the nuclear confrontations and conflagrations to which they are quite possibly leading the world This group of people may include most people serving in the U S Congress and from personal experience many in the U S Military I have my doubts whether Presidents have seen all of the results of the world s first nuclear war they are probably shielded from this Photographs of the victims were confiscated and held confidential for more than 22 years after 1945 There were well more than 210 000 victims not many photographs were made and survived You can learn from this book a tiny fraction of the truth about what happens to people caught in nuclear war Although the truth from more than 210 000 will never be heard In a future war there would be hundreds of thousands more likely hundreds of millions of victims The United States government has not revealed this kind of truth about its first nuclear war As of early 2014 no sitting president has ever visited Hiroshima or Nagasaki In Chapter 5 a solution is suggested to save us all from our nuclear madness I hate war as only a soldier who has lived it can only as one who has seen its brutality its futility its stupidity Dwight D Eisenhower we also possess the seeds of goodness and justice that humankind was given by nature and has fostered over the ages We have the ability to cultivate self control and consideration for others and to strive to live together in a humane and harmonious manner with others The revival of such true humanity not only between individuals but also between nations is an absolute necessity today for the age has come when one nation s self centered behavior could lead all humanity to annihilation Naomi Shohno 1986 America can do whatever we set our mind to Barack Obama
