Representing The French Revolution Liter:

Mistress to an Age J. Christopher Herold, 2002 J Christopher Herold vigorously tells the story of the fierce Madame de Stael revealing her courageous opposition to Napoleon her whirlwind affairs with the great intellectuals of her day and her idealistic rebellion against all that was cynical tyrannical and passionless Germaine de Stael's father was Jacques Necker the finance minister to Louis XVI and her mother ran an influential literary political salon in Paris Always precocious at nineteen Germaine married the Swedish ambassador to France Eric Magnus Baron de Stael Holstein and in 1785 took over her mother's salon with great success Germaine and de Stael lived most of their married life apart She had many brilliant lovers Talleyrand was the first Narbonne the minister of war another Benjamin Constant was her most significant and long lasting one She published several political and literary essays including A Treatise on the Influence of the Passions upon the Happiness of Individuals and of Nations which became one of the most important documents of European Romanticism Her bold philosophical ideas particularly those in On Literature caused feverish commotion in France and were quickly noticed by Napoleon who saw her salon as a rallying point for the opposition He eventually exiled her from France This winner of the 1959 National Book Award is excellent detailed full of color movement great names and lively incident The New York Times Mr Herold's full bodied biography is clear eyed intelligent and written with abundant wit and zest The Atlantic Monthly

A Catalog of Books Represented by Library of Congress Printed Cards Issued to July 31, 1942, 1942 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole History in the Text 'Quatrevingt-Treize' and the French Revolution Sandy Petrey, 1980-01-01 The title of this study History in the text is an oxymoronic phrase and by this the main focus of the book is clear immediately On the other hand there still remains the question to what extent text and history are comparable The author of this volume tries to answer this by discussing the famous novel of Victor Hugo Quatrevingt Treize against the background of the French Revolution

The Carlyle Encyclopedia Mark Cumming, 2004 The Carlyle Encyclopedia focuses primarily on Thomas Carlyle It reflects the range of his interests and resists stereotyped impression of who he was and what he believed It covers Carlyle s entire life without privileging any particular work or period and locates Carlyle in his time and place in the context of a rich and challenging age The Carlyle Encyclopedia also gives a balanced assessment of Jane Welsh Carlyle which avoids either belittling her or overestimating her achievement It avoids the reductive and contradictory stereotypes of her which were offered by early biographers of Thomas Carlyle and offers instead a study of her varied friendships and her trenchant observations on contemporary life The Carlyle Encyclopedia will interest a variety of readers who concern themselves with literature social history the history of ideas Victorian culture and Scottish studies

BOOK JACKET Biography of a Revolution Lucia Sorbera, 2025 It is not Egypt s 2011 revolution that opened a space for women s and feminist activism but as this book shows the long history of women s activism that created the intellectual and political background for revolution By centering the experiences and ideas of multiple generations of women activists and intellectuals Lucia Sorbera traces the feminist genealogies of Egypt s nationalist student Marxist labor human rights and democratic social movements Biography of a Revolution gathers a series of interrelated intimate and relational stories charting in vivid detail the entanglements between women s aspirations across a century of politics and friendships This historical analysis innovatively deploys decolonial and indigenous feminist epistemologies bringing women s gender and feminist history into the center of Egypt s political social and intellectual history More than a decade after the 2013 military coup women s intellectual and political activism remains crucial to keeping the embers of revolution aglow

The French Revolution Seen from the Right Paul Harold Beik, 1956 The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization

No Joke M. Keith Booker, 2023-05-18 No Joke is a detailed examination of Todd Phillips s Joker one of the biggest global box office hits of 2019 While his success was no doubt partly because of the association of its title character with the Batman superhero franchise Joker is anything but a flashy superhero romp It does explore the pathologies of its central character and suggest ways in which his life experiences might have driven him to become a supervillain the arch enemy of Batman At the same time the film leaves open the possibility that its Joker is not in fact the same as the one conventionally associated with Batman In fact the film leaves open many interpretive possibilities in keeping with the complex work of postmodern art that it turns out to be Joker also engages in extensive dialogues with a range of works from modern American culture especially the films of the 1970s and 1980s the period in which the action of Joker is set Moreover Joker is a highly political film that comments in important ways on American political history from roughly the beginning of the presidency of Richard Nixon through the end of the Trump presidency with a special focus on the Reagan years It also comments in more general and fundamental ways on the very nature of American society and American capitalism All this and more is covered in M Keith Booker s analysis of one of the most talked about films of recent years Tracing Global Democracy Vladimir

Biti,2016-01-15 Focused on the recently hotly debated topic at the crossroads of various human and social sciences this book investigates the emergence of the cosmopolitan idea of literature and its impact on the reconfiguration of the European and non European political spaces The birthplace of this idea is its designers traumatic experience as induced by the disconcerting condition of their abode The thesis is that the eighteenth and nineteenth century s cosmopolitan projects that grow out of such deep frustrations trace the twentieth century s global democracy This hidden origin of cosmopolitan projects dismantles the usual European representation of modernization as universal progress as myopic Rather than being a generous action of prominent subjects such as Voltaire Kant and Goethe or Bakhtin Derrida and Deleuze cosmopolitanism is an enforced reaction of the instances dispossessed by injury that search for the ways of healing it Yet as soon as their remedy establishes itself as the ground for universal reconciliation it risks suppressing other s trauma i e turns from politics into a police Articulating the author s position in the recent debates on the structure of democracy the epilogue suggests an alternative strategy Flagging Patriotism Ella Shohat,Robert Stam,2013-10-18 The question Why do they hate us is one of the most oft cited puzzles of contemporary American affairs yet it s not clear to whom they or us refers nor even what hate means In this bold new work Ella Shohat and Robert Stam take apart the hate discourse of right wing politics placing it in an international context How for example do other nations love themselves and how is that love connected to their attitudes toward America Is love of country monogamous or can one love many countries When can a country s self love be a symptom of self hatred Drawing upon their extensive experience with South American European and Middle Eastern societies the authors have written a long engagement with a problem that refuses to go away Flagging Patriotism considers these complex features of being patriotic and in so doing insists that the idea of patriotism instead of being rejected or embraced be accorded the complex identity it possesses The Study and Appreciation of History W. Perry Kissick,1929

Representation and Its Discontents Azade Seyhan,2023-04-28 Azade Seyhan provides a concise elegantly argued introduction to the critical theory of German Romanticism and demonstrates how its approach to the metaphorical and linguistic nature of knowledge is very much alive in contemporary philosophy and literary theory Her analysis of key thinkers such as Friedrich Schlegel and Novalis explores their views on rhetoric systematicity hermeneutics and cultural interpretation Seyhan examines German Romanticism as a critical intervention in the debates on representation which developed in response to the philosophical revolution of German Idealism Facing a chaotic political and intellectual landscape the eighteenth century theorists sought new models of understanding and new objectives for criticism and philosophy Representation and Its Discontents identifies the legacy of this formative moment in modern criticism and suggests its relevance to contemporary discussions of post structuralism orientalism theories of textuality and the nature of philosophical discourse This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1992 Azade Seyhan provides a concise elegantly argued introduction to the critical theory of German Romanticism and demonstrates how its approach to the metaphorical and linguistic nature of knowledge is very much alive in contemporary philosophy and literary
