The Methuen Drama Dictionary of the Theatre Jonathan Law, 2013-12-16 The Methuen Drama Dictionary of the Theatre is an essential reference tool and companion for anyone interested in the theatre and theatre going. Containing over 2500 entries it covers the international spectrum of theatre with particular emphasis on the UK and USA. With biographical information on playwrights, actors and directors, entries on theatres and theatre companies, explanation of technical terms and theatrical genres and synopses of major plays, this is an authoritative, trustworthy and comprehensive compendium. Included are synopses of 500 major plays, biographical entries on hundreds of playwrights, actors, directors and producers, definitions of nearly 200 genres and movements, entries on over 100 key characters from plays, information about more than 250 theatres and companies. Unlike similar products, The Methuen Drama Dictionary of the Theatre avoids a dry technical approach with its sprinkling of anecdotal asides and fascinating trivia, such as how Michael Gambon gave his name to a corner of a racing track following an incident on BBC's Top Gear programme, and under advice to actors, the sage words of Alec Guinness: 'First wipe your nose and check your flies' and the equally wise guidance from the master of his art, Noël Coward: 'Just know your lines and don't bump into the furniture'. As a companion to everything from the main stage to the fringes of theatrical fact and folklore, this will prove an irresistible book to all fans of the theatre.

The Methuen Drama Book of Trans Plays Volume 2 Leanna Keyes, Lindsey Mantoan, Angela Farr Schiller, 2025-08-21 This anthology is a special book of trans plays about trans life as it is actually materially lived in time and space. Theatre Survey on Volume 1: The Methuen Drama Book of Trans Plays Volume 2 offers eight new plays by trans playwrights centering trans characters, trans life and gender diversity. Curated via an open submission policy, this book brings together dramatic works that feature nuanced, authentic and wonderfully messy representations of gender, race and sexuality. Alongside the full scripts, all of which are published here for the first time, this anthology series also includes a wide range of critical essays to inspire deeper understanding of the works. Playwrights and interventions these plays make in the theatrical ecology.

theatre and performance      AIDS Narratives Steven F. Kruger, 2013-10-28 This is the first book length study of the rich fiction that has emerged from the AIDS crisis Examining first the ways in which scientific discourse on AIDS has reflected ideologies of gender and sexuality such as the construction of AIDS as a disease of gay men part of a battle over masculinity and thus largely excluding women with AIDS from public attention the book considers how such discourses have shaped narrative understandings of AIDS On the one hand AIDS is seen as an invariably fatal weakening of an individual's bodily defenses a depiction often used to reconfirm an identification between disease and a weak and vulnerable gayness On the other hand AIDS is understood in terms of an epidemic attributable to gay immorality or unnaturalness The fiction of AIDS depends upon these two narratives with one major subgenre of AIDS novel presenting narratives of personal illness decline and death and a second focusing on epidemic spread These novels also question the narrative structures upon which they depend intervening particularly against the homophobia of those structures though also sometimes reinforcing it

Variations on a Theme Park

Michael Sorkin, 1992-03 America's cities are being rapidly transformed by a sinister and homogenous design. A new kind of urbanism manipulative, dispersed and hostile to traditional public space is emerging both at the heart and at the edge of town in megamalls, corporate enclaves, gentrified zones and pseudo-historic marketplaces. If anything can be described as a paradigm for these places it's the theme park, an apparently benign environment in which all is structured to achieve maximum control and in which the idea of authentic interaction among citizens has been thoroughly purged. In this bold collection, eight of our leading urbanists and architectural critics explore the emblematic sites of this new cityscape from Silicon Valley to Epcot Center, South Street Seaport to downtown Los Angeles and reveal their disturbing implications for American public life.

Contemporary European Playwrights Maria M.

Delgado, Bryce Lease, Dan Rebellato, 2020-07-22 Contemporary European Playwrights presents and discusses a range of key writers that have radically reshaped European theatre by finding new ways to express the changing nature of the continent's society and culture and whose work is still in dialogue with Europe today. Traversing borders and languages, this volume offers a fresh approach to analyzing plays in production by some of the most widely performed European playwrights, assessing how their work has revealed new meanings and theatrical possibilities as they move across the continent, building an unprecedented picture of the contemporary European repertoire. With chapters by leading scholars and contributions by the writers themselves, the chapters bring playwrights together to examine their work as part of a network and genealogy of writing, examining how these plays embody and interrogate the nature of contemporary Europe. Written for students and scholars of European theatre and playwriting, this book will leave the reader with an understanding of the shifting relationships between the subsidized and commercial, the alternative and the mainstream stage and political stakes of playmaking in European theatre since 1989.

The only collection of essays on one of Britain's Angry Young Men, this book contains discussions of most of Wesker's published plays with an emphasis on the more recent works. Essays reevaluate the plays that made Wesker a household name in Britain: the Trilogy, The Kitchen and Chips with Everything. Clive Barker, co-director of Centre 42, gives a fresh account of that movement and playwright Paul Levitt provides a previously unrecorded history of Caritas, Blood Libel and Shylock. A personal profile of Wesker by novelist Margaret Drabble is reprinted from an earlier article. Original essays cover the theory and practice of theatre, Wesker's in-text stage directions, British television's adaptation of his plays and an actor's and a director's perspectives on working with the playwright. Major international Weskerian critics are assembled here: Klaus Peter Müller and Heiner Zimmermann from Germany, Rossana Bonadei, Angela Locatelli and Alessandra Marzola from Italy, Keith Gore, Glenda Leeming, Martin Priestman, Jeremy Ridgman, Margaret Rose and Robert Wilcher from Great Britain, Menakshi Ponnuswami from India, Robert Gross, Kimball King and Robert Skloot from the United States. These essays take a wide range of critical approaches from an exploration of gender to semiotics biography and the New Historicism This is the most comprehensive collection of criticism on Arnold Wesker to date Every major Weskerian scholar writing in English has contributed a piece to this casebook Originating in Germany Italy Great Britain India and the United States their essays create an international cultural context for Wesker's plays They also position his work among his contemporaries in his historical era and in the political and theatrical environment that defines his world Furthermore they form a biographical profile of Wesker often giving us firsthand accounts of turning points in his career Finally some essays evaluate and interpret the major plays dissecting and scrutinizing the formal elements that make them distinct Their critical approaches are varied in that they make liberal use of semiotics Bakhtinian and communication theory cultural studies and traditional readings Their contributions compose a multifaceted view of Wesker's life and work setting out fresh arguments for all his plays
