Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1922 edition. Excerpt and it was to this trait that the Savior referred in the passage quoted: When we enter the higher life we must first forget everything that we knew in the world. We must commence to look at things in an entirely different way and when a new teaching is brought before us we must endeavor to receive it regardless of other facts previously observed. This in order that we may be perfectly unbiased. Of course we are not supposed to believe offhand that black is white but if some one seriously asserts that an object which we have hitherto regarded as black is really white our mind should be sufficiently open to prevent us from passing judgment at once and saying 'Why I know that that object is black.' We should be willing to reexamine the object to see if there may not be a point of view whence that thing which we have thought black appears to be white. Only when we have made thorough examination and have found that the thing is really black from whatever point of view may we return to our previous opinion. There is nothing so remarkable about a child as the flexible attitude of its mind which renders it so teachable and the pupil who endeavors to live the higher life should always aim to keep his mind in that fluidic state for as soon as our ideas have become set and incapable of being changed our progress ceases. That was the great truth which the Christ was endeavoring to present to his hearers when he made the remark which has occasioned the question. Question No 106: Did not Jesus eat fish? Why then are the Rosicrucians vegetarians? Answer: After the Resurrection the Christ at one time appeared among His disciples while they were in a locked room. They did not recognize Him at once and did not believe. The Rosicrucian Philosophy in Questions and Answers Max Heindel, 1973 The Rosicrucian Philosophy in Questions and Answers Max Heindel, 1947 The Rosicrucian Philosophy in Questions and Answers (Classic Reprint) Max Heindel, 2016-09-17 Excerpt from The Rosicrucian Philosophy in Questions and Answers. The Rosicrucian Philosophy teaches that man is a complex being who possesses. About the Publisher: Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
