Modern Hadith Studies Belal Abu-Alabbas, 2020-07-31 This book examines the various methods and trends in Hadith Studies across the globe Bringing together contributions from 10 scholars of Hadith it addresses the subject from a variety of methodological vantage points and historical premises Islam, Civility and Political Culture Milad Milani, Vassilios Adrahtas, 2020-12-04 This book provides a comprehensive and interdisciplinary exploration of civility and political culture in the Muslim world The contributions consider the changing interface between religion and politics throughout Islamic history and into the present Extending beyond saturated approaches of political and or militant Islam this collection captures the complex sociopolitical character of Islam and identifies tensions between the political secular and the sacred religious in contemporary Muslim life The alternative conceptual framework to traditional analyses of secularisation and civility presented across this volume will be of interest to students and scholars across Islamic studies religious studies sociology and political science civilisation studies and cultural studies

Authority and Identity in Medieval Islamic Historiography Mimi Hanaoka, 2016-09-09 Intriguing dreams improbable myths fanciful genealogies and suspect etymologies These were all key elements of the historical texts composed by scholars and bureaucrats on the peripheries of Islamic empires between the tenth and fifteenth centuries But how are historians to interpret such narratives And what can these more literary histories tell us about the people who wrote them and the times in which they lived In this book Mimi Hanaoka offers an innovative interdisciplinary method of approaching these sorts of local histories from the Persianate world By paying attention to the purpose and intention behind a text's creation her book highlights the preoccupation with authority to rule and legitimacy within disparate regional provincial ethnic sectarian ideological and professional communities By reading these texts in such a way Hanaoka transforms the literary patterns of these fantastic histories into rich sources of information about identity rhetoric authority legitimacy and centre periphery relations

Islam and the Politics of Secularism Nurullah Ardic, 2012 This book examines the process of secularisation in the Middle East in the late 19th century and early 20th century that transformed the Ottoman Empire and led to the abolition of the Caliphate

The Sociology of Islam Armando Salvatore, 2016-02-23 The Sociology of Islam provides an accessible introduction to this emerging field of inquiry teaching and debate The study is located at the crucial intersection between a variety of disciplines in the social sciences and the humanities It discusses the long term dynamics of Islam as both a religion and as a social political and cultural force The volume focuses on ideas of knowledge power and civility to provide students and readers with analytic and critical thinking frameworks for understanding the complex social facets of Islamic traditions and institutions The study of the sociology of Islam improves the understanding of Islam as a diverse force that drives a variety of social and political arrangements Delving into both conceptual questions and historical interpretations The Sociology of Islam is a transdisciplinary comparative resource for students scholars and policy makers seeking to understand Islam s complex changes throughout history and its impact on the modern world Oxford Studies in Experimental Philosophy Volume 3 Tania Lombrozo,Joshua Knobe,Shaun Nichols,2020-04-10 The new field of experimental philosophy has emerged as the methods of psychological science have been brought to bear on traditional philosophical issues Oxford Studies in Experimental Philosophy is the place to go to see outstanding new work in the field It features papers by philosophers papers by psychologists and papers co authored by people in both disciplines The series heralds the emergence of a truly interdisciplinary field in which people from different disciplines are working together to address a shared set of questions The papers in this third volume illustrate the ways in which the field continues to broaden taking on new methodological approaches and interacting with substantive theories from an ever wider array of disciplines Some recent research in experimental philosophy is going more deeply into well established questions in the field while other strands of research are exploring issues that scarcely appeared in the field even a few years ago Thus we see the introduction of new empirical and statistical methods network analysis new theoretical approaches formal semantics and the development of entirely new interdisciplinary connections in the emerging field of experimental jurisprudence Being

Muslim Today Dr. Saqib Iqbal Qureshi,2024-05-07 Qureshi promotes a moderate and inclusive view of contemporary Islam with the intellectual underpinnings to support it Booklist Starred Review Accessible introduction to Islam and the Qur an that explains how Muslims live and avoids the extremes of Orthodoxy and Islamophobia The truths of every religion are typically challenged and re written serving as potent grounds for some of history s most enduring debates and conflicts Perhaps no other religious tradition suffers as much from the dualistic fallacy of good and evil than does Islam What does it mean to be Muslim today Orthodoxy s interpretation is idyllic and omniscient simplistic to a fault Islamophobes at the opposite end of the spectrum cultivating damaging stereotypes that present a religion that most Muslims cannot relate to In Being Muslim Today Reclaiming the Faith from Orthodoxy and Islamophobia bestselling author Dr Saqib Qureshi silences the noise that obscures the message of Islam He provides a compelling and accurate presentation of the faith s beginnings its evolution throughout the last 1 400 years and its relevance for today Being Muslim Today simplifies complicated academic debates and reveals the heart and soul of a growing faith tradition that claims more than two billion adherents Chapters include lucid discussions of the origins of Islam the Prophet Muhammed and the rise of Islam through the ages Qureshi also describes the twin perils of Orthodoxy and Islamophobia both of which he contends badly misinterpret the true message of the faith In a final chapter Qureshi confronts the stereotype of Islam as an inherently violent religion asking the West to hold a mirror to its own

voracious appetite for conflict and colonization Throughout Qureshi encourages Muslims to reject pious certitude the faithful must acknowledge the diversity of approaches and principals in the Islamic tradition he writes and adopt an attitude of theological humility Some things are simply unknowable The Oxford Handbook of Digital Ethics Carissa Véliz,2024 This Handbook offers a lively authoritative up to date exploration of pressing ethical issues in our digital world An international team of philosophers give critical appraisals of research in the this fast growing field exploring novel approaches and arguments that will shape the agenda on digital ethics for years to come Ideas, Images, and Methods of Portrayal Sebastian Günther,2005-05-01 This volume deals with the genesis of selected classical Arabic texts as the products of different milieus and the implications which these texts had for Islamic societies in medieval times It explores the concepts and images which Muslim scholars from the 8th to the 14th century presented in their writings and in particular ponders the ways in which these authors used specific methods of portrayal either overtly or more subtly to advance their ideas The fresh theoretical and methodological approaches applied in this book facilitate the understanding of how medieval Muslim writers expressed their views and more importantly why they expressed them in the way they did This helps disclose for example how the images of historically or religiously significant figures in Arabic Islamic culture have been developed and shaped in the process of their literarization Living Knowledge in West African Islam Zachary Valentine Wright,2015-02-04 Living Knowledge in West African Islam examines the actualization of religious identity in the community of Ibr h m Niasse d 1975 Senegal With millions of followers throughout Africa and the world the community arguably represents one of the twentieth century s most successful Islamic revivals Niasse s followers members of the Tij niyya Sufi order gave particular attention to the widespread transmission of the experiential knowledge ma rifa of God They also worked to articulate a global Islamic identity in the crucible of African decolonization The central argument of this book is that West African Sufism is legible only with an appreciation of centuries of Islamic knowledge specialization in the region Sufi masters and disciples reenacted and deepened preexisting teacher student relationships surrounding the learning of core Islamic disciplines such as the Qur n and jurisprudence Learning Islam meant the transformative inscription of sacred knowledge in the student s very being a disposition acquired in the master s exemplary physical presence Sufism did not undermine traditional Islamic orthodoxy the continued transmission of Sufi knowledge has in fact preserved and revived traditional Islamic learning in West Africa Complexity Economics Koenraad Verboven,2020-11-25 Economic archaeology and ancient economic history have boomed the past decades The former thanks to greatly enhanced techniques to identify collect and interpret material remains as proxies for economic interactions and performance the latter by embracing the frameworks of new institutional economics Both disciplines however still have great difficulty talking with each other There is no reliable method to convert ancient proxy data into the economic indicators used in economic history In turn the shared cultural belief systems underlying institutions and the symbolic ways in which these are reproduced remain invisible in the material record This book explores ways to bring both disciplines closer together by building a theoretical and methodological framework to evaluate and integrate archaeological proxy data in economic history research Rather than the linear interpretations offered by neoclassical or neomalthusian models we argue that complexity economics based on system theory offers a promising way forward

The Comparative Perspective Andrea Ercolani,Manuela Giordano,2016-03-21 The book is the third and concluding part of the investigation on Submerged literature in ancient Greece and beyond The book expands the inquiry to a comparative perspective in order to test the validity and usefulness of the hermeneutical approach in other fields and cultures The comparative case studies deal with gnostic text Qumran texts the Hebrew Bible Early Christianity Cuneiform Texts Arabic Islamic literature ancient Rome Medieval China and contemporary southern Italy The volume tackles themes and questions relating to author and authorship cultural translation and transmission the interaction between orality and literacy myth and folktale A particular emphasis is given to anthropological themes and methods In this vein the book further explores dynamics of emergence and submersion in ancient Greece including cultural trends promoted respectively by Sparta and Athens The volume provides the reader with a wide range of tools and methodological suggestions to reconstruct literary phenomena and cultural processes in a given historical epoch and context as well as offering new insights for both classical and comparative studies

Global Jihad in Muslim and non-Muslim Contexts Jonathan Matusitz,2020-06-12 This book examines ten reasons for global jihad today Specifically the reasons are 1 radicalization 2 group dynamics and socialization 3 social alienation 4 religious motivations 5 legal motivations 6 political motivations 7 a Clash of Civilizations 8 economic conditions 9 transformative learning and 10 outbidding and internal rifts To investigate these points all chapters include the historical background specific case studies both past and current statistics and theoretical approaches to the subject of global jihad The main purpose of jihad is to achieve global domination through any means including violence and establish the Caliphate The Caliphate is a Muslim system of world government that seeks to establish a new world order by overthrowing the current order effectively creating an all encompassing Islamic state

Tradition and Modernity David Marshall,2013-05-20 Tradition and Modernity focuses on how Christians and Muslims connect their traditions to modernity looking especially at understandings of history changing patterns of authority and approaches to freedom The volume includes a selection of relevant texts from 19th and 20th century thinkers from John Henry Newman to Tariq Ramadan accompanied by illuminating commentaries

Anthropomorphism in Islam Livnat Holtzman,2018-03-07 Through a close contextualized and interdisciplinary reading in Hadith compilations theological treatises and historical sources this book offers an evaluation and understanding of the traditionalistic endeavours to define anthropomorphism in the most crucial and indeed most formative period of Islamic thought

Studies in Arabic and Islam Union européenne des arabisants et islamisants. Congress,Stefan Leder,2002 The volume contains forty seven contributions dealing with Islamic thought and history Arabic literature and linguistics The variety of perspectives and approaches and the wide range of subject matters constitute a true mirror of European scholarship in Arabic and Islamic studies The authors who congregated for the 19th congress of the Union Europeenne des Arabisants et Islamisants at Halle come from many European countries including Middle and Eastern Europe Philosophy and historiography Arabic inscriptions and belles lettres pre modern and modern history Islamic law and theology figure among the topics treated in amply documented studies The Caliphate or

Supreme Imamate Muhammad Rashid Rida, 2024-06-25 A translation of Muhammad Rashid Rida s best known work which examines the compatibility of Islamic political and legal tradition with modern thought Muhammad Rashid Rida 1865 1935 was a prominent Muslim intellectual and reformer Born in a village near Tripoli in present day Lebanon he was renowned for his founding of Al Manar an independent and successful Islamic magazine in which he published The Caliphate or Supreme Imamate as a series beginning in 1922 The work showcased Rida s faith in the Islamic tradition as the origin of notions such as self determination and popular sovereignty as well as his opposition to Western politics A realist he nevertheless argued that a revived Caliphate was viable and held the keys to Muslim empowerment and universal salvation This skillful translation by Simon A Wood will make The Caliphate or Supreme Imamate accessible for the first time to English speaking scholars and students of political theory and the modern Middle East
