Russian Railway Service Corps United States. Congress. House. Committee on Military Affairs,1924 Electric Railway Service ,1915 Competitive Tendering of Rail Services European Conference of Ministers of Transport,2007-09-28 This report examines experience to date from around the world in competitively tendering rail services It seeks to draw lessons for effective design of concessions and regulation from both the successful and less successful cases examined Educational Training for Railway Service J. Shirley Eaton,1900 Railways Act 2005 Great Britain,2005-04 This Act is in six parts with 13 schedules and contains a number of measures to implement the proposals set out in the Government s White Paper The future of rail Cm 6233 ISBN 0101623321 published in July 2004 These measures seek to address structural problems within Britain s railways system in order to establish a more simplified structure and include the winding up of the Strategic Rail Authority with its strategic and financial functions being passed to the Department for Transport and the devolved administrations and consumer protection activities taken over by the Office of Rail Regulation and the transfer of rail safety functions from the Health and Safety Commission Executive to the Office of Rail Regulation

Army Rail Transport Operations United States. Department of the Army,1969 The Railway Age Monthly and Railway Service Magazine ,1881 Handbook on Railway Regulation Matthias Finger,Juan Montero,2020-09-25 Taking a global approach this insightful Handbook brings together leading researchers to provide a comprehensive overview of the state of the art in railway regulation with a particular focus on countries that rely heavily on railways for transportation links The Handbook also considers the most pressing issues for those working in and with railway systems and outlines future trends in the development of rail globally Railway Age ,1934 Sustainable Rail Transport Anna Fraszczyk,Marin Marinov,2018-06-19 These conference proceedings include a collection of articles presented at the RailExchange conference in October 2017 at Newcastle University UK They will be useful for researchers in developing countries looking for opportunities of knowledge exchange The RailExchange project aimed to develop sustainable railway education in Thailand via international partnerships and industry collaborations based around stakeholders expertise and experiences It involved staff exchange academics and researchers between Mahidol and Newcastle University for joint research and curriculum development and also organizing railway conferences and workshops in both Thailand and the UK The papers published here focus on rail related issues and present a perspective of a widely understood exchange in academia and industry environments Exchange is perceived as rail knowledge exchange between partners rail staff exchange between academia and or industry research exchange between teams student lecturer knowledge exchange academia industry collaboration etc In addition more general rail related papers are also included Strategies for the Global Economic System for 2030 Elena G. Popkova,Artem I. Krivtsov,Aleksei V. Bogoviz,2021-07-19 Against the background of continuing crises in the world s economy the question of what future awaits it in the third decade of the 21st century has become urgent According to the paradigm model of long waves the next global economic crisis is expected to transpire somewhere around 2030 This book defines the basic conditions for the development of the modern global economy analyzing future scenarios for its long term development and providing applied recommendations for the practical implementation of the optimal scenario The book first explores the conceptual vision of the future and the priorities for the strategic development of the global economic system until 2030 It then formulates the requirements for entrepreneurship to achieve the priorities of the strategic development of the global economic system including long term industry solutions for entrepreneurship and markets Third it outlines the guidelines for state regulation of the global economic system in the interest of achieving the priorities of its strategic development in the period up to 2030 Modern Economic Regulation Christopher Decker,2023-06-08 Economic regulation affects us all shaping how we access essential services such as water energy and transport as well as how we communicate with one another in the digital world Modern Economic Regulation describes the core insights of economic theory on which regulatory policies are based and connects this with evidence of how regulation is applied It focuses on fundamental questions such as why are certain industries regulated What principles can inform regulation How is regulation implemented Which regulatory policies have been more or less effective in practice All chapters in this second edition are fully updated to reflect the latest research and evidence while five new chapters cover behavioural economics and the regulation of rail aviation payment systems and digital platforms Each chapter contains discussion questions and topical case studies and online materials include over 60 applied exercises that explore real life regulatory problems from around the world Explaining Railway Reform in China Linda Tjia Yin-nor,2015-10-14 Having been state owned for decades the railway reform in China confused many people particularly in terms of its ownership and property rights arrangements Western literature always prescribes that the best model for railway reform is privatization China s leadership has also enunciated the state s determination to re arrange property rights and rejuvenate corporate governance But is China s railway reform really a story of convergence and will the Chinese government follow the western model of railway reform Addressing these questions this book provides a positive explanation of the reform in China s railway sector between 1978 and the dissolution of the Ministry of Railways It bridges the socialist reform and transport policy literature and studies the empirical changes of the property rights arrangements in China s railway system Refuting the convergence theory it concludes that the cyclical reform policies of decentralization and re centralization were actually an exploratory and interactive mechanism of assets discovery and assets recovery This in depth study is based on 21 face to face interviews with railway cadres as well as field trips to collect first hand information in Guangzhou Beijing Shanghai Tianjin and Wuhan As one of the only empirical studies on the reform of the railway sector in China this book will be of interest to students and scholars of China studies Transport studies and Political Economy Changing Trains Didier van de Velde,2018-12-17 Published in 1999 The book presents and compares the new relationships between transport authorities and railway companies in a number of countries Great Britain Sweden Japan Germany Switzerland and France It also presents a number of case studies focusing on the role of contracts competition and tendering and presenting the achievements of the new regimes so far This book is aimed at all transport professionals authorities and academics interested in the increasing use of competition in the passenger railway sector Chinese Railways in the Era of High Speed
