Decisive Phase of Columbia's War on Narco-terrorism Dario E. Teicher, 2005 In early 2002 the final days of Colombian President Andres Pastrana's administration were marred by an unending internal war against right wing and leftist narco terrorists and criminal cartels During his administration the narco terrorists reached their zenith of power The right wing paramilitary groups under the Autodefensas Unidas de Colombia AUC umbrella organization were demanding legal status and greater political power The two major leftist groups the largest being the Fuerzas Armadas Revolucionarias de Colombia FARC and the other the Ejercito de Liberacion Nacional ELN threatened the capital and were able to operate in every region of Colombia All of these groups were well armed due to their income from narco dollars In a desperate bid for peace Pastrana ceded to the FARC a vast safe haven known as the Zona del Despeje in exchange for participation in peace talks Regardless the FARC continued illicit trafficking and even engaged in terrorist acts while talking peace Pastrana's plan to make peace with the narco terrorists was Plan Colombia a 6 year strategy to overhaul almost every aspect of Colombian society The plan was developed with considerable U S assistance and it focused on five critical areas 1 curbing narco trafficking 2 reforming the justice system 3 fostering democratization and social development 4 stimulating economic growth and 5 advancing the peace process In January 2002 Pastrana's peace initiative failed after 3 years of peace talks with the FARC Nevertheless Plan Colombia served to commit the United States to assisting Colombia On August 7 2002 President Alvaro Uribe assumed office promising an uncompromising hard line towards the narco terrorists This paper describes Uribe's strategy to implement Plan Colombia with U S military assistance

Defense against Terrorism M. Coen, 2019-04-02 Global terrorism is a double edged threat to democracies Physically because of the number of people killed and wounded structurally because it threatens social peace and over reaction tends to undermine our basic values The authors of the chapters in this book are multinational and interdisciplinary Their papers were presented for discussion at the Advanced Research Workshop ARW held in Skopje FYROM 11 14th April 2018 on Defence Against Terrorism Enhancing Resilience of

Democratic Institutions and Rule of Law organized within the NATO Science for Peace and Security Programme Results can be summarised as follows Counter terrorist strategy must aim to achieve less not more terrorism The countries with best results are the ones that cultivate human intelligence confidence between security services and the local population together with a tradition of effective respect of the Rule of Law Militarization of internal security and intelligence systems mainly based on databases big data and artificial intelligence though popular are showing serious limits More effective democracy not less is the key to the resilience of our societies against the new threats particularly for confronting the criminal violence of terror In discussion some core necessities were identified to recognize that it is the method used not the aims that define criminal organisations as terrorist that there is a structural link with organized crime for financing and operative support and that corruption facilitates and protects any illegal activity social capital must be developed as a fundamental basic tool for enhancing resilience This book aims to help analyse the networks and contexts that feed terrorism It provides anyone confronted with security issues an understanding of the negative as well as the positive aspects of specific counter measures
