Schall, 2023-05-02 In The Life of the Mind Georgetown University's James V. Schall takes up the task of reminding us that as human beings we naturally take a special delight and pleasure in simply knowing. Because we have not only bodies but also minds we are built to know what is. In this volume Schall, author of On the Unseriousness of Human Affairs among many other volumes of philosophical and political reflection, discusses the various ways of approaching the delight of thinking and the way that this delight begins in seeing and hearing and even in making and walking. We must be attentive to and cultivate the needs of the mind, argues Schall, for it is through our intellect that all that is not ourselves is finally returned to us, allowing us to live in the light of truth. Private Institutions Licensed by the Department of Mental Hygiene for the Fiscal Year Beginning July 1 ... Some researchers spend years on detailed statistical analyses of minute parts of the game, while others wax poetic about its players and plays.
