The Works of Alexander Pope: Correspondence Alexander Pope, 1871 The Works of Alexander Pope. Including ... Unpublished Letters and Other New Materials. Collected in Part by the Late Rt. Hon. J.W. Croker. With Introduction and Notes by ... Whitwell Elwin [and W.J. Courthope. The Life of Pope. By W.J. Courthope.] ... With Portraits and Other Illustrations Alexander Pope, 1871 Redesigning Research on Post-Traumatic Growth Frank J. Infurna, Eranda Jayawickreme, 2021-07-23 The literature on post traumatic growth PTG has been instrumental in highlighting the human capacity to overcome adversity illuminating the different pathways people may follow when confronted with adversity Although the theme of strength from adversity is central to many disciplines and certain cultural narratives these claims lack robust empirical evidence This literature gap can be traced to a reliance on retrospective assessments for methodology and difficulty in determining which outcomes are most appropriate for studying PTG Redesigning Research on Post Traumatic Growth offers new directions for PTG research The book illustrates the benefits of research designs that incorporate multiple methods of assessment and highlights the value of integrating various disciplines such as philosophy and multiple areas of psychology e g clinical developmental health and personality for more holistic understanding of the human capacity to overcome adversity The book is divided into four sections current challenges in examining PTG methodological advancements research in specific populations and opportunities for further research Introductory chapters identify the limits of traditional PTG assessments and find solutions in prospective longitudinal studies From here this methodology is put into practice with unique case examples from studies with Syrian refugees older adults and couples coping with a cancer diagnosis The book concludes with calls for further research on event characteristics of adversity as well as narrative identity wisdom and open mindedness as key growth outcomes Redesigning Research on Post Traumatic Growth will serve as the starting point for the next generation of research on PTG Catalogue of Books in the Mercantile Library, of the City of New York New York Mercantile Library Association, 2022-03-08 Reprint of the original first published in 1866 Catalogue of Books in the Mercantile Library, of the City of New York Mercantile Library Association of the City of New-York, 1866

Task-Based Language Learning Peter Robinson, 2011-06-13 This volume contains papers addressing issues in task based research into second language learning which are essential to informed pedagogic decision making about how best to achieve this aim These issues include research into the design characteristics of pedagogic tasks that promote the accuracy fluency and complexity of learner language the role of individual differences in the motivational and other cognitive variables that demands made by pedagogic tasks draw on the extent to which tasks and teacher interventions during task performance promote the quantity and quality of interaction that facilitate L2 learning and the generalizability of task based research in laboratory contexts to classroom settings The Fruits of Their Labor Cindy Hahamovitch, 2010-06-23 In 1933 Congress granted American laborers the right of collective bargaining but farmworkers got no New Deal Cindy Hahamovitch s pathbreaking account of migrant farmworkers along the Atlantic Coast shows how growers enlisted the aid of the state in an unprecedented effort to keep their fields well stocked with labor This is the story of the farmworkers Italian immigrants from northeastern tenements African American laborers from the South and imported workers from the Caribbean who came to work in the fields of New Jersey Georgia and Florida in the decades after 1870 These farmworkers were not powerless the author argues for growers became increasingly open to negotiation as their crops ripened in the fields But farmers fought back with padrone or labor contracting schemes and work or fight forced labor campaigns Hahamovitch describes how growers efforts became more effective as federal officials assumed the role of padroni supplying farmers with foreign workers on demand Today s migrants are as desperate as ever the author concludes not because poverty is an inevitable feature of modern agricultural work but because the federal government has intervened on behalf of growers preventing farmworkers from enjoying the fruits of their labor The Forgotten Alcott Azelina Flint, Lauren Hehmeyer, 2021-12-30

This collection is the first academic study of the captivating life and career of expatriate artist writer and activist May Alcott Nieriker Nieriker is known as the sister of Louisa May Alcott and model for Amy March in Alcott s Little Women As this book reveals she was much more than Amy she had a more significant impact on the Concord community than her sister and later became part of the creative expat community in Europe There she imbued her painting with the abolitionist activism she was exposed to in childhood and pursued an ideal of artistic genius that opposed her sister s vision of self sacrifice Embarking on a career that took her across London Paris and Rome Nieriker won the acclaim of John Ruskin and forged a network of expatriate female painters who changed the face of nineteenth century art creating opportunities for women that lasted well into the twentieth century A Renaissance woman Nieriker was a travel writer teacher and curator She is recovered here as a transdisciplinary subject who stands between disciplines networks and ideologies striving to recognize the dignity of others Contributors include foundational Alcott scholar Daniel Shealy and Pulitzer Prize winner John Matteson as well as Curators Jan Turnquist Orchard House and Amanda Burdan Brandywine River Museum of Art In this book readers will become acquainted with a dynamic feminist thinker who transforms our understanding of the place of women artists in the wider cultural and intellectual life of nineteenth century Britain France and the United States Global Perspectives on Probing

Narratives in Healthcare Casal, Teresa, Cabral, Maria de Jesus, 2023-06-01 There is often a communication disconnect between medical caregivers including doctors nurses therapists and other assistive medical personnel and the patient While medical staff usually understand a patient s symptoms causes and treatments communicating this understanding to a patient using industry terminologies can lead to confusion and misunderstanding and similarly patients may lack the vocabulary to effectively communicate their experiences back to their caregivers A new approach to communication must be bridged between these groups by individuals who have experience on both sides of the conversation Previous studies of doctors who end up in the role of the patient reveal how these individuals have a dual perspective on illness combining their medical knowledge with their own personal medical experiences Narratives including autobiographical accounts and fictional stories can help bridge the gap between experiential and academic knowledge of illness by expanding one's limited perspective and accessing others' points of view Autobiographical and fictional narratives can both play a role in developing a more comprehensive understanding of illness beyond simply treating the disease It is necessary to further examine the ethical and methodological underpinnings of narrative based interventions in the education of healthcare professionals practitioners and patients Global Perspectives on Probing Narratives in Healthcare offers a multidisciplinary examination of theoretical and methodological uses of narratives in healthcare by bringing together medical aspects of healthcare and the study of arts and humanities This illustrates specific applications of narratives in healthcare settings including improvement of clinical skills performance of the caring role and self efficacy for building a true partnership in the patient's health journey through varied approaches up to date tools and resources that can be transferred and adapted to specific educational and healthcare contexts This diverse collection of expert knowledge and experience is led by editors with over 20 years of teaching experience Dr Teresa Casal of the University of Lisbon Portugal and Dr Maria de Jesus Cabral of the University of Minho Portugal Expertise featured in this book includes contributions from some of the most prestigious academic institutions including Columbia University in the United States King's College in the United Kingdom University of Padua in Italy and more It is an essential resource for healthcare and social science researchers academics advanced healthcare students health training and education departments healthcare practitioners and patients associations and policymakers in healthcare who are looking to broaden their scope of understanding of the patient experience Representing the Past Charlotte M.
