Catalog of Educational Captioned Films/videos for the Deaf, 1993      Networks of Champions Christine A. DeGregorio, 2010-05-25 Media accounts of Congress emphasize conflict and the failure of Congress to enact legislation. Rarely do we see accounts of the successful efforts of members of Congress and outside advocacy groups to pass legislation dealing with important and controversial issues. In Networks of Champions, Christine A. DeGregorio identifies who in the U.S. House of Representatives took the lead in shepherding six major bills dealing with welfare reform, drug control, international trade, farm policy, nuclear weapons testing, and assistance to the Contras through Congress, and how these champions of legislation worked with outside advocacy groups. DeGregorio finds that the champions of this legislation were drawn from a diverse group that included individuals both within and outside the formal hierarchy of leadership. The champions, who were not necessarily the prominent holders of important positions, are characterized by having knowledge of the subject matter, experience in the House, a facility for bargaining and compromise, the right committee assignments, and a commitment to hard work. DeGregorio traces how these groups become influential and how the groups affect the policy-making process. She finds a reciprocal process in which advocacy groups use champions to express their views, while champions use the resources of advocacy groups to gain influence in the House. Based on extensive interviews with key congressional staff members and the leaders of advocacy groups, DeGregorio provides critical new insights into the legislative process. This book will be of interest to those who study the legislative process and the role of interest groups in making American policy, a substantial contribution to our understanding of advocacy in Congress. Barbara Sinclair, University of California, Los Angeles. Christine A. DeGregorio is Associate Professor, Department of Government, School of Public Affairs, American University.      Television Specials Vincent Terrace, 2013-07-03 This is a complete revision of the author's 1993 McFarland book Television Specials that not only updates entries contained within that edition but adds numerous programs not previously covered, including beauty pageants, parades, awards programs, Broadway and opera adaptations, musicals produced especially for television, holiday specials (e.g., Christmas and New Year's Eve), the early 1936-1947 experimental specials, honors specials. In short, this is a reference work to 5,336 programs, the most complete source for television specials ever published.      Lesson guide for captioned films, XX, 1984      The A to Z of African-American Television Kathleen Fearn-Banks, 2009-08-04 From Amos n Andy to The Jeffersons to Family Matters to Chappelle's Show, this volume covers it all with entries on all different genres: animation, documentaries, sitcoms, sports, talk shows, and variety shows, and performers such as Muhammad Ali, Louis Armstrong, Bill Cosby, and Oprah Winfrey. Additionally, information can be found on general issues ranging from African American audiences and stereotypes through the related networks and organizations. This book has hundreds of cross-referenced entries from A to Z in the dictionary and a list of acronyms with their corresponding definitions. The extensive chronology shows who did what and when, and the introduction traces the often difficult circumstances African American performers faced compared to the more satisfactory present situation Finally the bibliography is useful to those readers who want to know more about specific topics or persons

A History of Cuban Baseball, 1864-2006 Peter C. Bjarkman,2014-06-17 When Cuba met Japan in the finals of Major League Baseball s 2006

World Baseball Classic WBC many among the international audience were shocked that a purported amateur team could challenge for the sport's first true world championship. But those who had paid attention to international tournaments were hardly surprised by Cuba's strong showing against all-star teams of Puerto Rican, Dominican, Venezuelan, and U.S. major leaguers. The undisputed champions of global baseball, Cuba had reigned supreme for better than a half century at the avowed American national game. In this groundbreaking volume, Peter Bjarkman traces the full arc of island baseball history from the pioneering era of integrated play in the winter leagues across the many triumphs of the post-revolution decades and up through Cuba's initial WBC triumphs. Why Be a Champion?, 2010 The CareFull Supervisor Kevin

Burns, 2024-01-08 Learn real frontline leadership in The CareFull Supervisor. Acclaimed business educator Kevin Burns shatters the traditional view of supervisory roles, exposing a profound understanding: your team doesn't work for you; you work for them. The CareFull Supervisor dismantles the complexities of leadership, equipping supervisors with practical techniques and resources to lead with confidence. While many supervisors may have been promoted due to their exceptional individual achievements, transitioning from standout employee to empathetic leader demands an entirely new skill set. The CareFull Supervisor is not just another book on supervision; it's a game-changer for anyone in a leadership role. This book takes you on a transformative journey, equipping you with the tools to excel as a supervisor and the skills to create a workplace that inspires loyalty and teamwork. The CareFull Supervisor offers insights into building genuine connections with your team and creating an environment of trust and collaboration. Whether you're a seasoned supervisor or just starting out, this book will show you how to lead with confidence and care—qualities that are essential for success in today's ever-changing workplace. Take the first step towards a fulfilling path of self-improvement and become the supervisor employees want to have. P. Fowler, Jr. Jim Fowler, 2005-08 At the age of thirty-three, Paul marries Martha and embarks on a lifelong adventure with the girl of his dreams. The couple lives the good life until the Great Depression and the affects of Prohibition bring them financial ruin. Leaving the family ranch, Paul begins working as a counterman at a local farm supply store to make ends meet. Unable to have children, Paul and Martha start volunteering at various youth activities. But Paul's greatest love is coaching youth baseball teams. A small, timid man and a natural-born leader, Paul brings out the best in his young players by reminding them, "Ya gotta try." Even after his players grow up and start families of their own, they continue to rely on Paul for advice and support. When Martha suffers a series of strokes, Paul has to quit coaching after his team wins the state championship. But that doesn't stop him from continuing to be the mainstay in many of his players' lives, proving that a man doesn't have to be big to make a big difference. Marill, 2008-12-30 Television has always augmented its dramatic and variety programming with sports After covering wrestling and boxing matches for several years ABC added the hugely popular Roller Derby between 1949 and 1951 and later college and pro football Today there is a multitude of pay and cable networks devoted exclusively to baseball football golf hockey tennis ice skating and auto racing Rather than focusing on live sports broadcasts however this book chronicles the history of sports themed comedies and dramas to see how our national fictions have affected our authentic sports experiences and vice versa Sports dominate the television landscape today and still the demand for more is so great that pay and cable networks continue to find funding and success even when devoted exclusively to a single sport But this is really nothing new television has always augmented its dramatic and variety programming with sports Live sports have had a tremendous impact on what we see on television and on how we see it Rather than focusing on live sports broadcasts however this book takes a critical look at sports themed comedies and dramas to see how our authentic sports affect our national fictions as well From the character studies that supplement Olympic coverage to nightly highlight reels to reality programming on ESPN sports both echo and help shape the myths that pervade our culture Sports on Television covers the changing relationship between live sports broadcasts and television dramas as well as the important technological developments and cultural shifts that have changed the way we view the reality of sports In 1949 after covering wrestling and boxing matches for several years ABC added the hugely popular Roller Derby and later moved on to college and pro football where humble beginnings have since developed into a national obsession In the early sixties Jimmy Stewart played a disgraced baseball player in Flashing Spikes which was also one of the rare ventures into television for veteran director John Ford On HBO the Yankees have been the subject of both 61 about Roger Maris s quest to top Babe Ruth s home run record and The Bronx Is Burning about the 1977 Yankees team And there have been sports themed TV sitcoms as well such as Sports Night Aaron Sorkin s critically lauded but commercially unsuccessful project which preceded his work on The West Wing Meanwhile American Gladiators a strange blend of canned programming and authentic athletic endeavor that in effect puts television audiences in an arena with what amounts to professional athletes is quickly becoming one of the most popular shows on primetime Here Marill gives due time to all of these unique projects New York Magazine ,1989-06-19 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Bowker's Complete Video Directory ,2000
