Requiem for a Rebel Priest Paulino M. Lim, 1996      Transnational, National, and Personal Voices Elisabetta Marino, 2004

The growing heterogeneity of Asian American and Asian diasporic voices has also given rise to variegated theoretical approaches to these literatures. This book attempts to encompass both the increasing awareness of diasporic and transnational issues and more traditional analyses of Asian American culture and literature. Thus the articles in this collection range from investigations into the politics of literary and cinematic representation to digging into the past through literary archeology or analyzing how consequential bodies can be in recent literature by Asian American and Asian diasporic women writers. The book closes with an interview with critic and writer Shirley Lim where she insightfully deals with these transnational national and personal issues. Elisabetta Marino is Assistant Professor of English literature at the University of Rome Tor Vergata. Her main fields of interest are Asian American and Asian British literature, children's literature, Italian American literature. Bego a Simal is Assistant Professor of English literature at the Universidad de Coruña, Spain. She has published critical work on both Asian American literature and comparative cross ethnic studies.

Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2015-02-17. Unlike any other book of its kind, this volume celebrates published works from a broad range of American ethnic groups not often featured in the typical canon of literature. This culturally rich encyclopedia contains 160 alphabetically arranged entries on African American, Asian American, Latino and Native American literary traditions among others. The book introduces the uniquely American mosaic of multicultural literature by chronicling the achievements of American writers of non-European descent and highlighting the ethnic diversity of works from the colonial era to the present. The work features engaging topics like the civil rights movement, bilingualism, assimilation, and border narratives. Entries provide historical overviews of literary periods along with profiles of major authors and great works including Toni Morrison, Maxine Hong Kingston, Maya Angelou, Sherman Alexie, A Raisin in the Sun, American Born Chinese, and The House on Mango Street. The book also provides concise overviews of genres not often featured in textbooks like the Chinese American novel, African American young adult literature, Mexican American autobiography, and Cuban American poetry.

Bibliography of Filipino Novels, 1901-2000 Patricia May B. Jurilla, 2010. The most comprehensive bibliography of Filipino novels compiled so far, this book lists novels in Tagalog, Filipino, Tagalog-Filipino translation, and English published in the Philippines during the twentieth century. Philippine Studies, 2000.
