Names We Call Home Autobiography On Racial Identity:

Names We Call Home Becky W. Thompson, Sangeeta Tyagi, 1996 Provides an ontological characterization of texts to complete the discussion begun in Gracia's A Theory of Textuality The Logic and Epistemology 1995 In an argumentative style that avoids some of the extreme views espoused by other contemporary authors he explores the issues raised by the identity of various texts and proposes a view of the identity and function of authors and audiences and of their relations to the texts Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Names We Call Home Becky Thompson, Sangeeta Tyagi, 2013-05-13 Names We Call Home is a ground breaking collection of essays which articulate the dynamics of racial identity in contemporary society The first volume of its kind Names We Call Home offers autobiographical essays poetry and interviews to highlight the historical social and cultural influences that inform racial identity and make possible resistance to myriad forms of injustice White Men Challenging Racism Cooper Thompson, Emmett Schaeffer, Harry Brod, 2003-04-21

Profiles thirty five white men who have challenged society's beliefs about race segregation and tolerance

Auto/ethnography Deborah Reed-Danahay, 2021-01-07 In departing from the traditional stance taken by anthropologists who study others ethnographically this timely book explores forms of self inscription on the part of both the ethnographer and those others who are studied Informed by developments in postmodernism postcolonialism and feminism this is an original contribution to the growing dialogue across disciplinary boundaries The chapters build upon recent reconsiderations of the uses and meaning of personal narrative to examine the ways in which selves and social forms are culturally constituted through biographical genres Ethnic autobiography self reflexivity in ethnography and native ethnography raise provocative questions about a range of issues for the contemporary scholar authenticity of voice ethnographic authority and the degree to which autoethnography constitutes resistance to hegemonic bodies of discourse Examined here in a variety of cultural and political contexts writing about the self offers challenging insights into the construction and transformation of identities and cultural meanings Power Lines Aimee Carrillo Rowe, 2008-09-25 Argues for the importance of understanding identity as relational rather than static in encouraging feminist alliances across race class and ethnicity Teaching for Diversity and Social Justice Maurianne Adams, Lee Anne Bell, Pat Griffin, 2007-05-11 For nearly a decade Teaching for Diversity and Social Justice has been the definitive sourcebook of theoretical foundations and curricular frameworks for social justice teaching practice This thoroughly revised second edition continues to provide teachers and facilitators with an accessible pedagogical approach to issues of oppression in classrooms Building on the groundswell of interest in social justice education the second edition offers coverage of current issues and controversies while preserving the hands on format and inclusive content of the original Teaching for Diversity and Social Justice presents a well constructed foundation for engaging the complex and often daunting problems of discrimination and inequality in American society This book includes a CD ROM with extensive appendices for participant handouts and facilitator preparation Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria? Beverly Daniel Tatum, 2017-09-05 The classic New York Times bestselling book on the psychology of racism that shows us how to talk about race in America Walk into any racially mixed high school and you will see Black White and Latino youth clustered in their own groups Is this self segregation a problem to address or a coping strategy How can we get past our reluctance to discuss racial issues Beverly Daniel Tatum a renowned authority on the psychology of racism argues that straight talk about our racial identities is essential if we are serious about communicating across racial and ethnic divides and pursuing antiracism These topics have only become more urgent as the national conversation about race is increasingly acrimonious This fully revised edition is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand dynamics of race and racial inequality in America      CULTURAL GEOGRAPHY IN PRACTICE Miles Ogborn, Alison Blunt, Pyrs Gruffudd, David Pinder, 2014-04-23 Cultural Geography in Practice provides an innovative and accessible approach to the sources theories and methods of cultural geography Written by an international team of prominent cultural geographers all of whom are experienced researchers this book is a fully illustrated guide to methodological approaches in cultural geography In order to demonstrate the practice of cultural geography each chapter combines the following features Practical instruction in using one of the main methods of cultural geography e g interviewing interpreting texts and visual images participatory methods An overview of a key area of concern in cultural geography e g the body national identity empire marginality A nuts and bolts description of the actual application of the theories and methods within a piece of research With the addition of boxed definitions of key concepts and descriptions of research projects by students who devised and undertook them Cultural Geography in Practice is an essential manual of research practice for both undergraduate and graduate geography students      Troubling Women's Studies Ann Braithwaite, 2004 The four essays in this collection present a multifaceted conversation about what is at stake in passing on the institutionalized project of Women s Studies at this historic moment The authors come to this conversation from a diversity of histories commitments and investments in Women s Studies Framed by the argument that Women s Studies is a project fraught with uncertainty the authors explore what it means to live within this uncertainty and how one might respond to it intellectually emotionally politically institutionally and pedagogically In exploring their own responses and taking into consideration responses from other feminist intellectuals the authors subject their practices to the same kind of academic critique to which they subject the discipline its location theories methods and pedagogies The purpose of these essays is not to enact these responses nor to fix a firm direction for the future of the discipline but rather by looking back and attending to the now inspire us to grapple with what might be possible      Moving Beyond Borders Karen Carole Flynn, 2011-01-01 Moving Beyond Borders is the first book length history of Black health care workers in Canada delving into the experiences of thirty five postwar era nurses who were born in Canada or who immigrated from the Caribbean either through Britain or directly to Canada Karen Flynn examines the shaping of these women s stories from their childhoods through to their roles as professionals and community activists

Flynn interweaves oral histories with archival sources to show how these women's lives were shaped by their experiences of migration professional training and family life Theoretical analyses from postcolonial gender and diasporic Black Studies serve to highlight the multiple subjectivities operating within these women's lives By presenting a collective biography of identity formation Moving Beyond Borders reveals the extraordinary complexity of Black women's history Gender, Race, and Ethnicity in the Workplace Margaret Foegen Karsten, 2006-07-30 Despite tremendous strides that have led to increasing numbers of women and minorities entering the workplace and achieving positions of power and influence there is still much ground to be gained Blending theory and practice statistics and analysis this three volume set presents the latest research from the fields of management sociology psychology law and public policy to shed new light on the dynamics of gender and race ethnicity in the workplace The first volume details the corporate paths of women and minorities to date highlighting continuing challenges and gaps Volumes 2 and 3 tackle such complex issues as corporation socialization and how it excludes women and minorities the impact of affirmative action decisions on practice and policy the fine line between office romance and sexual harassment and work life balance These volumes also showcase innovative practices in promoting diversity and leadership development Featuring contributions from such influential authors as Nancy Adler Gail Evans and Gary Powell this set presents a unique collection of perspectives on the dynamics of race ethnicity and gender in the workplace and considers how they both reflect and reinforce the culture at large Since women were first admitted to the Harvard Radcliffe business program in 1959 they have made remarkable progress in assuming leadership and management positions traditionally held by white men more recently African Asian Hispanic and Native American women and men have joined the professional realm in increasing numbers with profound implications for organizations Nevertheless the statistics still tell a discouraging story women make up nearly 50 percent of the workforce but only 16 percent of the corporate officer pool in America's 500 largest companies for every dollar a white man earns a black man earns 76 cents in a recent survey 70 percent of women cited lack of an influential mentor as a key obstacle to attaining business success The leading business experts assembled here consider what is behind these statistics and what can be done to change the culture that creates them Blending theory and practice statistics and analysis this three volume set presents the latest research from the fields of management sociology psychology law and public policy to shed new light on the dynamics of gender and race ethnicity in the workplace The first volume details the corporate paths of women and minorities to date highlighting continuing challenges and gaps Volumes 2 and 3 tackle such complex issues as socialization and how it excludes women and minorities the impact of affirmative action decisions on practice and policy the fine line between office romance and sexual harassment the depth of racial and gender stereotypes work life balance and unwritten codes of power and influence These volumes also showcase innovative practices in promoting diversity and leadership development Featuring contributions from such influential authors as Nancy Adler Gail Evans and Gary Powell this set presents a unique collection of perspectives on the dynamics of race ethnicity and gender in the workplace and considers how they both reflect and reinforce the culture at large

Social Change in Diverse Teaching Contexts Nancy G. Barron, Nancy Maloney Grimm, Sibylle Gruber, 2006 Assumptions based on racial class and ethnic identities can undermine our best intentions as teachers administrators and scholars The misguided strategy of colorblindness and the continuing racial segregation of American cities and schools leave teachers and students with little experience for addressing the touchy subject of racial identity in the classroom This collection pertinent for teacher preparation undergraduate and graduate seminars and reading discussion groups focuses on new and experienced teachers who confront myths who negotiate their own identities as well as identity politics in the classroom and who design new projects use new tools and apply new practices The chapters highlight the need to change how teachers respond to student work manage classroom interactions form collaborative partnerships construct service learning projects and conduct research

21st Century Communication: A Reference Handbook William F. Eadie, 2009-05-15 Highlights the most important topics issues questions and debates affecting the field of communication in the 21st Century

Everyday Antiracism Mica Pollock, 2010-07-19 Which acts by educators are racist and which are antiracist How can an educator constructively discuss complex issues of race with students and colleagues In Everyday Antiracism leading educators deal with the most challenging questions about race in school offering invaluable and effective advice Contributors including Beverly Daniel Tatum Sonia Nieto and Pedro Noguera describe concrete ways to analyze classroom interactions that may or may not be racial deal with racial inequality and diversity and teach to high standards across racial lines Topics range from using racial incidents as teachable moments and responding to the n word to valuing students home worlds dealing daily with achievement gaps and helping parents fight ethnic and racial misconceptions about their children Questions following each essay prompt readers to examine and discuss everyday issues of race and opportunity in their own classrooms and schools For educators and parents determined to move beyond frustrations about race Everyday Antiracism is an essential tool

Women's Life Writing and Imagined Communities Cynthia Anne Huff, 2005 Recognising the great legacy of women s life writings this book draws on a wealth of sources to critically examine the impact of these writings on our communities

A Promise And A Way Of Life Becky Thompson, 2001-08-07 The first in depth look at white people s activism in fighting racism during the past fifty years Not since the Civil Rights Movement of the 1950s and 1960s when many white college students went south to fight against Jim Crow laws has white antiracist activity held the public s attention Yet there have always been white people involved in fighting racism In this passionate work Becky Thompson looks at white Americans who have struggled against racism offering examples of both successes and failures inspirations practical philosophies and a way ahead A Promise and a Way of Life weaves an account of the past half century based on the life histories of thirty nine people who have placed antiracist activism at the center of their lives Through a rich and fascinating narrative that links individual experiences with social and political history Thompson shows the ways both public and personal in which whites have opposed racism during several social movements the Civil Rights and Black Power movements multiracial feminism the Central American peace movement the struggle for antiracist education and activism against the prison industry Beginning with the diverse catalysts that started these activists on their journeys this book demonstrates the contributions and limitations of white antiracism in key social justice movements Through these stories crucial questions are raised Does antiracist work require a repudiation of one's whiteness or can that identity be transformed through political commitment and alliances What do white people need to do to undermine white privilege What would it take to build a multiracial movement in which white people are responsible for creating antiracist alliances while not co-opting people of color Unique in its depth and thoroughness A Promise and a Way of Life is essential for anyone currently fighting racism or wondering how to do so Through its demonstration of the extraordinary personal and social transformations ordinary people can make it provides a new paradigm for movement activity one that will help to incite and guide future antiracist activism Whiteness and Racialized Ethnic Groups in the United States Sherrow O. Pinder, 2012-01-01

Whiteness and Racialized Ethnic Groups in the United States in order to account for the never ending discrimination toward racialized ethnic groups including First Nations blacks Chinese and Mexicans revisits the history of whiteness in the United States It shows the difference between remembering a history of human indignities and recreating one that composes its own textual memory More specifically it reformulates how the historically reliant positionality of whiteness as a part of the everyday practice and discourse of white supremacy would later become institutionalized Even though whiteness studies with the intention of exposing white privilege has entered the realm of academic research and is moving toward antiracist forms of whiteness or at least toward antiracist approaches for a different form of whiteness it is not equipped to relinquish the privilege that comes with normalized whiteness Hence in order to construct a post white identity whiteness would have to be denormalized and freed of it of its presumptive hegemony Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria? Beverly Tatum, 2003-01-17

The classic bestselling book on the psychology of racism now fully revised and updated Walk into any racially mixed high school and you will see Black White and Latino youth clustered in their own groups Is this self segregation a problem to address or a coping strategy Beverly Daniel Tatum a renowned authority on the psychology of racism argues that straight talk about our racial identities is essential if we are serious about enabling communication across racial and ethnic divides These topics have only become more urgent as the national conversation about race is increasingly acrimonious This fully revised edition is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand the dynamics of race in America An unusually sensitive work about the racial barriers that still divide us in so many areas of life Jonathan Kozol Coerced and Free Migration, 2002-04-16 This volume is an innovative history of major worldwide population movements free and forced from around 1500 to the early 20th century It explores the shifting levels of freedom under which migrants traveled and compares the experiences of migrants and their descendants who arrived under drastically different labor regimes Alison

Georgetown University      Crossing Lines Marc Coronado, 2003 Crossing Lines addresses the issues of race and mixed race at the turn of the 21st century. Representing multiple academic disciplines, the volume invites readers to consider the many ways that identity, community, and collectivity are formed while addressing the challenges that multiracial identity poses to our understanding of race and ethnicity.
