Selected Strawberries and Other Poems Susan Musgrave, 1980
Musgrave, 1977 International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Literary History of Canada William H. New, Carl Berger, Alan Cairns, Frances G. Halpenny, Henry Kreisel, Douglas Lochhead, Philip Stratford, Clara Thomas, 1990-12-15 This new volume of the Literary History of Canada covers the continuing development of English Canadian writing from 1972 to 1984 As with the three earlier volumes this book is an invaluable guide to recent developments in English Canadian literature and a resource for both the general reader and the specialist researcher The contributors to this volume are Laurie Ricou David Jackel Linda Hutcheon Philip Stratford Barry Cameron Balachandra Rajan Robert Fothergill Brian Parker Cynthia Zimmerman Frances Frazer Edith Fowke Bruce G Trigger Alan C Cairns Douglas Williams Carl Berger Shirley Neuman Raymond S Corteen and Frances G Halpenny Cargo of Orchids Susan Musgrave, 2011-09-21 Susan Musgrave's bestselling third novel Cargo of Orchids examines the life of a woman on death row in the United States Our narrator recalls what brought her to this place where she awaits the last of her appeals We learn that along with her cellmates Frenchy and Rainy this Mother Without a Heart otherwise known as the Cocaine Queen has been sentenced to death for the crime of killing her child Unlike the others the narrator has not had a life marked by abuse and hardship When her story begins she is translating a book about the kidnapping of a woman connected to a drug cartel At the book launch she meets her husband to be a lawyer When their marriage fizzles out she falls in love with one of his clients Angel a Colombian from a drug cartel family imprisoned in British Columbia on a drug smuggling charge Pregnant the narrator is taken hostage by Angel's wife to a hot and squalid island off the coast of Colombia in an atmosphere of extreme violence she is fed drugs until she becomes addicted to cocaine and useless to her child When she winds up on death row it is because the evidence in her trial suggests she sacrificed her baby for drugs Her narrative violent and bizarre but also riveting and erotic runs parallel to an account of life in Death Clinic at the Heaven Valley State Facility for Women A moving story emerges of the friendship of three female inmates who share only the fact that they each have a date with the executioner There is humour and emotion in their lives however harsh their stories When Musgrave was asked how humour finds its way into such an unlikely place she replied It's a survival technique People make jokes when they survive tragedies that's how they deal with the world In this novel about prison and drug culture filled with brutality and injustices the compassion we feel for the narrator lends the story a moral message that nobody is so simply bad as to deserve the death sentence As the Gazette commented the book puts a human face on convicted criminals makes us face squarely the issue of capital punishment and assess how we judge guilt innocence and the ambiguous space in between The Calgary Straight called the book a love letter to those who are serving time and the families who serve with them It's also a book about unconditional love and how far we will go for it according to Musgrave who spent eight years writing this novel and knows plenty about prison life having met and married her husband Stephen Reid during his incarceration in the 1980s She had just finished a draft of the novel when Reid was arrested again following a bank robbery in 1999 just months after the CBC aired a Life and Times documentary about the couple A brilliant mix of black humour stark tragedy and poignant humanity Cargo of Orchids is Musgrave s first novel in over ten years She has three times been nominated for the Governor General s Award once for fiction The Charcoal Burners and twice for poetry A Man to Marry a Man to Bury and Grave Dirt and Selected Strawberries and has published over twenty books She likes novels with intense use of language and good plotting I want to give readers a harrowing ride she says I like to think of Cargo of Orchids as a suspense novel which is also an exploration of the heart What the Small Day Cannot Hold Susan

Musgrave,2000-04-16 These poems reconstitute the lost canon of one of our most vibrant and original voices Musgrave explodes expectations and haunts the reader with dramatic appeal Exculpatory Lilies Susan Musgrave,2022-09-06 2023 Governor General s Literary Award for Poetry Finalist 2023 Griffin Poetry Prize Finalist A Globe and Mail Top 100 Book 2022 Walcott Prize Shortlist From the award winning poet known for her bracing honesty and sharp yet compassionate gaze here is a new collection of poems that explore life marriage addiction death and heart wrenching grief If grief is the willingness to be claimed by a story bigger than ourselves Susan Musgrave writes in that tender wavering I let grief in Writing about grief or tragedy is tricky Hard to meet it at a heart level without being effusive hard to meet it at a brain level without being cold Hard not to make it about ourselves Hard to meet it at a visceral level because it can take us out at the knees wrote author Carrie Mac responding to the death of Musgrave s partner Stephen Reid in 2018 Following this traumatic loss in September 2021 their daughter Sophie died of an accidental overdose after a twenty year struggle with addiction But to say this is a collection solely about grief would be to miss the whole nature of Musgrave s voice and sensibility Wit is one counterpoint the natural world is another The poems share a landscape whose creatures minutely observed wild and tame the winged ones most of all dance attendance on the helplessness of our brief and mystifying human lives Throughout Exculpatory Lilies Musgrave s alertness to even the most desolate places makes her personal sorrows astonishingly potent and her scrutiny of language and emotions makes shot silk out of sackcloth and ashes International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa

Publications,2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets The Literary Legacy of the Macmillan Company of Canada Ruth Panofsky,2012-01-30 Fifth Business and Alligator Pie Stephen Leacock Grey Owl and Morley Callaghan these treasured Canadian books and authors were all nurtured by the Macmillan Company of Canada one of the country s foremost twentieth century publishing houses The Literary Legacy of the Macmillan Company of Canada is a unique look at the contribution of publishers and editors to the formation of the Canadian literary canon Ruth Panofsky s study begins in 1905 with the establishment of Macmillan Canada as a branch plant to the company s London office While concentrating on the firm s original trade publishing which had considerable cultural influence Panofsky underscores the fundamental importance of educational titles to Macmillan's financial profile The Literary Legacy of the Macmillan Company of Canada also illuminates the key individuals including Hugh Eayrs John Gray and Hugh Kane whose personalities were as fascinating as those of the authors they published and whose achievements helped to advance modern literature in Canada

Origami Dove Susan Musgrave, 2011-03-29 The first collection of new poems in more than a decade from one of Canada's most vibrant and original writers With her first major collection in ten years Susan Musgrave displays a range of form and expression that may surprise even her most faithful readers The quiet lapidary elegies of Obituary of Light are set against the furious mischief of Random Acts of Poetry where the lines move with the inventive energy of a natural storyteller while Heroines wrests a harsh and haunting poetry from the language of the street Her alertness to the absurdity in even the most heartbreaking personal crises leavens the sorrow that speaks through so many of the poems Sadness and levity interweave The wilderness and the penitentiary reflect one another There's an underlying tenderness though whether she is writing about family the dispossessed her life on Haida Gwaii or the vagaries of love This is Susan Musgrave in full control of her powers writing poetry that cuts right to the bone

A Native Heritage Leslie Monkman, 1981-12-15 Disparity and division in religion technology and ideology have characterized relations between English Canadian and Indian cultures through out Canada's history From the earliest declaration of white territorial ownership to the current debate on aboriginal rights red man and white man have had opposing principles and perspectives The most common solutions imposed on these conflicts by white men have relegated the Indian to the fringes of white society and consciousness This survey of English Canadian literature is the first comprehensive examination of a tradition in which white writers turn to the Indian and his culture for standards and models by which they can measure their own values and goals for patterns of cultural destruction transformation and survival and for sources of native heroes and indigenous myths Leslie Monkman examines images of the Indian as they appear in works ranging from Robert Rogers Ponteach or The Savages of America 1766 to Robertson Davies Pontiac and the Green Man 1977 demonstrating how English Canadian writers have illuminated their own world through reference to Indian culture The Indian has been seen as an antagonist as a superior alternative as a member of a vanishing and lamented race and as a hero and the source of the new myths Although white Indian tension often lies in apparently irreconcilable opposites Monkman finds in the literature surveyed complementary images reflecting a common humanity This is an important contribution to a hitherto unexplored area of Canadian literature in English which should give rise to further elaboration of this major theme
