Historical Dictionary of Judaism Norman Solomon, 2024-10-15 What we now call Judaism is the religion of the rabbis it is rooted in scripture the Hebrew Scriptures but it is not to be identified with Old Testament theology Judaism in its many manifestations has continued to evolve rereading its ancient texts and extracting new meaning while addressing contemporary issues such as the status of women and attitudes to sexual orientation History or rather our perception of it has changed substantially Previously unknown documents and artefacts have surfaced while scholars have proposed far reaching changes to the way we read and evaluate ancient texts Nowadays we have a more nuanced understanding of how to evaluate statements in the Talmud and other rabbinic writings and we are better able to contextualize them not only in Greco Roman antiquity but also in the Sasanian environment in which the Babylonian Talmud was formed Historical Dictionary of Judaism Fourth Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 800 cross referenced entries on on important personalities in Jewish religious history including biblical personalities with an emphasis on how they are understood in Jewish Christian and Islamic tradition This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Judaism

Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Amanullah De Soudy, Michelle A. Gonzalez, William S. Green, 2020-10-15 Judaism Christianity and Islam An Introduction to Monotheism shows how a shared monotheistic legacy frames and helps explain the commonalities and disagreements among Judaism Christianity and Islam and their significant denominations in the world today Taking a thematic approach and covering both historical and contemporary dimensions the authors discuss how contemporary geographic and cultural contexts shape the expression of monotheism in the three religions It covers differences between religious expressions in Israeli Judaism Latin American Christianity and British Islam Topics discussed include scripture creation covenant and identity ritual ethics peoplehood and community redemption salvation life after death gender sexuality and marriage This introductory text which contains over 30 images a map a timeline chapter afterthoughts and critical questions is written by three authors with extensive teaching experience each a specialist in one of the three monotheistic traditions

Judaism Oliver Leaman, 2010-11-25 The story of Judaism is a story of paradox It is the story of how a small cluster of desert tribes gave birth to a monotheistic doctrine that profoundly shaped the history of human civilization It is the story of how that initially obscure desert doctrine came to be codified into the Hebrew Bible one of the world's greatest works of literature It is the story of how a small minority came to be viewed by the majority as disproportionately powerful and following pogrom and Holocaust were driven to the edge of extinction And it is the story of how a displaced people globally dispersed throughout other nations for two and a half millennia came to forge a modern secular Israeli state which many Jews believe to have been granted an explicitly divine mandate Oliver Leaman carefully and creatively explores the nature of these apparent contradictions He discusses the origins of the Jewish Bible recounts the history of the Jewish people from the era of Patriarchs and Prophets through the Middle Ages up to the contemporary era outlines the Jewish liturgical calendar and its major rites and modes of worship and considers the great variety of Jewish literatures including modern post Holocaust writers like Primo Levi and Elie Wiesel art food and culture Further chapters examine such topics as mysticism and kabbalah modern Hebrew interfaith relations and the highly contested question Who is a Jew

The Oxford Handbook of Divine Revelation Balázs M. Mezei, Francesca Aran Murphy, Kenneth Oakes, 2021 This Handbook offers a systemic approach to the notion of revelation in its various theoretical contexts It provides in depth coverage of the theoretical and historical fields in which the notion of revelation is discussed

Christian Fruit--Jewish Root John D. Garr, 2015-04-13 Christian Fruit Jewish Root is an in depth scholarly examination of the Hebraic foundations of the major tenets and practices of Christianity This volume confirms the truth that the inherent Jewishness of the Christian faith is simply an undeniable historical and theological fact By evaluating Christian doctrine and polity through the Jewish mindset of Jesus and the apostles this book uncovers a veritable treasure of Hebraic truth For every authentic Christian fruit there is a Jewish toot This truth is demonstrated across a wide spectrum of theological truth including Scripture Messiah Salvation Faith Baptism Gospel Grace and Discipleship Christianity owes a profound debt of gratitude to the Jewish people and to biblical and Second Temple Judaism for the foundations of the truths and practices that it holds dear As you read this challenging informative and inspirational book you will be amazed at just how Jewish Christianity the other Jewish religion actually is

The Documentary History of Judaism and Its Recent Interpreters Jacob Neusner, 2012-07-10 The result for the history of Judaism of a documentary reading of the Rabbinic canonical sources illustrates the working of that hypothesis It is the first major outcome of that hypothesis but there are other implications and a variety of new problems emerge from time to time as the work proceeds In the recent past Neusner has continued to explore special problems of the documentary hypothesis of the Rabbinic canon At the same time Neusner notes others join in the discussion that have produced important and ambitious analyses of the thesis and its implications Here Neuser has collected some of the more ambitious ventures into the hypothesis and its current recapitulations Neusner begins with the article written by Professor William Scott Green for the Encyclopaedia Judaica second edition as Green places the documentary hypothesis into the context of Neusner's entire oeuvre Neuser then reproduces what he regards as the single most successful venture of the documentary hypothesis contrasting between the Mishnah s and the Talmuds programs for the social order of Israel the doctrines of economics politics and philosophy set forth in those documents respectively Then come the two foci of discourse Halakhah or normative law and Aggadah or normative theology Professors Bernard Jackson of the University of Manchester England and Mayer Gruber of Ben Gurion University of the Negev treat the Halakhic program that Neusner has devised and Kevin Edgecomb of the University of California Berkeley has produced a remarkable summary of the theological system Neusner discerns in the Aggadic documents Neusner concludes with a review of a book by a critic of the documentary hypothesis
