Brand Name Bullies David Bollier, 2008-04-21 An impassioned darkly amusing look at how corporations misuse copyright law to stifle creativity and free speech If you want to make fun of Mickey or Barbie on your Web site you may be hearing from some corporate lawyers You should also think twice about calling something fair and balanced or publicly using Martin Luther King Jr's I Have a Dream speech It may be illegal Or it may be entirely legal but the distinction doesn't matter if you can't afford a lawyer More and more corporations are grabbing and asserting rights over every idea and creation in our world regardless of the law's intent or the public interest But beyond the humorous absurdity of all this there lies a darker problem as David Bollier shows in this important new book Lawsuits and legal bullying clearly prevent the creation of legitimate new software new art and music new literature new businesses and worst of all new scientific and medical research David Bollier Amherst MA is cofounder of Public Knowledge and Senior Fellow at the Norman Lear Center USC Annenberg School for Communication His books include Silent Theft The Coloniality of Animal Monstrous Othering in Children's Books, Films, and Toys Donna Varga, 2024-08-19 The Coloniality of Animal Monstrous Othering in Children's Books Films and Toys examines how the portrayal of animals as physically distorted behaviorally depraved and intellectually defective serves to justify their debasement violation and destruction in materials directed toward young consumers The author argues that this animal monstrous Othering arises from the Eurocentric belief in humans' natural superiority over animals and the right to categorize animals in accordance with a scale of worthiness that parallels the subjugation of racialized persons The chapters examine a variety of canonical figures like the dissolute wolf of Red Riding Hood stories and the disfigured titular character of the Wonky Donkey picture book alongside non canonical animals including reprobate pigs degenerate sharks self centered flamingos and wicked piranhas To counter this animal debasement Varga juxtaposes these readings with an examination of materials that articulate harmonious animal human interrelationships without dependence on styles of anthropomorphism that diminish animality
