Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1918 Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007 ,2008-02 Regulating Marriage Migration into the UK Dr Helena Wray,2013-02-28 Marriage migration is a controversial and problematic issue in the UK as elsewhere in Europe This timely analysis is a comprehensive examination of the regulation of marriage migration into the UK With international relevance the book uses the analysis to examine the relationship between government priorities and the dynamics of transnational family life The book is one of the first to scrutinise the control of UK marriage migration after 1997 and explores the dilemmas faced by the post 1997 government in managing this form of migration in a changed domestic and international environment Using high quality sources from across the political spectrum it analyses regulatory decisions made by government the judiciary and the visa service and suggests that there is an unofficial and unarticulated hierarchy predicated on assumptions and beliefs about acceptable marriages Finally the book establishes a principled basis for the future regulation of marriage migration The Athenaeum ,1909 Moses and God in Dialogue Karla R. Suomala,2004 In Exodus 32 34 through a series of dialogues Moses persuades God to spare the Israelites from destruction after they have made and worshipped a golden calf The significance of this passage was not lost on ancient interpreters At the heart of their concerns was the relationship between Moses and God as well as the extent to which the Divine could be swayed by human reason and passion For some the idea that God could be moved by human efforts was welcome providing hope in difficult times For others it was alarming after all God was not only supposed to be all powerful but immune to change This book evaluates the ancient reworkings of these dialogues translations rewritten Bible Midrash and Targum in light of the difference in power and position between Moses and God and its influences on the form of their communication The American Missionary ,1871 Vols 13 62 include abridged annual reports and proceedings of the annual meetings of the American Missionary Association 1869 1908 v 38 62 include abridged annual reports of the Society s Executive committee 1883 84 1907 1908 The Oak Leaves Maureen Lang,2011-08-05 The two time periods of Regency England and contemporary Chicago are interwoven when Talie Ingram finds her great great great grandmother s journal and discovers that her family was once considered cursed as a result of a genetic disorder The American Tyler-keystone ,1894 Narrating Marriage in Eighteenth-Century England and France Chris Roulston,2016-04-22 In the eighteenth century when the definition of marriage was shifting from one based on an hierarchical model to one based on notions of love and mutuality marital life came under a more intense cultural scrutiny This led to paradoxical forms of representation of marriage as simultaneously ideal and unlivable Chris Roulston analyzes how as representations of married life increased they challenged the traditional courtship model offering narratives based on repetition rather than progression Beginning with English and French marital advice literature which appropriated novelistic conventions at the same time that it cautioned readers about the dangers of novel reading she looks at representations of ideal marriages in Pamela II and The New Heloise Moving on from these ideal domestic spaces bourgeois marriage is then problematized by the discourse of empire in Sir George Ellison and Letters of Mistress Henley by troublesome wives in works by Richardson and Samuel de Constant and by abusive husbands in works by Haywood Edgeworth Genlis and Restif de la Bretonne Finally the alternative marriage narrative in which the adultery motif is incorporated into the marriage itself redefines the function of heteronormativity In exploring the theoretical issues that arise during this transitional period for married life and the marriage plot Roulston expands the debates around the evolution of the modern couple Living Liturgy Joyce Ann Zimmerman, Christopher W.
