Painting Below Zero James Rosenquist, David Dalton, 2009-10-27 From James Rosenquist one of our most iconic pop artists along with Andy Warhol Jim Dine Claes Oldenburg and Roy Lichtenstein comes this candid and fascinating memoir Unlike these artists Rosenquist often works in three dimensional forms with highly dramatic shifts in scale and a far more complex palette including grisaille and Day Glo colors A skilled traditional painter he avoided the stencils and silk screens of Warhol and Lichtenstein His vast canvases full of brilliant surreally juxtaposed images would influence both many of his contemporaries and younger generations as well as revolutionize twentieth century painting Rosenquist writes about growing up in a tight knit community of Scandinavian farmers in North Dakota and Minnesota in the late 1930s and early 1940s about his mother who was not only an amateur painter but along with his father a passionate aviator and about leaving that flat midwestern landscape in 1955 for New York where he had won a scholarship to the Art Students League George Grosz Edwin Dickinson and Robert Beverly Hale were among his teachers but his early life was a struggle until he discovered sign painting He describes days suspended on scaffolding high over Broadway painting movie or theater billboards and nights at the Cedar Tavern with Willem de Kooning Franz Kline and the poet LeRoi Jones His first major studio on Coenties Slip was in the thick of the new art world Among his neighbors were Ellsworth Kelly Robert Indiana Agnes Martin and Jack Youngerman and his mentors Robert Rauschenberg and Jasper Johns Rosenquist writes about his shows with the dealers Richard Bellamy Ileana Sonnabend and Leo Castelli and about colorful collectors like Robert and Ethel Scull We learn about the 1971 car crash that left his wife and son in a coma and his own life and work in shambles his lobbying along with Rauschenberg for artists rights in Washington D C and how he got his work back on track With his distinct voice Rosequist writes about the ideas behind some of his major paintings from the startling revelation that led to his first pop painting Zone to his masterpiece F III a stunning critique of war and consumerism to the cosmic reverie of Star Thief This is James Rosenquist s story in his own words captivating and unexpected a unique look inside the contemporary art world in the company of one of its most important painters

Contemporary

Impressions, 1993 The Light Room Kate Zambreno, 2023-07-04 Kate Zambreno has invented a new form. It is a kind of absolute present, real life captured in closeup. Annie Ernaux, winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature, is one of our most formally ambitious writers. Esquire offers a moving account of caretaking in a time of uncertainty and loss. In The Light Room, Zambreno offers her most profound and affecting work yet: a candid chronicle of life as a mother of two young daughters in a moment of profound uncertainty about public health, climate change, and the future we can expect for our children. Moving through the seasons, returning often to parks and green spaces, Zambreno captures the isolation and exhaustion of being home with a baby and a small child, but also small and transcendent moments of beauty and joy. Inspired by writers and artists ranging from Natalia Ginzburg to Joseph Cornell, Yukio Tsushima to Bernadette Mayer, Etel Adnan to David Wojnarowicz, The Light Room represents an impassioned appreciation of community and the commons and an ecstatic engagement with the living world. How will our memories and our children's be affected by this time of profound disconnection? What does it mean to bring new life and new work into this moment of precarity and crisis? In The Light Room, Kate Zambreno offers a vision of how to live in ways that move away from disenchantment and toward light and possibility.
