Royal Air Force Bomber Command Losses: Heavy conversion units and miscellaneous units. 1939-1947 W. R. Chorley, 1992     The Bomber Command War Diaries Martin Middlebrook, Chris Everitt, 2011 This brilliant reference book was originally published in 1985 and is recognised today as an unrivalled detailed source of information on Bomber Command's war. With details of each operation laid out in diary form it includes the target, the numbers and types of aircraft involved as well as the success of the operation and the aircraft lost. The book concludes with a statistical section on losses suffered by Bomber Command and the operational successes of the individual units. Bomber Command War Diaries is a classic work of reference on World War 2. Every single operation which RAF Bomber Command mounted during the war throughout enemy Europe is listed from the first day of the war to within a few hours from its end. This operational reference book will be invaluable work for all those interested in World War 2 as well as all those researching family history for their relatives who served with Bomber Command during the war.

Royal Air Force Bomber Command Losses W. R. Chorley, 1992 The final volume in this monumental series which records the grievous losses suffered by the men of RAF Bomber Command in the European theatre of operations during World War II includes the master index of about 55 000 entries, the Roll of Honour bringing together all aircrew mentioned in the previous volumes. The Roll of Honour provides for each airman their surname, rank, Christian name, service number, date killed, squadron, the serial number of the aircraft involved and the page and volume number where the loss is recorded.
