Rosendorf Quartet In Hebrew:

The Rosendorf Quartet Nathan Shaham, 1991 Four German Jews all refugees from Nazi Germany and all first rate musicians arrive in Palestine in the 1930s There they join a symphony orchestra which although made up of Europeans serves as a propaganda vehicle for the Zionist state in the making Unable to express themselves within this melting pot orchestra they join together to form The Rosendorf Quartet In this compelling and provocative novel awarded Israel s prestigious Bialik Prize for Literature Nathan Shaham examines the plight of these refugees who must adjust to the old new land a place fraught with political struggle and impending violence Kurt Rosendorf the quartet s founder and first violin would like to believe that his true homeland is music Forced to leave his Christian wife and daughter in Berlin he cannot adjust to life in Palestine and tries to live outside history and geography Konrad Friedman second violin is a young Zionist who constantly battles the urge to renounce the European cultured life of the musician and dedicate himself to the Jewish cause Bernard Litovsky the cellist is tired of wandering and longs for firm ground and a sense of home The fourth in the quartet is the stunning Eva Staubenfeld whose beauty and sexual liberation baffle and mesmerize her colleagues Relieved to be far from the abuses of her past she is furious that the accident of being born Jewish has disrupted her life Uniting the four is Egon Loewenthal a brilliant and underrated German author who has survived Dachau but cannot forsake the language of his persecutors He decides that his next novel written in German will be about the quartet The Rosendorf Quartet is not only a deft portrait of the complexities and contradictions that have gone to make up the state of Israel it is also a stunning tribute to the curative powers of music in whose realm dissonance politics and personal anguish dissolve into art transcending human conflict and national boundaries

Defenders of the Faith Judith Bleich, 2020-04-21 The Emancipation of European Jewry during the nineteenth century led to conflict between tradition and modernity creating a chasm that few believed could be bridged. Unsurprisingly the emergence of modern traditionalism was fraught with obstacles. The essays published in this collection eloquently depict the passion underlying the disparate views, the particular areas of vexing confrontation and the hurdles faced by champions of tradition. The author identifies and analyzes the many areas of sociological and religious tension that divided the competing factions including synagogue innovation, circumcision, intermarriage, military service and many others. With compelling writing and clear articulate style, this illuminating work provides keen insight into the history and development of the various streams of Judaism and the issues that continue to divide them in contemporary times.

The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, Volume 9 Samuel D. Kassow, David G. Roskies, 2020-11-24. The Posen Library's groundbreaking anthology series called a feast of Jewish culture in ten volumes by the Chronicle of Higher Education explores in Volume 9 global Jewish responses to the years 1939 to 1973, a time of unprecedented destruction, dislocation, agency and creativity. An extensive look at Jewish civilization and culture from the eve of World War II to the Yom Kippur War. It's a weighty collection to be sure, but one that's consistently engaging. An edifying and diverse survey of 20th century Jewish life. Kirkus Reviews starred review. Readers seeking primary texts, documents, images and artifacts constituting Jewish culture and civilization will not be disappointed. More important, they might even be inspired. This set will serve to improve teaching and research in Jewish studies at institutions of higher learning and at the same time promote, maintain and improve understanding of the Jewish population and Judaism in general. Booklist starred review. The ninth volume of The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization covers the years 1939 to 1973, a period that editors Kassow and Roskies call one of the most tragic and dramatic in Jewish history. Organized geographically and then by genre, this book details Jewish cultural and intellectual resources throughout this era, particularly in political thought, literature, the visual and performing arts and religion. This volume explores worldwide Jewish perceptions of momentous events that transpired in the mid twentieth century and how Jews redefined themselves across regions throughout an era rife with tragedy, displacement and dispersion. The breadth and depth of this work goes beyond any comparable collection with detailed insights and sharp focus to accompany its breathtaking scope. A major ten volume anthology project more than a decade in the making, the Posen Library is an ideal reference tool for scholars, teachers and students at all levels.
