Railway Man:

Railway Man Mitchell Deaver, 2013-01-16 Railway Man begins with author Mitchell Deaver paying a nostalgic visit to Bickle signal box base of boyhood adventures described in his first book Railway Boy Shortly after he leaves rural Yorkshire for life in the big cities It is 1968 Railway Man describes the emotionally devastating draw down of steam traction on British Railways Three steam sheds remain Carnforth Lostock Hall and Rose Grove The end comes when the last steam train runs on 11th August The total steam ban is unbearable Mitchell Deaver's brainchild the Return to Steam Committee tries to get steam back on British Railways In 1980 Mitchell Deaver achieves a boyhood dream and becomes a signaller on the busy North London Line Railway Man describes the realities of operating a mechanical signal box one that is open continuously Life as a signaller is not without incident A mischievous letter prompts a visit from senior management Signal box operations degenerate into a scene from the Marx Brothers A signaller's night out turns into a baffling conspiracy In this true story set in the cities of Birmingham Liverpool and London and spanning two decades Railway Man describes a monumental battle between on one side Mitchell Deaver's love of railways and on the other forces that try to draw him elsewhere Which side wins

The Railway Man Eric Lomax, 2012 A POW's account of war brutality and forgiveness Lomax was sent to Malaya in 1941 taken prisoner after the fall of Singapore and put to work on the infamous Burma Siam railway which cost the lives of 250 000 men

The Railway Man Eric Lomax, 1996 Tells of a British soldier's ordeal as a prisoner of war and how he was able fifty years later to meet his torturer and offer forgiveness

The Railway Man: A POW's Searing Account of War, Brutality and Forgiveness (Movie Tie-in Editions) Eric Lomax, 2014-04-11 Winner of the PEN Ackerley Prize The Railway Man is a remarkable memoir of forgiveness a tremendous testament to the courage that propels one toward remembrance and finally peace with the past Eric Lomax sent to Malaya in World War II was taken prisoner by the Japanese and put to punishing work on the notorious Burma Siam railway After the radio he illicitly helped to build in order to follow war news was discovered he was subjected to two years of starvation and torture He would never forget the interpreter at these brutal sessions Fifty years after returning home from the war marrying and gaining the strength from his wife Patti to fight his demons he learned the interpreter was alive Through letters and meeting with his former torturer Lomax bravely moved beyond bitterness drawing on an extraordinary will to extend forgiveness Now a major motion picture starring Colin Firth and Nicole Kidman

Burma Railway Man Charles Steel, 2013-06-12 Charles Steel took part in two military disasters the Fall of France and the Dunkirk evacuation and the Fall of Singapore Shortly before the latter he married Louise Within days of being captured by the Japanese he began writing a weekly letter to his new bride as means of keeping in touch with her in his mind for the Japanese forbade all writing of letters and diaries By the time he was liberated 3 1 2 years later he had written and hidden some 180 letters to which were added a further 20 post liberation letters Part love letter part diary these unique letters intended for Louise's eyes only describe the horror of working as a slave on the Burma Siam Railway and in particular the construction of the famous Bridge over the River Kwai It is also an uplifting account of how man can rise above adversity and even secretly get back at his captors by means of creative accounting Now we can share the appalling and inspiring experiences of this remarkable man The Railway Man and His Children Mrs. Oliphant,2022-09-04 In The Railway Man and His Children Mrs Oliphant crafts a poignant narrative that intricately weaves familial bonds with the burgeoning influence of the railway in Victorian society The novel offers a rich tapestry of character studies and social commentary capturing the transformative impact of industrial progress on the lives of ordinary people Oliphant s literary style is characterized by her keen observation detailed descriptions and an ability to convey the emotional landscapes of her characters all set against the backdrop of a rapidly modernizing world This exploration of the intersection between personal and societal change situates the work within the broader literary context of the time reflecting a shift towards representing the complexities of domestic life in an era of upheaval Mrs Oliphant a significant yet often overlooked figure in Victorian literature was deeply influenced by the societal changes of her time especially concerning gender roles and the effects of industrialization Her own experiences as a widow and the challenges she faced in supporting her family undoubtedly shaped her portrayal of family dynamics in this novel Her extensive body of work often delves into themes of social change making her insights particularly resonant in this narrative This novel is highly recommended for readers interested in the interplay of personal and societal transformations during the Victorian era Oliphant s exploration of the impact of the railway on family life is not only historically significant but also timeless inviting readers to contemplate the enduring consequences of technological advancement on human relationships The Railway Man's Last Year. Railway Man: A POW's Searing Account of War, Brutality and Forgiveness Eric Lomax,2008-06-01 Here is a remarkable true story of forgiveness a tremendous testament to the courage that propels one toward remembrance and finally peace with the past A classic war autobiography The Railway Man is a powerful tale of survival and of the human capacity to understand even those who have done us unthinkable harm From The Railway Man The passion for trains and railroads is I have been told incurable I have also learned that there is no cure for torture These two afflictions have been intimately linked in the course of my life and yet through some chance combination of luck and grace I have survived them both I was born in Edinburgh in the lowlands of Scotland in 1919 My father was an official in the General Post Office there a career which he had started as a boy of 16 and which he intended me to imitate to the letter He was fascinated by telephony and telegraphy and I grew up in a world in which tinkering and inventing and making were honoured past times I vividly remember the first time that my father placed a giant set of headphones around my ears and I heard through the hiss and buzz of far off energies a disembodied human voice In the worst times much later when I thought I was about to die in pain and shock at the hands of men who could not imagine anything of my life who had no respect for who I was or my history I might have wished that my father had had a different passion But in the 1920s technology was still powerful and beautiful without being menacing Who would have thought that a radio for example could cause terrible harm It seemed to be a wonderful instrument by which people could speak to each other and yet I heard Hitler ranting over airwaves and saw two men beaten to death for their part in making such an instrument and suffered for my own part in it for a half a century
