Narratives Of Remembrance:

Narratives of Remembrance Marianne Børch, 2001 A collection of essays that reassess a number of currently dominant narratives of the past Contents D H Lawrence and the First World War the writing of Zennor in darkness Helen Dunmore Private memories public recollection narratives of the Second World War Eve Patten Remembering the Great War Nils Arne Sorensen Imagining Scotland a heritage industry examined David McCrone Facts and greasy piglets an essay on historiography and fiction Lars Ole Sauerberg The historical turn is coming and it s about time too Jens Rahbek Rasmussen Capturing the present that is flitting away from us Marianne Borch War and Remembrance in the Twentieth Century

Jay Winter, Jay Murray Winter, Emmanuel Sivan, 2000-08-27 How war has been remembered collectively is the central question in this volume War in the twentieth century is a vivid and traumatic phenomenon which left behind it survivors who engage time and time again in acts of remembrance This volume containing essays by outstanding scholars of twentieth century history focuses on the issues raised by the shadow of war in this century The behaviour not of whole societies or of ruling groups alone but of the individuals who do the work of remembrance is discussed by examining the traumatic collective memory resulting from the horrors of the First World War the Spanish Civil War the Second World War and the Algerian War By studying public forms of remembrance such as museums and exhibitions literature and film the editors have succeeded in bringing together a volume which demonstrates that a popular kind of collective memory is still very much alive

Museums, Narratives, and Critical Histories Kerstin Barndt, Stephan Jaeger, 2024-03-04 In response to systemic racism and institutions implications in histories of colonialism nationalism and exclusion museum curators have embraced new ways of storytelling to face entangled memories and histories Critical museum practices have consciously sought to unsettle established forms of representation break with linear narratives of progress and experiment with new modes of multivocal multimedia and subjective storytelling The volume features analyses of narratives and narration in museums and heritage institutions today as well as visions for future museum practices on a local regional national transnational and global scale It is divided into three sections Narrative Theory and Temporality Ruptures and Repair and Difficult Memories and Histories Essays from a variety of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences examine museum practices in history memorial anthropological and art museums across six continents They develop narratological categories reflect on immersive and virtual narratives challenge colonial violence and hegemonic forms of representation query the performance of heritage parse exhibition design and unearth techniques to express narratives of social justice Collective Memory Narratives in Contemporary Culture Antonella Pocecco, Estrella Gualda, Emiliana Mangone, 2023-11-27 Starting from the central importance of memory in contemporary societies this book encourages a transdisciplinary reflection on how the presentification of the past is never a simple reenactment but corresponds to the interaction between memory and cultural sensitiveness present beliefs and needs expectations and forecasts for the future It studies cultural re construction through collective stories including academic debates media narratives collective mobilizations state narratives of history architectural reconstructions and artistic expressions It looks at how technological innovations have profoundly changed the practices of conservation and dissemination of collective memory with particular reference to cultural digitization Finally it shows that the relevance and selection of events the organization of connections and cross references between past present and future as well as the importance of diversified collective imaginaries are the keys to narrative constructions of memory that prove to be sensitive and decisive for its continuity and its intergenerational transmission This interdisciplinary collection is for students and scholars of the social sciences cultural studies and the humanities interested in memory studies

Interpreting Contentious Memory Thomas DeGloia, Janet Jacobs, 2024-12-10 This book illustrates how scholars use different interpretive lenses to study profound conflicts rooted in the past Addressing issues of racism genocide war nationalism colonialism and more it highlights how our interpretations of contentious memories are indispensable to our understandings of contemporary conflicts and identities

Memory and Genocide Fazil Moradi, Ralph Buchenhorst, Maria Six-Hohenbalken, 2017-04-07 This book focuses on the ethical aesthetic and scholarly dimensions of how genocide related works of art documentary films poetry and performance museums and monuments music dance image law memory narratives spiritual bonds and ruins are translated and take place as translations of acts of genocide It shows how genocide related modes of representation are acts of translation which displace and produce memory and acts of remembrance of genocidal violence as inheritance of the past in a future present Thus the possibility of representation is examined in light of what remains in the aftermath where the past and the future are inseparable companions and we find the idea of the untranslatability in acts of genocide By opening up both the past and lived experiences of genocidal violence as and through multiple acts of translation this volume marks a heterogeneous turn towards the future and one which will be of interest to all scholars and students of memory and genocide studies transitional justice sociology psychology and social anthropology

The Politics of Memory in Post-Authoritarian Transitions, Volume Two Joanna Marszałek-Kawa, Anna Ratke-Majewska, Patryk Wawrzyński, 2017-01-06 History is a powerful tool in the hands of politicians and can be a destructive weapon as power over the past is the power to decide who is a hero and who is a traitor Tradition the remembrance of ancestors experiences of previous generations are keys that unlock the doors to citizens minds and allow certain ideas visions and political programs to flourish However can history be a proper political weapon during democratization processes when the past is decisively divided from the present Are the new order and society founded on the basis of some interpretation of the past or rather are they founded only with reference to the imagined future of the nation This book explores such questions through a detailed description of the use of remembrance policies during political transformations It discusses how interpretations of the past served the realization of transitional objectives in countries as varied as Chile Estonia Georgia Poland South Africa and Spain The book is a unique journey through different parts of the world different cultures and different political systems investigating how history was remembered and forgotten by certain democratic leaders Individual chapters discuss how governments remembrance policies were used to create a new citizen to change a political culture and to justify a vision of society promoted by new elites They explain why some sore topics were avoided by politicians and why sometimes there was no transitional justice or punishment of leaders of the authoritarian state The book will be of interest to anyone wishing to explore policies of remembrance democratization and the role of memory in contemporary societies

Memory, Narrative and Forgiveness Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela,Chris N van der Merwe,2009-03-26 The United Nations declaration of 2009 as the International Year of Reconciliation is testimony to the growing use of historical commissions as instruments of reconciliation in post conflict societies Since the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC has had a profound impact on international efforts to deal with the aftermath of mass violence and societal conflict this is an appropriate time for scholars to debate and reflect on the work of the TRC and the wide ranging scholarship it has inspired across disciplines With a foreword by Harvard Law Professor Martha Minow Memory Narrative and Forgiveness Perspectives on the Unfinished Journeys of the Past offers readers a front row seat where a team of scholars draw on both theoretical analysis and case studies from around the world to explore the themes of memory narrative forgiveness and apology and how these themes often interact in either mutually supportive or unsettling ways The book is a vibrant discussion by scholars in philosophy psychology psychoanalytic theory history literary theory and Holocaust studies The authors explore the complex interconnected issues of trauma and narrative testimonial and literary narrative and theatre as narrative mourning and the potential of forgiveness to heal the enduring effects of mass trauma and transgenerational trauma memory as a basis for dialogue and reconciliation in divided societies The authors go well beyond the South African TRC and address a wide range of historical events to explore the possibilities and the challenges that lie on the path of reconciliation and forgiveness between victims perpetrators and bystanders in societies with a history of violent conflict and unspeakable injustice The book provides readers with a cohesive theoretically well grounded analysis of the impact of traumatic memories in the personal and communal lives of survivors of trauma It explores how narrative may be creatively applied in processes of healing trauma and how public testimony can often restore the moral balance of societies ravaged by trauma The book deepens understanding of the ways in which lessons from the TRC might be developed and both usefully and cautiously applied in other post conflict situations

Civil War and Narrative Karine Deslandes,Fabrice Mourlon,Bruno Tribout,2017-10-24 This book explores the representation of intra state conflicts It offers a distinctive approach by looking at narrative forms and strategies associated with civil war testimony historiography and memory The volume seeks to reflect current research in civil war in a number of disciplines and covers a range of geographical areas from the advent of modern forms of testimonies history writing and public remembering in the early modern period to the present day In focusing on narrative broadly defined the contributors not only explore civil war testimonies historiography and memory as separate fields of inquiry but also highlight the interplay between these areas which are shown to share porous boundaries Chapters look at the ways in which various narrative forms feed off each other be they oral written or visual narratives personal or collective accounts or testimonies from victims or perpetrators Image, History and Memory Michael Haake, Piotr Juszkiwicz, 2022-02-22 This book discusses the active relationship among the mechanics of memory visual practices and historical narratives Reflection on memory and its ties with historical narratives cannot be separated from reflection on the visual and the image as its points of reference which function in time This volume addresses precisely that temporal aspect of the image without reducing it to a neutral trace of the past a mnemotechnical support of memory As a commemorative device the image fixes structures and crystalizes memory turning the view of the past into myth It may however also stimulate transform and update memory functioning as a matrix of interpretation and understanding the past The book questions whether the functioning of the visual matrices of memory can be related to a particular historical and geographical scope that is to Central and Eastern Europe and whether it is possible to find their origin and decide if they are just local and regional or perhaps also Western European and universal It focuses on the artistic reflection on time and history in the reconstructions of memory due to change of frontiers and political regimes as well as endeavours to impose some specific political structure on territories which were complex and mixed in terms of national identity religion and social composition The volume is ideal for students and scholars of memory studies history and visual studies The Routledge Research Companion to Border Studies Professor Doris Wastl-Walter, 2012-11-28 This comprehensive volume brings together a multidisciplinary team of leading scholars to provide an authoritative state of the art review of all aspects of borders and border research It is global in scope and embraces the more traditional strands of the field including geopolitics migration and territorial identities and also recently emerging topics such as the role of borders in a seemingly borderless world creating neighbourhoods and border enforcement in the post 9 11 era Writing and Race Tim Youngs, 2017-07-28 Writing and Race brings together specially commissioned essays by new and established authors from a range of disciplines Texts are drawn from subjects and genres that include philosophy politics anthropology sexuality travel fiction and autobiography Through a time span from Ancient Greece to the present day and a geographical coverage from Australia and Europe to the Caribbean and the United States the collection investigates the importance of place moment cultural formation and subject identity in racial representation A substantial introduction establishes the connections between the essays and lucidly summarizes recent thinking on race explaining in particular the relevance of debates about ethnography Accessible and stimulating Writing and Race is a multidisciplinary collection that will be of interest to students researchers and lecturers who study or are interested in race The essays represent a variety of critical approaches thus allowing the reader to compare and contrast the benefits of each approach Extracts of some of the texts that are discussed are included along with an extensive bibliography to encourage further study 'Purpose-built' Art in Hospitals Judy Rollins, 2021-05-18 This text explores the use of commissioned artwork in hospitals through the dual lens of an artist and healthcare professional identifying 15 distinct purposes of art in hospitals and arguing for the need for greater variety in art offerings that serve the diverse needs of patients families visitors and hospital staff

Memories of the Mutiny, with which is incorporated the personal narrative of J.W. Sherer Francis Cornwallis Maude,1894

Studies in Temporal Urbanism Fabian Neuhaus,2011-08-04 This book is very much about what the name urbanTick literally says about the ticking of the urban the urban as we experience it everyday on the bus in the park or between buildings It is about the big orchestrated mass migration of commuters the seasonal blossoms of the trees along the walkway and the frequency of the stamping rubbish eater trucks It is also not to forget about climate infrastructure opening hours term times parking meters time tables growing shadows and moon light But most of all it is about how all this is experienced by citizens on a daily basis and how they navigate within this complex structure of patterns The content of this book is based on the content of the urbanTick blog between 2008 2010 One year blogging about this topic brought together a large collection of different aspects and thoughts It is not at all a conclusive view the opposite might be the case it is an exploratory work in progress while trying to capture as many facets of the topic as possible

The Routledge Handbook of Memory Activism Yifat Gutman,Jenny Wüstenberg,2023-02-15 This Handbook is the first systematic effort to map the fast growing phenomenon of memory activism and to delineate a new field of research that lies at the intersection of memory and social movement studies From Charlottesville to Cape Town from Santiago to Sydney we have recently witnessed protesters demanding that symbols of racist or colonial pasts be dismantled and that we talk about histories that have long been silenced But such events are only the most visible instances of grassroots efforts to influence the meaning of the past in the present Made up of more than 80 chapters that encapsulate the rich diversity of scholarship and practice of memory activism by assembling different disciplinary traditions methodological approaches and empirical evidence from across the globe this Handbook establishes important questions and their theoretical implications arising from the social political and economic reality of memory activism Memory activism is multifaceted takes place in a variety of settings and has diverse outcomes but it is always crucial to understanding the constitution and transformation of our societies past and present This volume will serve as a guide and establish new analytic frameworks for scholars students policymakers journalists and activists alike

Renegotiating First World War Memory Ashley Garber,2021-06-29 First World War based ex servicemen s organisations found themselves facing an existential crisis with the onset of the Second World War This book examines how two such groups the British and American Legions adapted cognitively to the emergence of yet another world war and its veterans in the years 1938 through 1946 With collective identities and socio political programmes based in First World War memory both Legions renegotiated existing narratives of that war and the lessons they derived from those narratives as they responded to the unfolding Second World War in real time Using the previous war as a learning experience for the new one privileged certain understandings of that conflict over others inflecting its meaning for each Legion moving forward Breaking the Second World War down into its constituent events to trace the evolution of First World War memory through everyday invocations this unprecedented comparison of the British and American Legions illuminates the ways in which differing international national and organisational contexts intersected to shape this process as well as the common factors affecting it in both groups The book will appeal most to researchers of the ex service movement First World War memory and the cultural history of the Second World War Journal of Critical Studies in Language and Literature Vol. 2, No. 2 (2021) Editor,2021-03-01 Journal of Critical Studies in Language and Literature JCSLL is a bimonthly double blind peer reviewed Premier open access journal that represents an interdisciplinary and critical forum for analysing and discussing the various dimensions in the interplay between language literature and translation It locates at the intersection of disciplines including linguistics discourse studies stylistic analysis linguistic analysis of literature comparative literature literary criticism translation studies literary translation and related areas It focuses mainly on the empirically and critically founded research on the role of language literature and translation in all social processes and dynamics Articles submitted to JCSLL should bring together critical theories and concepts and in depth empirical language and literary oriented analysis They have to be problem oriented and rely on well informed contemporary as well as historical contextualisation of the analysed texts and contexts Methodologies can be qualitative quantitative or mixed but must in any case be systematic and anchored in relevant linguistic literary and translation disciplines Bombing the City Aaron William Moore,2018-10-18 This comparative account of civilian experiences of aerial bombing in World War II Britain and Japan reveals the universality of total war Civil Society and Memory in Postwar Germany Jenny Wüstenberg,2017-09-07 This book analyzes postwar Germany to show how social movements shape public memory and influence democratization through cooperation and conflict with government
