On Poetry and Craft Theodore Roethke, 2013-07-01 One of the virtues of good poetry is the fact that it irritates the mediocre Theodore Roethke was one of the most famous and outspoken poets and poetry teachers this country has ever known In this volume of selected prose Roethke articulates his commitments to imaginative possibilities offers tender advice to young writers and zings darts at stuffed shirts lightweights and fools Art is our defense against hysteria and death With the assistance of Roethke's widow this volume has been edited to include the finest selections from out of print collections of prose and journal entries Focused on the making and teaching of poetry On Poetry and Craft will be prized in the classroom and outrageous Roethke quotes will once again pepper our conversations You must believe a poem is a holy thing a good poem that is Theodore Roethke was of an illustrious generation of poets which included Sexton Plath Lowell Berryman and like them he received nearly every major award in poetry including the Pulitzer Prize and twice the National Book Award In spite of his fame he remained a legendary teacher known for the care and attention he gave to his students poets such as James Wright Carolyn Kizer Tess Gallagher and Richard Hugo Roethke died on August 1 1963 while swimming in a friend's pool But before I'm reduced to an absolute pulp by my own ambivalence I must say goodbye The old lion perisheth Nymphs I wish you the swoops of many fish May your search for the abiding be forever furious On Poetry and Craft I am overwhelmed by the beautiful disorder of poetry the eternal virginity of words The poem even a short time after being written seems no miracle unwritten it seems something beyond the capacity of the gods We can't escape what we are and I'm afraid many of my notions about verse I haven't too many have been conditioned by the fact that for nearly 25 years I've been trying to teach the young something about the nature of verse by writing it and that with very little formal knowledge of the subject or previous instruction So it's going to be like Sir Philip Sidney Philip Sidney, 1983 An anthology grounded in the historic and aesthetic context of a crucial figure in 16th century English literature Selected Prose and Poetry Sir Walter Raleigh, 1969 Selected Prose and Poetry Jonathan Swift, 1963 Selected Prose Louis Simpson, 1989 A collection of prose including excerpts from the author's novels letters and literary criticism Dust jacket Selected Prose and Prose-Poems Gabriela Mistral, Stephen Tapscott, 2002 The first Latin American to receive a Nobel Prize for Literature the Chilean writer Gabriela Mistral 1889-1957 is often characterized as a healing maternal voice who spoke on behalf of women indigenous peoples the disenfranchised children and the rural poor She is that political poet and more a poet of philosophical meditation self-consciousness and daring This is a book full of surprises and paradoxes The complexity and structural boldness of these prose poems especially the female erotic prose pieces of her first book make them an important moment in the history of literary modernism in a tradition that runs from Baudelaire the North American moderns and the South American postmodernists It's a book that will be eye-opening and informative to the general reader as well as to students of gender studies cultural studies literary history and poetry This Spanish-English bilingual volume gathers the most famous and representative prose writings of Gabriela Mistral which have not been as readily available to English only readers as her poetry The pieces are grouped into four sections Fables Elegies and Things of the Earth includes fifteen of Mistral s most accessible prose poems Prose and Prose Poems from Desolaci n Desolation 1922 presents all the prose from Mistral s first important book Lyrical Biographies are Mistral s poetic meditations on Saint Francis and Sor Juana de la Cruz Literary Essays Journalism Messages collects pieces that reveal Mistral s opinions on a wide range of subjects including the practice of teaching the writers Alfonso Reyes Alfonsina Storni Rainer Maria Rilke and Pablo Neruda Mistral s own writing practices and her social beliefs Editor translator Stephen Tapscott rounds out the volume with a chronology of Mistral s life and a brief introduction to her career and prose      Selected prose and poetry Elena Guro,1988      Sidelines Michael Longley,2017

Michael Longley s prose centers on poetry This is so even when he is writing autobiographically or reflecting on war and memory or enthusing about music and painting Since Longley writes relatively little criticism readers of his poetry have lacked access to his aesthetic thinking Sidelines fills the gap by assembling prose that ranges from his often combative youthful poetry reviews to the lectures he gave as Ireland Professor of Poetry Among the poets Longley discusses are Homer Propertius Louis MacNeice Robert Graves James Wright Ian Hamilton Finlay and Ruth Stone Sidelines which includes interviews with Longley not only illuminates his own work Longley s perspectives on modern poetry are both distinctive and important He is also uniquely qualified to interpret the phenomenon of poetry from Northern Ireland      Paper Trail Richard Howard,2005-10-12 Richard Howard has been writing stylish deeply informed commentary on modern culture and literature for more than four decades Here is a selection of his finest essays including some never before published in book form on a splendid range of subjects from American poets like Emily Dickinson and Marianne Moore to French artists such as Rodin and Michel Delacroix Also included are considerations of modern sculpture and of the photography of the human body Howard s intense familiarity with modern poetry is seen to excellent effect in essays on the poetry of forgetting on the causes and effects of experimental poetry and on the first books of poets whose work he helped introduce among them J D McClatchy Frank Bidart and Cynthia MacDonald Of course Howard brings to his consideration of French literature a rare wisdom drawn from his celebrated work as a translator of Stendhal and Gide Barthes and Cocteau Yourcenar and Gracq Hilton Kramer once wrote that Richard Howard performs the essential critical service He shows us the extent of the terrain He points out its essential features And he gives us a very vivid sense of its ethos as well as of its esthetics Howard now in his seventy fifth year continues his adroit inventive commentary which enriches us all      Selected Prose John Milton,1974

Paths in Dreams Qifang He,1976      Blood, Bread, and Poetry: Selected Prose 1979-1985 Adrienne Rich,1994-07-17 That Adrienne Rich is a not only a major American poet but an incisive compelling prose writer is made clear once again by this collection in which she continues to explore the social and political context of her life and art Examining the connections between history and the imagination ethics and action she explores the possible meanings of being white female lesbian

Jewish and a United States citizen both at this particular time and through the lens of the past
