Royal Selangor Story:

The Royal Selangor Story May Yee Chen, 2003 The story of Royal Selangor is no ordinary corporate history Its humble beginnings and complicated evolution are closely entwined with Malaysia s remarkable social and economic transformation from British colonial days to the modern era

Wise Family Business Joachim Schwass, Anne-Catrin Glemser, 2016-08-18 Wise Family Business aims to help families in business to identify new and better ways of achieving longevity sustainability and performance The book presents ground breaking new insights and practical examples from a range of growing family businesses in which the owning families are visible and in most cases have branded the business with their family name This comprehensive and important study explores how family identity has the power to tie together families in business and leverage their values when developing and sharing the owner s vision with their stakeholder communities Developing a family business identity is key when building and managing an authentic recognizable and trusted brand It argues that family businesses that have successfully translated strong identities into strong brands are not only perceived as attractive employers but also add meaningful value to the business over generations

The Singapore Story: Memoirs of Lee Kuan Yew Lee Kuan Yew, 2012-09-15 The Singapore Story is the first volume of the memoirs of Lee Kuan Yew the man who planted the island state of Singapore firmly on the map of the world It was first published in 1999 In intimate detail Lee recounts the battles against colonialists communists and communalists that led to Singapore s independence With consummate political skill he countered adversaries sometimes enlisting their help at others opposing them in the single minded pursuit of Singapore s interests We read how he led striking unionists against the colonial government how over tea and golf he fostered ties with key players in Britain and Malaya of secret midnight meetings in badly lit rooms drinking warm Anchor beer with a communist underground leader of his purposeful forging of an alliance with communists to gain the support of the Chinese educated masses Readers will find inspiration in his tenacity as he fought for the people s hearts and minds against first the communists and later the communalists in parliament on the streets and through the media Drawing on unpublished Cabinet papers archives in Singapore Britain Australia New Zealand and the United States as well as personal correspondence he gives us a vivid picture of how others viewed him determined Lee will bluff bully and blackmail up to the eleventh hour motivated Choo knew I sweated blood to master Hokkien ambitious He would think himself as legitimate as I was to be the leader of Malaya dangerous Crush Lee Put him inside It is a sometimes controversial yet strangely consistent portrait of this Asian statesman These experiences and his dealings with the political leaders were to shape his views and policies which have had a major impact on Singapore and the region

Fatherless, to Father, Grandfather now Ir Yong Poh Kah, 2013-04-08 The Author seeks to trace his roots from the time the grandfather Yong Koon Seong born in 1871 China came to British Malaya in 1885 to join his two brothers to work as tinsmiths in Kuala Lumpur Yong Koon went back to China to seek a wife married Loh Pat but left when she was with child in 1905 In 1911 he went to China to bring back his wife and first born son Peng Pow the father of the author Another three sons were born Peng Sin 1914 Peng Kai 1915 and Peng Seong 1923 Initially Yong Koon and his family stayed with his brothers and families at their shop at Cross Street Kuala Lumpur Later the grandmother a shrewd and frugal businesslady saved enough to buy a 2 storey shop house at 219 Pudu Road which the whole family moved to Peng Pow was a good student who studied in MBSKL in the early years but transferred to Kajang High School where he sat for his Junior Cambridge Exams in 1922 Basing on his good scores he and another classmate Justice Tan Sri Datok Yong Shi Meow was asked by the school to sit for the Queen s Scholarship exams in 1924 Both were successful and offered scholarships to study in the United Kingdom but they had to buy their own steamboat tickets to UK Unfortunately PP s parents refused to give him the money for the ticket as they expected him being the first born son and out of filiality should stay behind to look after the parents and his 3 younger brothers Instead the parents gave him money to start an English language bookstore in a small room at the corner pawnshop along Yap Ah Loy street Phoenix Bookstore catered mainly for English businessmen planters and returning soldiers serving in British Malaya then By accident an English businessman aware that PP s father and uncles were tinsmiths suggested that he should experiment with the manufacture of pewter ware such as beer mugs cigarette cases candle holders vases ect for export to England and Europe where these were in demand and expensive After successfully producing some prototypes samples orders poured in and Malayan Pewter Works which PP started moved to 219 By then PP already married to his child bride bought into the Yong family in 1917 had 4 older children Woon Yin Poh Seong Siew Yin and Poh Fah With the assistance of the 3 younger brothers business picked up and PP even paid for the weddings of the two older ones However sometime in 1935 PP took a second wife and in 1939 told the father and brothers that he was moving away to a bigger premise at 4th Mile Cheras Road as his family was increasing and business expanding After a heated argument with his father and brothers Loh Pat already dead PP and his two wives and 12 children were asked to vacate the patriarch home of Yong Koon just after the fullmoon of the author Not long after Japan attacked Malaya on 10 Dec 1941 and occupied Malaya and Singapore on 15 February 1942 Tragically PP was murdered just 6 months or so before Japan surrendered after the dropping of the two atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki on 6th and 8th August 1945 The author s mother a widow with nine fatherless children was totally devastated penniless disdrought and through sheer endurance tremendous hardships sacrifices and deprivations finally saw her second last child the author graduate as an engineer in 1966 supported by scholarships in school and university

wreathed in vines and blooming gardens or feel the bone chilling embrace of harsh Arctic conditions What about the question of how a friendly tug of war brings out the hero in us What is it about dugongs fresh water and a god playing man made machine What if the ocean could truly speak and mythical beings are called into existence Let this book take you on that journey Epic Stories Mirela Roznoveanu,2020-06-21 What is the human being duty and what is the source of my restlessness of my metaphysical impatience Could it be that exile has made me a woman of no fixed abode These questions are coming from a woman with hybrid origins who lived in a communist dictatorship country fought injustice and censorship and was punished by the secret police was involved in Romania s 1989 Revolution witnessed the post communist nomenclature and secret police stealing back the country wrote the history of the world fiction a comparative study in Romanian at the age of 44 she left both her home and her language behind and settled into the US and into English as she saw herself as an exile not just from her country but from her mother tongue too founded GlobalLex an iconic research tool at the NYU School of Law Hauser Global Program and has collected multiple honors in Romania and in the US including Romania s Officer of the National Order for Faithful Service She uses her European literary references as an enhancement for her range of American tonalities The daughter of Hrisula Limona a woman belonging to an ancient Arm n Vlach clan from the Pindus Mountains and Iancu Roznowski of Polish descent whose ancestors once lived at the Imperial Court of Habsburgs in Vienna Mirela Roznoveanu was born on April 10 1947 in the Kingdom of Romania A few months later December 1947 the Communists forced Romania s King to abdicate and the country surrendered to the Communist USSR Mirela lives in many languages at once and multiple expressions of literary forms She is a cosmopolitan writer Her slogan is I am curious therefore I am For Mirela forgetting is an impossible task and she turns this inability into memorable stories Her knowledge of philosophy fiction writing literary criticism and theory is endlessly rich Mirela is not only a literary critic novelist and a poet but also a journalist and an intellectual with an incisive intelligence and a great sense of social justice Epic Stories gathers for the first time under the same covers all Mirela Roznoveanu s literary voices from poetry and literary criticism to journalism fiction and travel writing The reader becomes a witness and a participant into the making of a new life in exile and of the transformation of a foreign language into one that becomes part of the writer s native language Culture and Customs of Singapore and Malaysia Jaime Koh,Stephanie Ho Ph.D.,2009-06-22 Explore the contemporary culture and traditional customs of Singapore and Malaysia in a volume that belongs on shelves in every high school and public library Culture and Customs of Singapore and Malaysia examines all aspects of contemporary life in these two geographically close and historically and culturally connected nations starting with the people fighting to maintain a balance between the new and the traditional The book shows how religion has evolved through time in the two nations and examines how literature and traditional crafts thrive today It highlights the performing arts and entertainment noting how Western culture has influenced and shaped new customs Housing and architecture both modern and traditional are discussed along with cuisine and fashion

Students can use the book to analyze gender roles and family life They can also read about the ways in which festivals are celebrated and can compare and contrast leisure activities of Singapore and Malaysia with their own The volume concludes with a look to the future of these two evolving countries both moving toward modernity but still holding on to the traditions of the past

The British Empire through buildings John M. MacKenzie, 2020-03-09 Imperialism is strikingly represented in its buildings This work illuminates the dispersal of colonial culture and religious forms social classes and racial divisions over two centuries from the establishment of colonial rule to a post colonial world It will be a vital reading for all students of imperial history and global material culture Historical Dictionary of Malaysia Ooi Keat Gin, 2017-12-18

Malaysia is one of the most intriguing countries in Asia in many respects It consists of several distinct areas not only geographically but ethnically as well along with Malays and related groups the country has a very large Indian and Chinese population The spoken languages obviously vary at home although Bahasa Malaysia is the official language and nearly everyone speaks English There is also a mixture of religions with Islam predominating among the Malays and others Hinduism and Sikhism among the Indians mainly Daoism and Confucianism among the Chinese but also some Christians as well as older indigenous beliefs in certain places This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Malaysia contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Malaysia

The International Tin Cartel John Hillman, 2010-02-25 This book brings together two areas of inquiry the history of tin and its role in producing countries and the history of cartelization as a solution to the inherent difficulties of primary commodity markets
