The Narrative of Sojourner Truth Olive Gilbert, 1881 The Narrative of Sojourner Truth \(EasyRead Super Large 20pt Edition\) , Resurrection City Peter Goodwin Heltzel, 2012-11-23 In Resurrection City Peter Heltzel paints a prophetic picture of an evangelical Christianity that eschews a majority mentality and instead fights against racism inequality and injustice embracing the concerns of the poor and marginalized just as Jesus did Placing society's needs front and center Heltzel calls for radical change and collective activism modeled on God's love and justice In particular Heltzel explores the social forms that love and justice can take as religious communities join together to build beloved cities He proclaims the importance of improvising for justice likening the church's prophetic ministry to jazz music and develops a biblical theology of shalom justice His vision draws inspiration from the black freedom struggle and the lives of Sojourner Truth Howard

Thurman and Martin Luther King Jr Pulsing with hope and beauty Resurrection City compels evangelical Christians to begin a global movement for love and justice that truly embodies the kingdom of God Where Are the Women? Sarah Tyson, 2018-10-16 Philosophy has not just excluded women It has also been shaped by the exclusion of women As the field grapples with the reality that sexism is a central problem not just for the demographics of the field but also for how philosophy is practiced many philosophers have begun to rethink the canon Yet attempts to broaden European and Anglophone philosophy to include more women in the discipline s history or to acknowledge alternative traditions will not suffice as long as exclusionary norms remain in place In Where Are the Women Sarah Tyson makes a powerful case for how redressing women s exclusion can make philosophy better She argues that engagements with historical thinkers typically afforded little authority can transform the field outlining strategies based on the work of three influential theorists Genevieve Lloyd Luce Irigaray and Mich le Le Doeuff Following from the possibilities they open up at once literary linguistic psychological and political Tyson reclaims two passionate nineteenth century texts the Declaration of Sentiments from the 1848 Seneca Falls Convention and Sojourner Truth s speech at the 1851 Akron Ohio Women s Convention showing how the demands for equality rights and recognition sought in the early women s movement still pose quandaries for contemporary philosophy feminism and politics Where Are the Women challenges us to confront the reality that women s exclusion from philosophy has been an ongoing project and to become more critical both of how we see existing injustices and of how we address them On Sympathetic Grounds Naomi Greyser, 2018 On Sympathetic Grounds lays out sympathy s vital place in shaping North America Naomi Greyser intersperses theoretical reflection on the affective production of space with analysis of vales of tears heart rending oratory and emplotment of narrative and land in work by Sojourner Truth Sarah Winnemucca Hopkins Nathaniel Hawthorne and others The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L. Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 Southern History across the Color Line, Second Edition Nell Irvin Painter, 2021-02-17 The color line once all too solid in southern public life still exists in the study of southern history As distinguished historian Nell Irvin Painter notes we often still write about the South as though people of different races occupied entirely different spheres In truth although blacks and whites were expected to remain in their assigned places in the southern social hierarchy throughout the nineteenth century and much of the twentieth century their lives were thoroughly entangled In this powerful collection of pathbreaking essays Painter reaches across the color line to examine how race gender class and individual subjectivity shaped the lives of black and white women and men in the nineteenth and twentieth century South She explores such themes as interracial sex white supremacy and the physical and psychological violence of slavery using insights gleaned from psychology and feminist social science as well as social cultural and intellectual history The book illustrates both the breadth of Painter's interests and the originality of her intellectual contributions This edition features refreshed essays and a new preface that sheds light on the development of Painter's thought and our continued struggles with racism in the twenty first century
