Wieringa, 2011-10-18 This book on the future of Asian feminisms confronting fundamentalisms conflicts and neo liberalism is a critical contribution to the rising voices of Asian women's studies scholars and activists It is based on the ongoing research and advocacy work of the Kartini Asia Network founded in 2003 in Manila The five overlapping themes of the network are women gender studies fundamentalisms conflicts livelihood and sexuality Considering that the economic and political weight of the region is growing fast and that the 21st century has been named the Asian century Asia is increasingly recognised as the continent to which economic if not political power will shift in the coming decades The chapters brought together in this volume demonstrate the great diversity of the transversal cultural flow that women s movements within Asia provide Members of the Kartini network stimulate the articulation of a particular Asian voice in women's studies and in the global women's movement Considering the existing patriarchal structures all over the continent a continuum of oppressions enfolds from the global sphere of market exchange to emerging fundamentalisms and to bitter conflicts and struggles around sexualities. The present volume provides elements for the critical dialogues that are needed between women in the region between women and men between people in all sorts of strategic positions and between theoreticians in the Global South and the Global North to create a world in which human dignity is not eroded by predatory economic processes and in which democracy diversity pluralism and inclusivity are the guiding principles of governance Gender and Diplomacy Jennifer A. Cassidy, 2017-07-06 This volume provides a detailed discussion of the role of women in diplomacy and a global narrative of their current and historical role within it The last century has seen the Ministries of Foreign Affairs MFAs experience seismic shifts in their policies concerning the entry role and agency of women within their institutional make up Despite these changes and the promise that true gender equality offers to the diplomatic craft the role of women in the diplomatic sphere continues to remain overlooked and placed on the fringes of diplomatic scholarship This volume brings together established scholars and experienced diplomatic practitioners in an attempt to unveil the story of women in diplomacy in a context which is historical theoretical and empirical In line with feminist critical thought the objective of this volume is to theorize and empirically demonstrate the understanding of diplomacy as a gendered practice and study The aims of are three fold 1 expose and confront the gender of diplomacy 2 shed light on the historical involvement of women in diplomatic practice in spite of systemic barriers and restrictions with a focus on critical junctures of diplomatic institutional formation and the diplomatic entitlements which were created for women at these junctures 3 examine the current state of women in diplomacy and evaluate the rate of progress towards a gender even playing field on the basis thereof This book will be of much interest to students of diplomacy studies gender studies foreign policy and international relations Taking on the World's Repressive Regimes W.
