Penick-Parks, 2017-09-22 Empower black boys to dream believe achieve Schools that routinely fail Black boys are not extraordinary In fact they are all too ordinary If we are to succeed in positively shifting outcomes for Black boys and young men we must first change the way school is done That's where the eight in ten teachers who are White women fit in and this urgently needed resource is written specifically for them as a way to help them understand respect and connect with all of their students So much more than a call to action but that too The Guide for White Women Who Teach Black Boys brings together research activities personal stories and video interviews to help us all embrace the deep realities and thrilling potential of this crucial American task With Eddie Ali and Marguerite as your mentors you will learn how to Develop learning environments that help Black boys feel a sense of belonging nurturance challenge and love at school Change school culture so that Black boys can show up in the wholeness of their selves Overcome your unconscious bias and forge authentic connections with your Black male students If you are a teacher who is afraid to talk about race that's okay Fear is a normal human emotion and racial competence is a skill that can be learned We promise that reading this extraordinary guide will be a life changing first step forward for both you and the students you serve About the Authors Dr Eddie Moore Jr has pursued and achieved success in academia business diversity leadership and community service In 1996 he started America MOORE LLC to provide comprehensive diversity privilege and leadership trainings workshops Dr Moore is recognized as one of the nation s top motivational speakers and educators especially for his work with students K 16 Dr Moore is the Founder Program Director for the White Privilege Conference one of the top national and international conferences for participants who want to move beyond dialogue and into action around issues of diversity power privilege and leadership Ali Michael Ph D is the co founder and director of the Race Institute for K 12 Educators and the author of Raising Race Questions Whiteness Inquiry and Education winner of the 2017 Society of Professors of Education Outstanding Book Award She is co editor of the bestselling Everyday White People Confront Racial and Social Injustice and sits on the editorial board of the journal Whiteness and Education Dr Michael teaches in the mid career doctoral program at the University of Pennsylvania s Graduate School of Education as well as the Graduate Counseling Program at Arcadia University Dr Marguerite W Penick Parks currently serves as Chair of Educational Leadership and Policy at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh Her work centers on issues of power privilege and oppression in relationship to issues of curriculum with a special emphasis on the incorporation of quality literature in K 12 classrooms She appears in the movie Mirrors of Privilege Making Whiteness Visible by the World Trust Organization Her most recent work includes a joint article on creating safe spaces for discussing White privilege with preservice teachers Pan-Africanism and Psychology in Decolonial Times Shose Kessi, Floretta Boonzaier, Babette Stephanie Gekeler, 2022-01-01 This book explores the potential of Pan African thought in contributing to advancing psychological research theory and practice Euro American mainstream psychology has historically served the interests of a dominant western paradigm Contemporary trends in psychological work have emerged as a direct result of the impact of violent histories of slavery genocide and colonisation Hence this book proposes that psychology particularly in its social forms as a discipline centered on the relationship between mind and society is well placed to produce the critical knowledge and tools for imagining and promoting a just and equitable world The IQ Mythology Elaine Mensh, Harry Mensh, 1991-04-20 Ever since Alfred Binet carried out a 1904 commission from France s minister of public instruction to devise a means for deciding which pupils should be sent to what would now be called special education classes IQ scores have been used to label and track children Those same scores have been cited as proof that different races classes and genders are of superior and inferior intelligence The Menshes make clear that from the beginning IQ tests have been fundamentally biased Offered as a means for seeking solutions to social problems the actual measurements have been used to maintain the status quo Often the most telling comments are from the test makers themselves whether Binet little girls weak in orthography are strong in sewing and capable in the instruction concerning housekeeping and all things considered this is more important for their future or Wigdor and Garner naive use of intelligence tests to place children of linguistic or racial minority status in special education programs will not be defensible in court Among the disturbing facts that the authors share is that there is mounting political pressure for more tests and testing despite a court trial in which the judge stated that defendants expert witnesses even those clearly affiliated with the companies that devise and distribute the standardized intelligence tests agreed with one exception that we cannot truly define much less measure intelligence The testing firms have responded to this carefully orchestrated need with new products that extend even to the IQ testing of three month old infants The authors stress that if the testers prevail there is little doubt that these and similar tests would be used ad infinitum to justify superior and inferior education along class and racial lines Women's Ethnicities Karen F Wyche,2019-07-23 Eighteen women psychologists address issues of diversity while exploring the effects of essentialism the presumed sameness of all women By exposing how their own work incorporates their gender and ethnicities the contributors embark on a journey of awareness built on communication and collaboration Discussing dilemmas of gender and ethnicity

The Social World of Jesus and the Gospels Bruce J. Malina,2002-11-01 In order to interpret historical writings the reader must not employ their modern understanding of the world but must strive to grasp the mindset of the original audience To assist the twentieth century New Testament reader in understanding the literal meaning of the New Testament is the goal of this collection of essays The Social World of Jesus and the Gospels provides the reader with a set of possible scenarios for reading the New Testament How did first century persons think about themselves and others Did they think Jesus was a charismatic leader Why did they call God father Were they concerned with their gender roles The eight essays in this collection were previously published in books and journals generally not available to many readers Carefully selected and edited this collection will be both an introduction and an invaluable source of reference to Bruce Malina s thought

IMPROVING SCHOOLS FOR AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDENTS Sheryl J. Denbo,Lynson Moore Beaulieu,2002-01-01 Improving Schools for African American Students is designed to provide educational leaders with a better understanding of how to recognize the diversity of strengths that Black students bring with them to school and how to use these strengths to improve achievement The articles contained in this book discuss generic education issues such as policy reform the importance of high quality teaching and the improvement of schools from the perspective of the academic achievement of African American students Part I explores institutional racism in the context of America s public schools and provides suggestions for educational leaders to eliminate harmful policies and practices within educational institutions and settings Part II discusses the kinds of institutional and instructional changes that are needed to support successful schooling of African American children and youth Part III focuses on the challenges presented to African American students by the current high stakes testing environment that surrounds standards assessment and accountability A review of the literature on schools that have succeeded in improving achievement for African American students at the elementary middle and high school levels with districts moving towards narrowing the achievement gap is included This text examines a wide variety of policies programs practices and research that will provide valuable insight The emphasis throughout the book is on the ability of educators to successfully restructure their schools offer high quality teaching and learning standards for African American students and to make the kinds of changes that will result in high achievement for all students

The Practice of Organizational Diagnosis Clayton Alderfer, 2011 The Practice of Organizational Diagnosis Theory Methods presents a new paradigm for examining the intergroup dynamics of organizations by combining the procedures of organizational diagnosis with the theory of embedded intergroup relations In this volume Alderfer explains the relevance of the paradigm concept for the present work shows the importance of intergroup relations in the formative organization studies reviews extant modes of organizational diagnosis and demonstrates the limitations of interpersonal and intra group theories He then presents the five laws of embedded intergroup relations as a response to the problems associated with the earlier work After comparing and contrasting alternative group level theories and explaining the several meanings of empirical support the author describes the empirical basis of the five laws Based on examining alternative codes of professional conduct and applying the five laws he provides his prescriptions for the ethical basis of sound diagnostic practice With the theory and ethical position in place he then explains procedures for conducting each phase of organizational diagnosis entry data collection data analysis and feedback He follows that by reporting the empirical bases for the methods used in the four phases The volume concludes by describing the courses and educational processes essential for educating people to conduct organizational diagnoses A recurring theme from beginning to end is that the lawfulness of human behavior in relation to organizations is as applicable to diagnosticians whether working alone or in teams as it is to their clients By addressing theory method data and values the volume presents a complete paradigm for organizational diagnosis

The School Achievement of Minority Children Ulric Neisser, 2020-11-25 Lower school achievement of minority children is usually explained by projecting deficits upon the children deficits that are attributed to genetic or environmental causes In contrast with tradition the contributors to this book demonstrate how group differences in academic accomplishment and test scores are affected by cultural factors and standard educational practices as well

The Afrocentric Praxis of Teaching for Freedom Joyce E. King, Ellen E. Swartz, 2015-08-27 The Afrocentric Praxis of Teaching for Freedom explains and illustrates how an African worldview as a platform for culture based teaching and learning helps educators to retrieve African heritage and cultural knowledge which have been historically discounted and decoupled from teaching and learning The book has three objectives To exemplify how each of the emancipatory pedagogies it delineates and demonstrates is supported by African worldview concepts and parallel knowledge general understandings values and claims that are produced by that worldview To make African Diasporan cultural connections visible in the curriculum through numerous examples of cultural continuities seen in the actions of Diasporan groups and individuals that consistently exhibit an African worldview or cultural framework To provide teachers with content drawn from Africa s legacy to humanity as a model for locating all students and the cultures and groups they represent as subjects in the curriculum and pedagogy of schooling This book expands the Afrocentric praxis presented in the authors Re membering History in Teacher and Student Learning by combining remembered democratized historical content with emancipatory pedagogies that are connected to an African cultural platform      The Unfinished Agenda of Brown v. Board of Education James Anderson, Dara N.

Byrne, 2008-04-21 Praise for The Unfinished Agenda of Brown V Board of Education My father Oliver L Brown for whom Brown v Board of Education is named was a proud member of a group of a few hundred people across the country who took risks by taking a stand for what they believed He died in 1961 just seven years after the case so he didn't live long enough to know that Brown would become the foundation on which so much of this country's civil and human rights initiatives would rest Brown v Board became important for every citizen not just African Americans It shows that the founding documents of our country provided us with sovereign rights that cannot be restricted by state and local governments That decision impacted the lives of women persons with disabilities blacks whites Hispanics Asians and everyone living in this country Brown was significant in attacking the silence It opened up a dialogue and forced the country to take on greater responsibility we at every level had to start addressing the issue of race In many ways once the dialogue started we finally began to understand the depths of racism This case was about gaining access to educational resources the resources were and remain where the white children are The Unfinished Agenda of Brown v Board of Education is about renewing and continuing the promise of Brown Cheryl Brown Henderson president of the Brown Foundation for Educational Equity Excellence and Research and daughter of Oliver L Brown one of the thirteen plaintiffs in Brown v Board of Education
