A History of the World in 500 Railway Journeys Sarah Baxter, 2017 History is everywhere and is never as complete as when it can be accessed on a part of history itself. The locomotive is one of the great steps in progress of civilisation that undoubtedly connects us to land and history that was shaped by the machine itself. Although a basic form of railway or rutway did exist in Ancient Greek and Roman times, notably the ship trackway between Diolkos and the Isthmus of Corinth around 600 BC, it would take several thousand years before the first fare-paying passenger service was launched in the early nineteenth century. Some two hundred years on, it is possible to travel by train to some of the world's most remote and remarkable destinations and track the many wonderful legacies of the Earth's extensive history, man-made and otherwise. From prehistoric rock formations to skyscraper cities, slow steam engines to high-speed bullet trains, let A History of the World in 500 Railway Journeys be your guide. Through its beautifully illustrated pages and 500 awe-inspiring railway journeys, you can chart your own transcontinental itinerary through time. Chug through canyons, steam past ancient monuments, speed through cities, luxuriate in the railcars of presidents and queens or make express connections between key historical moments or epic eras. A History of the World in 500 Railway Journeys has it all. A must-read for travellers, railfans and history buffs alike, offering inspiration and information in equal measure.
