Research in Race and Ethnic Relations ,1991      Research in Race and Ethnic Relations Cora Bagley Marrett,Rutledge Dennis,Cheryl Leggon,1989-02      Handbook of Research on Ethnic Minority Entrepreneurship Leo Paul Dana,2007

Professor Dana and his colleagues have carefully and successfully put together a collection of chapters on ethnic minority entrepreneurship from all parts of the world The book comprises eight parts and 49 chapters Undoubtedly given the massive size and content of a 835 page book it is fair to ask is it value for money The answer is unequivocally yes A further comment on the content of the book should probably reassure potential readers and buyers of the book This collection is undoubtedly rich creative and varied in many respects Therefore it will be of great benefit to researchers and scholars alike I will strongly recommend this book to researchers students teachers and policy makers Aminu Mamman International Journal of Entrepreneurial Behaviour and Research The volume presents an impressive panorama of studies on ethnic entrepreneurs ranging from Dalits in India to Roma entrepreneurs in Hungary B P Corrie Choice From a focus on middle man minorities in the 1950s the study of minority ethnic entrepreneurship has evolved into a vast undertaking A major ingredient in this expansion is the massive population movements of the past thirty years that have created ethnic minority communities in almost all advanced economies From New York to San Francisco from Birmingham to Hamburg from the Chinese in Canada to the Turks in Finland to the Ghanians in South Africa to the Lebanese in New Zealand more than twenty chapters in this volume treat small scale ethnic entrepreneurship and the cultural and institutional resources which support it At the other end of the spectrum the ethnic Chinese have created ever larger multi divisional enterprises in the host societies of Southeast Asia At the mid point of the spectrum analyzed in an elegant paper by Ivan Light is the recently identified transmigrant entrepreneur acculturated in two societies but assimilated in neither whose special endowments have provided the lynchpin for for much of the international trade expansion in the global economy over the past decade And Dana and Morris provide us with much more Afro American entrepreneurship caste and class the theory of clubs women ethnic entrepreneurs minority ethnicity and IPOs In the quality of its contributions and in the reach of its coverage this Handbook attains a very high standard Peter Kilby Wesleyan University US The new Handbook of Research on Ethnic Minority Entrepreneurship edited by L o Paul Dana constitutes a major contribution to the literature on ethnic enterprise Unlike previous work which tended to focus on one country or one region of the world this book is global in scope You will find chapters on America Europe and Asia as well as integrative essays that review important principles and concepts from the literature on ethnic entrepreneurship I particularly appreciate the historical and evolutionary framework within which the contributions are situated This book belongs on the shelf of everyone who has an interest in immigration and entrepreneurship or ethnic entrepreneurship more generally Howard Aldrich University of North Carolina US This exhaustive interdisciplinary Handbook explores the phenomena of immigration and ethnic minority entrepreneurship in light of marked changes since the mid twentieth century and the advent of easier more affordable travel and more open and integrated national economies The international contributors key experts in their respective fields illustrate that myriad ethnic minorities exist across the globe and that their entrepreneurship can and does significantly influence national economies The contributors go on to promote our understanding of which factors make for successful entrepreneurship and perhaps more importantly how negative political consequences that members of successful entrepreneurial ethnic minorities might face can be minimized This extensive collection of current research on entrepr

"Race," Rights and the Law in the Supreme Court of Canada James W. St.G. Walker, 2006-01-01 Four cases in which the legal issue was race that of a Chinese restaurant owner who was fined for employing a white woman a black man who was refused service in a bar a Jew who wanted to buy a cottage but was prevented by the property owners association and a Trinidadian of East Indian descent who was acceptable to the Canadian army but was rejected for immigration on grounds of race drawn from the period between 1914 and 1955 are intimately examined to explore the role of the Supreme Court of Canada and the law in the racialization of Canadian society With painstaking research into contemporary attitudes and practices Walker demonstrates that Supreme Court Justices were expressing the prevailing common sense about race in their legal decisions He shows that injustice on the grounds of race has been chronic in Canadian history and that the law itself was once instrumental in creating these circumstances The book concludes with a controversial discussion of current directions in Canadian law and their potential impact on Canada s future as a multicultural society

The State, Development and Identity in Multi-Ethnic Societies Nicholas Tarling, Edmund Terence Gomez, 2008-03-03 This book examines ethnic communities identity economy society and state and the links between them in a range of countries across Asia challenging the widely held belief that an authoritarian political system is necessary to ensure communal co existence in developing countries where ethnic minorities have a considerable economic presence

Race, Politics and Social Change Les Back, John Solomos, 2002-01-31 Drawing on a wealth of original sources this book explores the changing contours of the politics of race in the present social and political environment This will appeal to students of British politics and society

Understanding 'race' and ethnicity Craig, Gary, Atkin, Karl, 2012-02-22 Many welfare states are now struggling to deal with the issues and tensions raised by the growth of minority ethnic populations and increasing ethnic diversity The fact that most societies in the developed world are now multicultural raises many challenges for policy and for the delivery of welfare services which most states have yet to address retreating into forms of institutional racism to deny minorities the services they need Using the UK as an exemplary case study this much needed book combines historical and theoretical approaches to the issue of race and ethnicity within welfare provision including an examination of how minorities experience welfare in a range of service settings The book inspires new ways of approaching welfare and social policy in anticipation of a society that is equal inclusive fair and just for all and will make essential reading for students researchers practitioners and policy makers

Modernisation and Ethnicity

D. V. Kumar,2006-01-01      Ethnicity and Citizenship Jean Laponce,Safran William,2014-03-05 Examining past and present policies on immigration current arguments regarding the evolution of the Canadian constitutional system and the continuing search for new definitions of citizenship this book looks at the components of citizenship in Canada and the diversity of attitudes      Housing, Race and Law Martin MacEwen,2002-09-11 Equality of opportunity in housing is a key issue in social justice in Britain today To the extent that it patterns an individual s educational social and economic development housing constitutes a crucial battleground in the fight against racial discrimination Housing Race and Law is the first publication to examine the law in relation to issues of housing and race in both the private and public sector It places these issues in the broader context of the development of anti discrimination legislation outlines the current legislation and examines its impact in relation to owner occupation public housing housing association tenancies and private lets Throughout the book emphasizes the practical impact of the various legislative provisions and discusses the responses of the principle institutions from government departments and relevant professions to the Commission for Racial Equality and the Community Relations Councils or Racial Equality Councils It argues a case for a new approach to appraisal review and enforcement By collating material from a wide variety of sources the author provides an original assessment of the Race Relations Act of 1976 and its impact on housing which in its provision of cogent material and arguments for reforms is designed to be of value to practitioners academics and those concerned with racial discrimination      Ethnicity, Children & Habitus Feng-Bing,2005 This book is concerned with the ethnic experience of Chinese secondary school children living in Northern Ireland The author analyses two sub groups of Chinese children those with parents coming from Hong Kong and those with parents coming from Mainland China The purpose of this study is to investigate how these apparently Chinese children feel about their ethnic identity By drawing upon Bourdieu s concepts of habitus and a cultural studies approach to ethnicity and identity in general the author examines the characteristics of cultural specificity and heterogeneity Methodologically the author has chosen an ethnographic approach Prominence is given to the definitions perspectives and voices of the children themselves by conducting open ended indepth and informal interviews and by doing so on an extended basis The whole process continued for two and half years Close attention was paid to the children s immediate circumstances their parental occupations and their general social and cultural conditions      Resources in Education ,1997      The Dynamics Of Race And Gender Haleh Afshar,Mary Maynard,2012-10-12 During the past decade feminism and women s studies have been forced to acknowledge the diversities of women s experiences as well as the patriarchal oppression that they share The emphasis on difference has shattered the illusion of homogeneity and sisterhood which previously characterized white middle class Westernized feminist politics and analysis There is relatively little work which concentrates on the inter relationships of race and gender in general and the consequences of racism for women of different backgrounds in particular The Dynamics of Race and Gender aims to contribute to the debate and understanding in this area Emphasis has been given to age class disability race and sexuality The contributors to this volume are from different religious cultural and ethnic backgrounds giving a balanced and broad ranging perspective on this important social question Organized around three main themes which are issues of theory and method questions of identity racism and sexism at work the chapters of this book indicate how the processes of race and gender interrelate in highly complex and contradictory ways Demonstrating the benefits to be gained from analysing the interplay of various axes of differentiation in specific empirical and historical locations and in doing so under scoring the point that diversity among women cannot be seen as a static phenomenon

Ethnicity and Integration John Stillwell, Maarten van Ham, 2010-07-20 The theme of this volume is ethnicity and the implications for integration of our increasingly ethnically diversified population New research findings from a range of census survey and administrative data sources are presented and case studies are included Black Studies in Europe Nicole Grégoire, Sarah Fila-Bakabadio, Jacinthe Mazzocchetti, 2025-08-15 Reflecting on contemporary epistemologies of European Blackness Long absent from research in the humanities and social sciences Black people in continental Europe have become the focus of a growing body of literature in the past two decades that addresses their unique history and social positioning Black Studies in Europe An Anthology of Soil and Seeds brings together essays and case studies by a collective of scholars writers and activists to offer a critical overview of the emerging field of Black European studies and a vital reflection on contemporary epistemologies of European Blackness This collection addresses key questions What is Blackness from a European standpoint Which epistemologies and theoretical tools have been used to offer a better understanding of Black experiences in Europe How is this knowledge being produced and by whom Can we define a common European conceptual framework for Black studies Related to this work is an even more urgent enterprise forging an epistemological distinction between the study of Black people and Black studies as an emancipatory project Inside Babylon Winston James, Clive Harris, 1993 The varied experience of the Caribbean diaspora in Britain with its difficult and fractured history is reflected in this distinctive and lively collection The contributors to Inside Babylon show how employers and police psychiatrists and welfare services help to channel black people into residential and occupational ghettos Clive Harris Bob Carter and Shirley Joshi analyse the economic destiny of Afro Caribbeans in Britain Going beyond the familiar prisms of race relations and reductionist class analysis they illuminate the radicalizing dynamic of British capitalism in the postwar period Errol Francis provides a shocking account of the experience of black people at the hands of psychiatrists in Britain Cecil Gutzmore finds the Notting Hill carnival to be a litmus test of racist formations in both the media and the state as well as evidence of the resilience of the black community Amina Mama and Claudette Williams explore the position of women in black communities while Gail Lewis focuses on their characteristic patterns of employment In a powerful concluding essay Winston James charts the unfolding of a new Afro Caribbean identity in Britain and debunks the notion that racist structures by themselves create a homogeneous black community Publisher Rethinking Ethnicity Richard Jenkins, 1997-06-23 How do concepts of ethnicity and social identity impact on our everyday lives Richard Jenkins reassesses the concept of ethnicity by critically examining developing and expanding the anthropological model The result is a compact refreshing and stimulating enquiry into an indispensable concept for making sense of the contemporary and past world     New Serial Titles ,1984     Belonging, Citizenship and Muslim Identity Stéphane Hlaimi,2025-06-10 This book explores belonging among Muslims in Britain and France asking whether British and French Muslims are citizens first or Muslims first Based on in depth interviews with Muslims in both jurisdictions it considers three options open to Muslims assimilation integration or conflict and considers the differences in approach that tend to prevail among Muslims in Britain and France with British Muslims tending to favour a cohabitationist strategy while many French Muslims adopt a more conflictual approach With attention to issues of Islamophobia the author examines the crises multiculturalism and secularism are facing and argues for a more inclusive rhetoric on questions of Islam and citizenship to counter the essentialist othering approach that characterises media coverage and public discourse A call for a new paradigm of articulation between Muslim identity and Western citizenship Belonging Citizenship and Muslim Identity will be of interest to scholars of sociology politics geography and anthropology with interests in inclusion and diasporic communities     Case Studies on Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms ,1987-12-01 Published for the Foundation for the Study of Plural Societies
