Grief Education for Caregivers of the Elderly Harold G. Koenig, Junietta B. McCall, 2014-06-03. Through firsthand accounts and research, Grief Education for Caregivers of the Elderly focuses on the education, training, and support of individuals who care for the elderly. This book provides caregivers with methods to cope with grief and loss and will help educators design programs that meet the needs of their consumers: the elderly and their families, friends, and service providers. From Grief Education for Caregivers of the Elderly, you'll learn how to cope with the stress and emotions of caregiving and improve the quality of services to your patients. With an emphasis on caregivers of the institutionalized elderly and the special services provided by clergy, chaplains, and pastoral counselors, Grief Education for Caregivers of the Elderly offers the caregiver or educator several model workshops focusing on grief, loss, and bereavement care. Grief Education for Caregivers of the Elderly contains proven methods and strategies that will sharpen and enhance your caregiving skills, including focusing on the emotional responses and phases of dying, including denial, anger, and acceptance, to help patients deal with death; considering physical and administrative atmosphere and your elderly population when setting goals and designing workshops to provide optimal patient/resident care; discussing the themes of grief and loss, stress management, handling change, and promoting self-care for caregivers in workshops and through self-evaluations; developing workshops that open with grief history surveys and attitude checklists; discuss normative development and issues of old age; and have themes based on the biological, psychosocial, and spiritual needs of the elderly person, providing caregivers with an opportunity to practice what they have learned through case studies, simulated role play, open discussions, and care plan designing, thinking about your own mortality, and learning about your feelings and ideas of growing old. Utilized at a psychiatric nursing home facility of New Hampshire Hospital, the workshop exercises in Grief Education for Caregivers of the Elderly have allowed caregivers to express personal feelings, talk about beliefs and experiences, learn about biological, psychosocial, and spiritual processes of grief and phases of bereavement, and apply these understandings and insights into typical caregiving situations. Grief Education for the Miller-McLemore,Brita L. Gill-Austern,1999 In the last decade the focus of pastoral theology has shifted dramatically from care defined as counseling to care understood within a wider social political and religious context Feminist and womanist theory as well as feminist and womanist faith convictions have played a key role in this development According to the authors feminists and womanists in pastoral theology have begun to reconstruct the definitions parameters and commitments of pastoral care and counseling These changes have critical implications for care within congregations and for the understanding of theology in seminaries and divinity schools Yet these developments in the theory and practice of pastoral theology and their broader ramifications have not been carefully analyzed or even acknowledged by pastoral theologian minister and religion scholar alike This is due to a failure to articulate clear understandings of the field the gap between congregational ministry and higher education in religion and conflicts in theological education in general over the place of practice and theory experience spirituality and practical theology To redress these problems this collection of essays has a threefold aim First the book identifies the many changes occurring in definitions of pastoral theology care and counseling Second the volume defines and develops new methods and approaches Third the authors attend to the implications of these changes for congregational care and theological education Roughly speaking the order of the chapters in this volume follows this threefold agenda moving from an exploration of the changes in pastoral theology to its reconstruction to some of the implications of recent innovations A Pastoral Approach for the Journey of Healing and Wholeness Through Sharing One's Latvian Grief Story Ruth Sonia Ziedonis,1997 Author explores the benefits of telling grief stories to arrive at self acceptance and acceptance of others The Catholic World ,1991 Spiritual Direction in the Dominican Tradition Benedict M.
