Gribble,2020-12-10 At a time when biblical authority was under challenge from the Higher Criticism and evolutionary science what providence meant was the most keenly contested of questions This book takes up the controversial subject of Dickens and religion and offers a significant contribution to the interdisciplinary area of religion and literature In a close study of major novels it argues that networks of biblical allusion reveal the Judeo Christian grand narrative as key to his development as a writer and as the ontological ground on which he stands to appeal to the conscience of a Christian people Engaging the biblical narrative in dialogue with other contemporary narratives that concern themselves with origins destinations and hermeneutic decipherments the inimitable Dickens affirms the Bible s still active role in popular culture The providential thinking of two twentieth century theorists Bakhtin and Ricoeur sheds light on an exploration of Dickens s narrative theology

Phenomenology or Deconstruction? Christopher Watkin,2009-03-03 Phenomenology or Deconstruction challenges traditional understandings of the relationship between phenomenology and deconstruction through new readings of the work of Maurice Merleau Ponty Paul Ricur and Jean Luc Nancy A constant dialogue with Jacques Derrida s engagement with phenomenological themes provides the impetus to establishing a new understanding of being and presence that exposes significant blindspots inherent in traditional readings of both phenomenology and deconstruction In reproducing neither a stock phenomenological reaction to deconstruction nor the routine deconstructive reading of phenomenology Christopher Watkin provides a fresh assessment of the possibilities for the future of phenomenology along with a new reading of the deconstructive legacy Through detailed studies of the philosophy of Merleau Ponty Ricur and Nancy he shows how a phenomenological tradition much wider and richer than Husserlian or Heideggerian thought alone can take account of Derrida s critique of ontology and yet still hold a commitment to the ontological This new reading of being and presence fundamentally re draws our understanding of the relation of deconstruction and phenomenology and provides the first sustained discussion of the possibilities and problems for any future deconstructive phenomenology      Transfiguration Svein Aage Christoffersen, Martin Wangsgaard Jürgensen, Nils Holger Petersen, 2010-04 Transfiguration is a peer reviewed journal offering discussions of the relationship between art forms and Christianity in the European tradition from the early Church until today There is an increasing interest in the more or less precisely defined religious contexts of the art forms There is thus a demand for a theological journal that is not limited to the traditional matters within the discipline The term theology is here used in a broader sense that includes the modes of expression and thought which have come into existence in a historical energy field between religious practice and aesthetic display      The Routledge Companion to Modern Christian Thought Chad Meister, James Beilby, 2013-10-28 This Companion provides an unrivalled view of the field of modern Christian thought from the Enlightenment to the twentieth century and beyond Written by an outstanding team of theologians and philosophers of religion it covers the following topics within Christian thought Key figures and influencers Central events and movements Major theological issues and key approaches to Christian Theology Recent topics and trends in Christian thought Each entry is clear and accessible making the book the ideal resource for students of Christian thought and history and philosophy of religion and a valuable reference for professional theologians and philosophers      Receptions and Transformations of the Bible Kirsten Jensen, 2009-04-22 These volumes of Religion and Normativity present the latest research in three central fields Volume II deals with Reception and Transformation of the Bible as it occurs in modern literature in both Danish and English philosophy including Kierkegaard and Jewish and Christian religious practice The researchers base their work on the theories and methods of the study of religion philosophy theology and literature      Secularization in Contemporary Religious Radicalism Corneliu Simut, 2019-05-21 The concept of secularization has grown to become one of the most important features of contemporary religious thought This book introduces and examines the thinking of sixteen key theologians philosophers and historians of religion to explain a why by the late nineteenth century the traditional concept of God as an ontologically real being came to be considered no longer necessary and b how the new perspective on God which accepts him only as an idea turned into the preferred approach of today s religion and philosophy namely religious radicalism      The Blackwell Companion to the Study of Religion Robert A. Confronting Religious Absolutism Catherine M. Wallace, 2016-10-27 Papal infallibility and biblical inerrancy provide the conceptual foundations of theocracy which is to say religiously based totalitarianism These absolutist doctrines emerge for the very first time among the Victorians they are not ancient beliefs at all They appear in the 19th century right alongside secular varieties totalitarian thought and in response to all the same cultural anxieties Reactionary religious leaders used these doctrines to oppose scholarly conclusions in geology and evolutionary biology That much everyone knows What is not as well known is the fact that their principal target was Christian humanist biblical scholarship an unbroken 500 year tradition of inquiry undertaken primarily by Christian clergy and seminary faculty The alternative to faith based totalitarianism is faith based upon the imagination our most sophisticated cognitive skill Faith rooted in the moral imagination does not depend upon abject deference to an array of rigid doctrines and improbable claims Wallace contends that faith is best understood as a creative process and religion is best understood as a multi media art and originally the Mother of all arts The arts convince they do not command They persuade they do not prove The arts provide humane resources whereby we grapple with life's deepest mysteries Symbolism like quantum mathematics is a tool for grappling with inescapable paradox at the heart of reality It is an ancient strategy for articulating what we discover at the elusive mind/body interface
