Rough First Time Through Europe 2:

Breaking Up Is Hard To Do: Britain and Europe's Dysfunctional Relationship Martin Howe, Philippe Legrain, David G. Mayes, Kristian Niemietz, Gwythian Prins, Séan Rickard, Martin Ricketts, Matthew Sinclair, Christopher Snowden, Rachel Tingle, Roland Vaubel, Richard Wellings, Geoffrey Wood, 2016-03-07 In the noise of the debate about the EU it is rare for fundamental questions to be asked For example for what purposes should we have international institutions at all Does the EU meet those purposes and if not is reform possible This book considers these questions An international team of renowned authors looks at each area of economic policy in which the EU has an interest as well as at the governing structures of the EU and asks what if anything the EU should be doing In most cases this is then compared with the status quo and against the possibility of Brexit in order to help the reader make a judgement in each policy area about which would be the best direction for Britain to take As well as providing a fine contribution to the Brexit debate the authors of this book provide a framework for evaluating the results of renegotiation together with a long term programme for reform The usefulness of this timely book will long outlive the referendum debate The book asks and answers the fundamental questions that are rarely considered by the political classes

"Hard Power" and the European Convention on Human Rights Peter Kempees, 2020-11-16 The European Convention on Human Rights is now crucial to decisions to be taken by the military and their political leaders in hard power situations that is classical international and non international armed conflict belligerent occupation peacekeeping and peace enforcing and anti terrorism and anti piracy operations but also hybrid warfare cyber attack and targeted assassination Guidance is needed therefore on how Convention law relates to these decisions That guidance is precisely what this book aims to offer It focuses primarily on States accountability under the Convention but also shows that human rights law used creatively can actually help States achieve their objectives

Hard Core Europe Ralph Niemeyer, 2008-02 Ralph T Niemeyer explains how our political theatre in reality functions Only by a media controlled by industries employing Lobbyists rather than Journalists is it possible to create a hype that may let a system that is that clearly governing directly against the interests of the people appear as being without an alternative the Author says and continues Berthold Brecht used to say on occasion of the tank encountered uprising of workers in Eastern Germany in 1957 that if the government was not pleased with it s people it did better to choose another people Given the fact that the majority of Europeans are potentially disenfranchised with the EU s economic course and way of executing social control by a harsh regime axing civil liberties Europeans once had been proud of one after the other Berthold Brecht s phrase could be filled with life rather soon
