Leonardo da Vinci - Nature and Architecture Constance Moffatt, Sara Tagliagamla, 2019-06-17 The second volume of Leonardo Studies explores a dual theme of nature and architecture offering a wide ranging overview of current Leonardo scholarship on these two abundant subjects While Leonardo worked on his Treatise on Painting he noted that understanding the physical properties of nature must precede individual projects of painting or designing buildings The volume begins with the Trattato and follows with physics geology painting that imitates architectural structure and vice versa and proceeds to architectural projects questions of attribution urban planning and and the dissemination of Leonardo's writings in the Trattato and its historiography This impressive group of articles constitutes not only new research but also a departure point for future studies on these topics Contributors are Janis Bell Andrea Bernardoni Marco Carpiceci Paolo Cavagnero Fabio Colonnese Kay Etheridge Diane Ghirardo Claudio Giorgione Domenico Laurenza Catherine Luchek Silvio Mara Jill Pederson Richard Schofield Sara Tagliagamla Cristiano Tessari Marco Versiero and Raffaella Zama Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing Catherine H. Lusheck, 2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re-examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens Flemish 1577 1640 in light of early modern traditions of eloquence particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius 1547 1606 Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist's approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period 1600 08 this volume highlights Rubens's high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing a Senecan approach to eclecticism a commitment to emulation and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles Two chapter-long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens's early practice of drawing Focusing on Rubens's Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children Los Angeles Getty Museum and Kneeling Man Rotterdam Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen these close looking case studies demonstrate Rubens's commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens's intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age "Rubens, Vel?uez, and the King of Spain " Larry Silver, 2017-07-05 This study provides a new analysis of the pictorial ensemble of the Torre de la Parada the hunting lodge of King Philip IV of Spain Created in the late 1630s by a group of artists led by Peter Paul Rubens this cycle of mythological imagery and hunting scenes was completed by Diego Velázquez. Despite the lack of a written program surviving, works provide eloquent testimony of several basic themes that embody Neostoic ideals of self-restraint and prudent governance. While Rubens set the moral tone through his serio-comic Ovidian narratives, Velázquez added an important grace note with his portraits of ancient philosophers and royals and fools of the court. This study is the first to consider in depth their joint artistic contributions and shared ambition. Through analysis of individual works, the authors situate these pictorial inventions within broader intellectual currents in both Spanish Flanders and Spain, especially in the advice literature and drama presented to the Spanish king. Moreover, they point to the lasting resonance of Torre de la Parada for Velázquez, especially within his late masterworks Las Meninas and Las Hilanderas. Ultimately, this study illuminates the dialogical nature of this ensemble in which Rubens and Velázquez offer a set of complementary views on subjects ranging from the nature of classical gods to the role of art as a mirror of the prince.
