Naming Of Persons:

Menkiti on Community and Becoming a Person Edwin Etieyibo, Polycarp Ikuenobe, 2020-07-24 Ifeanyi Menkiti's articulation of an African conception of personhood especially in Person and Community in African Traditional Thought has become very influential in African philosophy. Menkiti on Community and Becoming a Person contributes to the debate in African philosophy on personhood by engaging with various aspects of Menkiti's account of person and community. The contributors examine this account in relation to themes such as individualism, communalism, rights, individual liberty, moral agency, communal ethics, education, state and nation building, elderhood and ancestorhood. Through these themes, this book edited by Edwin Etieyibo and Polycarp Ikuenobe shows that Menkiti's account of personhood in the context of community is both fundamental and foundational to epistemological, metaphysical, logical, ethical, legal, social and political issues in African thought systems.

The notion of a man-god or of a human being endowed with divine or supernatural powers belongs essentially to that earlier period of religious history in which gods and men are still viewed as beings of much the same order and before they are divided by the impassable gulf which to later thought opens out between them. Strange therefore as may seem to us the idea of a god incarnate in human form it has nothing very startling for early man who sees in a man-god or a god-man only a higher degree of the same supernatural powers which he arrogates in perfect good faith to himself from Chapter VII
