Report From Malaya:

Annual Report on the Federation of Malaya Malaya, 1957 Includes bibliographies Report on the Federated Malay States for 1906 ... Great Britain. Straits Settlement, 1907 Annual Departmental Reports of the Straits Settlements for the Emergency Propaganda Kumar Ramakrishna, 2013-04-15 Sheds new light on the Year ... Straits Settlements, 1924 hitherto neglected years of the Emergency 1955 58 demonstrating how it was British propaganda which decisively ended the shooting war in December 1958 The study argues for a concept of propaganda that embraces not merely words in the form of film radio and leaflets but also deeds Malaya's Secret Police 1945-60 Leon Comber, 2008 The Malayan Emergency lasted from 1948 to 1960 During these tumultuous years following so soon after the Japanese surrender at the end of the Second World War the whole country was once more turned upside down and the lives of the people changed The war against the Communist Party of Malaya s determined efforts to overthrow the Malayan government involved the whole population in one form or another Dr Comber analyses the pivotal role of the Malayan Police's Special Branch the government's supreme intelligence agency in defeating the communist uprising and safeguarding the security of the country He shows for the first time how the Special Branch was organised and how it worked in providing the security forces with political and operational intelligence His book represents a major contribution to our understanding of the Emergency and will be of great interest to all students of Malay si a s recent history as well as counter guerrilla operations It can profitably be mined too to see what lessons can be learned for counterinsurgency operations in other parts of the world British The Law Reports of the Federated Malay States Federated Malay States, 1923 Malaya ,1926 The Defence and Fall of Singapore Brian Farrell, 2017-01-01 Shortly after midnight on 8 December 1941 two divisions of crack troops of the Imperial Japanese Army began a seaborne invasion of southern Thailand and northern Malaya Their assault developed into a full blown advance towards Singapore the main defensive position of the British Empire in the Far East The defending British Indian Australian and Malayan forces were outmanoeuvred on the ground overwhelmed in the air and scattered on the sea By the end of January 1942 British Empire forces were driven back onto the island of Singapore Itself cut off from further outside help When the Japanese stormed the island with an an out assault the defenders were quickly pushed back into a corner from which there was no escape Singapore s defenders finally capitulated on 15 February to prevent the wholesale pillage of the city itself Their rapid and total defeat was nothing less than military humiliation and political disaster Based on the most extensive use yet of primary documents in Britain Japan Australia and Singapore Brian Farrell provides the fullest picture of how and why Singapore fell and its real significance to the outcome of the Second World War Red Star Over Malaya Cheah Boon Kheng, 2012-01-01 Red Star Over Malaya is an account of the interracial relations between Malays and Chinese during the final stages of the Japanese occupation In 1947 none of the three major race of Malaya Malays Chinese and Indians regarded themselves as pan ethnic Malayans with common duties and problems With the occupation forcibly cut them off from China Chinese residents began to look inwards towards Malaya and stake political claims leading inevitably to a political contest with the Malays As the country advanced towards nationhood and self government there was tension between traditional loyalties to the Malay rulers and the states or to ancestral homelands elsewhere and the need to cultivate an enduring loyalty to Malaya on the part of those who would make their home there in future As Japanese forces withdrew from the countryside the Chinese querrillas of the communist led resistance movement the Malayan People's Anti Japanese Army MPAJA emerged from the jungle and took control of some 70 per cent of the country's smaller towns and villages seriously alarming the Malay population When the British Military Administration sought to regain control of these liberated areas the ensuing conflict set the tone for future political conflicts and marked a crucial stage in the history of Malava Based on extensive archival research Red Star Over Malaya provides a riveting account of the way the Japanese occupation reshaped colonial Malaya and of the tension filled months that followed Japan's surrender This book is fundamental to an understanding of social and political developments in Malaysia during the second half of the 20th century Report to the Government of Malaysia on an Agricultural Survey Mission on Crop Diversification Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1967 Serials Currently Received by the National Agricultural Library, 1974 National Agricultural Library (U.S.),1974 Studies and Reports ,1926 Reports for ... on the Unfederated Malay States Under British Protection Great Britain. Colonial Office, 1921 Includes annual reports for the states of Johore Kelantan Kendah and Perlis and Trengganu also published separately The Indian Civil Service and Indian Foreign Policy, 1923-1961 Amit Das Gupta, 2020-11-26 This book provides an authoritative account of the first significant overseas diplomatic missions and forays made by Indian civil servants It recounts the key events in the formative decades of Indian foreign policy and looks at the prominent figures who were at the centre of this decisive period of change The book explores the history and evolution of the civil and foreign services in India during the last leg of British rule and the following era of post independence Nehruvian politics Rich in archival material it looks at official files correspondences and diaries documenting the terms served by the pioneers of Indian diplomacy Girja Shankar Bajpai K P S Menon and Subimal Dutt in Africa China the USSR and other countries and their relationship with the Indian political leadership The book also analyses and pieces together the activities strategies worldviews and contributions of the first administrators and diplomats who shaped India's approach to foreign policy and its relationship with other political powers An essential read for researchers and academics this book will be a useful resource for students of international relations foreign policy political science and modern Indian history especially those interested in the history of Indian foreign affairs It will also be of great use to general readers who are interested in the history of politics and diplomacy in India and South Asia Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at http www taylorfrancis com under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license World War II and Southeast Asia Gregg Huff, 2020-10-22 From December 1941 Japan as part of its plan to build an East Asian empire and secure oil supplies essential for war in the Pacific swiftly took control of Southeast Asia Japanese occupation had a devastating economic impact on the region Japan imposed country and later regional autarky on Southeast Asia dictated that the region finance its own occupation and sent almost no consumer goods GDP fell by half everywhere in Southeast Asia except Thailand Famine and forced labour accounted for most of the 4 4 million Southeast Asian civilian deaths under Japanese occupation In this ground breaking new study Gregg Huff provides the first comprehensive account of the economies and societies of Southeast Asia during the 1941 1945 Japanese occupation Drawing on materials from 25 archives over three continents his economic social and historical analysis presents a new understanding of Southeast Asian history and development before during and after the Pacific War Report of the Council Rubber Growers' Association,1917 Training Indigenous Forces in Counterinsurgency James S. Corum,2006 The author examines the British experience in building and training indigenous police and military forces during the Malaya and Cyprus insurgencies These two insurgencies provide a dramatic contrast to the issue of training local security forces In Malaya the British developed a very successful strategy for training the Malayan Police and army In Cyprus the British strategy for building and training local security forces generally was ineffective The author argues that some important lessons can be drawn from these case studies that are directly applicable to current U S counterinsurgency doctrine

Foreign Statistical Publications ,1962 Ethnic Relations at School in Malaysia Noriyuki Segawa,2019-08-08 This book considers the impact of the Rancangan Integrasi Murid Untuk Parpaduan RIMUP Student Integration Plan for Unity the program developed as a driver towards Malaysian national integration and intended to promote an ideal of unity in diversity through enhancing ethnic interaction in primary schools Based on interview research with government departments NGOs and stakeholders at primary schools this book highlights three main structural challenges to success of the RIMUP the government s weak management the short duration and low frequency of an activity and low student participation rate The book also provides concrete suggestions to develop the RIMUP to improve ethnic relations and to shape the future direction of education policies for the development of national integration making a significant contribution to Malaysian studies as well as education policy in multi ethnic countries
