Naming The Silences God Medicine And The Problem Of Suffering:

Naming the Silences: God, Medicine and the Problem of Suffering Stanley Hauerwas, 1990 Naming the Silences Stanley Hauerwas, 2004-10-07 Hauerwas explores why we so fervently seek explanations for suffering and evil and he shows how modern medicine has become a god to which we look in vain for deliverance from the evils of disease and mortality The Evidential Argument from Evil William L. Rowe, Paul Draper, Richard Swinburne, Eleonore Stump, Alvin Plantinga, William P. Alston, Stephen J. Wykstra, Peter van Inwagen, Bruce Russell, Richard M. Gale, 2008-10-17 Is evil evidence against the existence of God A collection of essays by philosophers theologians and other scholars Even if God and evil are compatible it remains hotly contested whether evil renders belief in God unreasonable The Evidential Argument from Evil presents five classic statements on this issue by eminent philosophers and theologians and places them in dialogue with eleven original essays reflecting new thinking by these and other scholars The volume focuses on two versions of the argument The first affirms that there is no reason for God to permit either certain specific horrors or the variety and profusion of undeserved suffering The second asserts that pleasure and pain given their biological role are better explained by hypotheses other than theism Contributors include William P Alston Paul Draper Richard M Gale Daniel Howard Snyder Alvin Plantinga William L Rowe Bruce Russell Eleonore Stump Richard G Swinburne Peter van Inwagen and Stephen John Wykstra Ethical Issues in Biotechnology Richard Sherlock, John D. Morrey, 2002 Visit our website for sample chapters Traces of the Trinity Andrew Robinson, 2014-08-28 The essential argument of this new work by Andrew Robinson is that we live move and have our being within a sea of signs but that we are largely unaware of this for most of the time When the structure of these signs is analysed it turns out to rest on three recurring elemental grounds which the author calls Quality Otherness and Mediation The kaleidoscopic ramifying patterns of Quality Otherness and Mediation which underpin representations and interpretations at every level and dimension of the processes of signification offer a model of the dynamic mutual indwelling of the Father Son and Spirit within the eternal life of the Trinity This semiotic model of the Trinity would be of rather limited interest in itself unless it can also illuminate other areas of Christian theology Robinson suggests that the model leads to a helpful way of understanding how the entirely human person Jesus of Nazareth may be understood to have been the full and perfect embodiment representation of the quality of God's being This in turn helps us to understand how the processes of representation and interpretation enable us to be drawn into the very life of God This has practical implications for the church and for the individual lives of Christian believers It also offers via a re articulation of the neglected concept of vestiges of the Trinity in creation a form of spirituality of the everyday Methods in Medical Ethics Jeremy Sugarman, Daniel P. Sulmasy, 2010-10-15 Medical ethics draws upon methods from a wide array of disciplines including anthropology economics epidemiology health services research history law medicine nursing philosophy psychology sociology and theology In this influential book outstanding scholars in medical ethics bring these many methods together in one place to be systematically described critiqued and challenged Newly revised and updated chapters in this second edition include philosophy religion and theology virtue and professionalism casuistry and clinical ethics law history qualitative research ethnography quantitative surveys experimental methods and economics and decision science This second edition also includes new chapters on literature and sociology as well as a second chapter on philosophy which expands the range of philosophical methods discussed to include gender ethics communitarianism and discourse ethics In each of these chapters contributors provide descriptions of the methods critiques and notes on resources and training Methods in Medical Ethics is a valuable resource for scholars teachers editors and students in any of the disciplines that have contributed to the field As a textbook and reference for graduate students and scholars in medical ethics it offers a rich understanding of the complexities involved in the rigorous investigation of moral questions in medical practice and research

Our Only Hope Margaret B Adam, 2014-08-28 The most popular source of theological hope for modern Christians is that of Jurgen Moltmann Preachers teachers and lay people reflect Moltmann's influence with their hope in a this worldly eschatology and suffering God However an exclusive reliance on that hope deprives the church of crucial resources in the face of global economic environmental and military crises Our Only Hope explores Moltmannian hope and considers its costs before looking elsewhere for additional contributions from Thomas Aquinas theological virtue of hope to nihilism and beyond in order to encourage the church to sustain and practise hope in Jesus Christ our only hope

Christianity and the Culture of Relativism in the Anthropologies of Joseph Ratzinger and Stanley Hauerwas Charles Ssenyondo STL STD, 2012-12-17 Joseph Ratzinger rates relativism as the greatest challenge of the Church today What he describes is not a new phenomenon but his theology highlights its origins and magnitude Stanley Hauerwas fights the same battle on the Protestant side This book attempts to discover and streamline their deliberations showing their meeting points and where they differ and remedies they offer to combat the crisis It seeks to argue out the best response to relativism that can most appropriately benefit both Western and African Christendom Despite being a Western phenomenon relativism is no longer an exclusively Western problem It is rather imposing itself as the new world culture depicting all other cultures and perspectives as inferior Ratzinger christened this the Dictatorship of Relativism while Hauerwas calls it Policing of Christian Values While Ratzinger's greatest worry is relativism's denial of Truth mostly from outside the ekklesia for Hauerwas relativism is not a force from without of the Church but part and parcel of the people's modern ways of life in which Christian values are persecuted in the name of peaceful existence Both perspectives point at a crisis of cultures where the past is rejected and the future disconnected from the present which trend inevitably leads to disintegration a leap into the dark While the pre Modern world sought God the Modern world sought knowledge The contemporary world seeks relativism But all is not lost The truth can still be found through the word of God and Christian culture

Patience, Compassion, Hope, and the Christian Art of Dying Well Christopher P. Vogt, 2004 By mining the rich tradition of virtue ethics Christopher Vogt uses the virtues of patience compassion and hope as a framework for specifying the shape of a good death and for naming the practices Christians should develop to live well and die well Bringing together historical biblical and contemporary sources in Christian ethics Vogt provides a long overdue theological analysis of the ars moriendi or art of dying literature of four centuries ago Through a careful analysis of Luke's passion narrative Vogt uses Jesus as the primary model for being patient in the face of death and for dying well

Theodicy and Eschatology Bruce Barber, David Neville, 2005 This collection of essays examines two pressing issues in theology One is theodicy that is a belief that in a just God in the face of evil and suffering in our world The other is the issue of Eschatology a belief in the fulfillment of Jesus' saving mission experienced as God's healing of humanity afflicted by suffering and evil

Religion and American Cultures Gary Laderman, Luis León, 2014-12-17 This four volume work provides a detailed multicultural survey of established as well as new American religions and investigates the fascinating interactions between religion and ethnicity gender politics regionalism ethics and popular culture This revised and expanded edition of Religion and American Cultures Tradition Diversity and Popular Expression presents more than 140 essays that address contemporary spiritual practice and culture with a historical perspective The entries cover virtually every religion in modern day America as well as the role of religion in various aspects of U.S. culture Readers will discover that Americans aren't largely Protestant Catholic or Jewish anymore and that the number of popular religious identities is far greater than many would imagine And although most Americans believe in a higher power the fastest growing identity in the United States is the nones those Americans who elect none when asked about their religious identity thereby demonstrating how many individuals see their spirituality as something not easily defined or categorized The first volume explores America's multicultural communities and their religious practices covering the range of different religions among Anglo Americans and Euro Americans as well as spirituality among Latino African American Native American and Asian American communities The second volume focuses on cultural aspects of religions addressing topics such as film Generation X public sacred spaces sexuality and new religious expressions The new third volume expands the range of topics covered with in depth essays on additional topics such as interfaith families religion in prisons belief in the paranormal and religion after September 11 2001 The fourth volume is devoted to complementary primary source documents

What Happens to

Faith When Christians Get Dementia? 'Tricia Williams, 2021-01-25 What happens to faith when Christians get dementia Here the unique voices of Christians who live with this illness bring insight and prompt theological reflection on the profound questions that dementia asks of faith Within the boundaries of a biblical agenda these questions are explored using a model of orientation disorientation and reorientation reminiscent of Brueggemann's scheme to seek deeper understanding of faith experience and practice Arising from the research fresh theological insights and challenges for the church call for new creative practices to enable the faith nurture of disciples of Jesus living with this disease Counterintuitively the study reveals a growing positive experience of faith in the light of dementia highlighting the significance of Christian hope Faith does not end with diagnosis of this illness

Procreative Ethics Fritz Oehlschlaeger, 2010-01-01 Procreative Ethics addresses questions at the beginning of life from a point of view that is alternatively philosophical and christian The author seeks to defend philosophically some positions taken partly on Christian grounds while also trying to make the implications of Christian convictions intelligible to those who do not necessarily share those convictions The author positions himself neither as a moral friend nor moral stranger preferring instead the role of moral acquaintance to his audience From that position the goal is to find areas of fruitful agreement while clarifying differences that may lead to truer reconciliations further on in the conversation The book opens with an attempted natural law defense of artificial contraception devotes four chapters to criticism of current defenses of abortion and then takes up in six remaining chapters such matters as genetic enhancement of children the justice or injustice of genetic revision the harm conundrum or non identity problem designing for disability and reproductive cloning Fritz Oehlschlaeger has written a remarkable book that needs to be read by everyone with a stake in moral questions at life's beginning Displaying theological and philosophical sophistication as well as a profound wisdom these arguments must be taken seriously by those who agree with Oeschlaeger as well as those who do not Joel James Shuman King's College Writing with a modesty that betrays the depth of argument that characterizes Procreative Ethics Fritz Oehlschlaeger has written the most important book in bioethics in recent memory Bioethics has long suffered from a stale imagination Oehlschlaeger an acknowledged outsider to the field brings to his work a fresh imagination shaped by literary texts and a profound humanity Hopefully many will want to emulate his work in other areas of bioethics Stanley Hauerwas Duke University In this new book Fritz Oehlschlaeger has made masterful and persuasive arguments about the moral challenges looming at the beginning of human life And he does this as a highly informed non specialist an English professor no less Robert Benne Roanoke College

Faith and Health Paul D. Simmons, 2008 Faith and Health examines controversial issues in medical ethics such as embryo stem cell research the face transplant cyborgs and the human and physician assisted suicide Those struggling with such confusing and controversial subjects will appreciate the insights from ethics theology and law the author brings together Here is guidance for personal or social responses to questions in medicine that affect us all

Seeking Understanding Calvin College, 2001-09-19 The Stob Lectures sponsored annually by Calvin

College and Calvin Theological Seminary have drawn some of today's most celebrated Christian thinkers in the fields of ethics, apologetics and philosophical theology. This volume collects under one cover each of the Stob Lectures delivered from 1986 to 1998. Comprised of thirteen learned, relevant and well-crafted addresses, Seeking Understanding presents a diverse range of significant topics illuminated in engaging ways by the scholars who know them best. Lewis B. Smedes's inaugural lecture examines the subject of commitment; James M. Gustafson follows with a look at moral discourse while Peter Kreeft speaks on immortality. Alvin Plantinga explores the nature of Christian scholarship and Marty E. Marty surveys the denominational landscape. Allen D. Verhey probes key issues in medical ethics while Nicholas P. Wolterstorff compares neo-Calvinism and Yale theology. Other lectures feature Dewey J. Hoitenga Jr. on happiness, John Feikens on conflict, George I. Mavrodes on philosophy, Arthur F. Holmes on Christian education and J. Harold Ellens on dysfunction. Eleanore Stump rounds out the volume with an insightful discussion of the problem of evil. Illustrative of the same depth of thinking, scholarly passion and clarity of expression that characterized the work of the man whom these lectures honor, Henry J. Stob, Seeking Understanding is both a valuable omnibus and a superb introduction to a rich and influential tradition of Christian scholarship.

Christianity and the Disciplines Mervyn Davies, Oliver D. Crisp, Gavin D'Costa, Peter Hampson, 2012-11-02. This volume will show how various intellectual disciplines most found within the modern university can learn from theology and philosophy in primarily methodological and substantive terms. It will explore the possible ways in which current presuppositions and practices of the discipline might be challenged. It will also indicate the possibilities of both a Christian culture in relation to that discipline or the way in which that discipline might look within a real or theoretical Christian university.

Raising Children : Emerging Needs, Modern Risks, and Social Responses School of Social Welfare, University of California. Jill Duerr Berrick, Professor & Associate Dean, Berkeley, Berkeley. Neil Gilbert Chernin, Professor of Social Welfare, University of California, 2008-01-11. Modern family life raises tough questions. Who should be responsible for children's daily care? How can their financial support be fairly allocated between parents? Should extended family members be paid for their help? Can women have full careers and also be good mothers? In Raising Children, leading scholars take on these questions and more in order to critically assess policy responses to the changing needs of the modern family. As parents struggle to balance professional and personal demands, choose schools for their children and sort through constantly updated medical and psychological information, they need help from public officials who can make policies that realistically address childrearing's contemporary challenges. The insightful contributions in this volume provide an excellent starting point for understanding these thorny, multifaceted issues, skillfully framing the influences on child development such as altered family dynamics, major life changes like immigration and the role of schools and government in children's health. Adoption by same-sex couples, difficulties for immigrant children, the ADHD diagnosis controversy and public intervention for at-risk children are only a few of the topics covered. With society in a constant state of flux, it is critically important that we assess our family and child policies to ensure that they provide families with the assistance they need Drawing on the rich interdisciplinary work of the Berkeley Center for Child and Youth Policy this is an eye opening look at some of the biggest issues facing the family today which are as complex as they are vital to address in a thoughtful way Moral Issues and Christian Responses Patricia Beattie Jung,L. Shannon Jung,2012-09-01 Previously published by Cengage Wadsworth this popular anthology for the study of Christian ethics has been a mainstay of undergraduate courses for nearly thirty years Shannon and Patricia Jung provide an introduction to contemporary moral issues from decidedly yet diverse Christian moral perspectives The anthology intentionally seeks a range of voices to produce a kind of point counterpoint discussion of the ethical issue Among the classic issues considered are sexuality and reproductive rights prejudice biomedical ethics the environment immigration terrorism war and globalization New issues include development ethics personal finance and consumerism workplace ethics health care and citizenship Christian Ethics Larry Chouinard,David A.
