Lords 1946 197:

The Indian Nationalist Movement 1885-1947: Select Documents NA NA,2015-12-22 The Indian Nationalist Movement, 1885-1947 Bishwa Nath Pandey,1979 Previous control number ISBN 0 333 23707 2 To Serve the Enemy Shane Darcy,2019-09-26 A constant yet oftentimes concealed practice in war has been the use of informers and collaborators by parties to an armed conflict Despite the prevalence of such activity and the serious and at times fatal consequences that befall those who collaborate with an enemy international law applicable in times of armed conflict does not squarely address the phenomenon The recruitment use and treatment of informers and other collaborators is addressed only partially and at times indirectly by international humanitarian law In this book Shane Darcy examines the development and application of the relevant rules and principles of the laws of armed conflict in relation to collaboration With a primary focus on international humanitarian law as may be applicable to various forms of collaboration the book also offers an assessment of the relevance of international human rights law The Law Lords Alan Paterson,1983-09-01 Britain and America After World War II Richard Wevill,2012-05-15 The period immediately after World War II was a vital one for diplomatic relations and with the Soviet Union emerging as a new superpower it was particularly important for Britain s relations with America This is the first book to focus on the role of the British Embassy in Washington during this period According to Richard Wevill the British Embassy was pivotal in the fulfilment of key British foreign financial and imperial policy objectives Applying the implications of new archival material to the turning points of the period including a detailed review of Lord Halifax s ambassadorship under Attlee a re evaluation of the part of Roger Makins in the atomic energy discussions and the Embassy s influence in relation to Palestine Wevill argues for a more nuanced understanding of the special relationship in its most formative period He offers a recasting of a crucial period of twentieth century history providing fascinating new detail on Britain s relations with President Truman as well as with Secretaries of State George Marshall and Dean Acheson Charting the beginnings of one of modern history s most influential alliances this book will be a primary reference point for students and scholars of History the Cold War Politics and International Relations The Parliamentary Debates (official Report[s]) ... Great Britain. Parliament,1869 The Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Parliament,1869 The Collected Works of Mahatma Gandhi Mahatma Gandhi,2000 Literary Afterlife Bernard A. The Changing Nature of Customary International Law Noora Arajärvi,2014-04-24 This book examines the evolution of customary international law CIL as a source of international law Using the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia ICTY as a key case study the book explores the importance of CIL in the development of international criminal law and focuses on the ways in which international criminal tribunals can be said to change the ways in which CIL is formed and identified In doing so the book surveys the process and substance of CIL as well as the problematic distinction between the elements of state practice and opinio juris By applying an inclusive positivist approach Noora Araj rvi analyses the methodologies of identification of CIL in selected cases of the ICTY and their normative foundations Through examination of the case law and the reasoning of courts and tribunals Araj rvi demonstrates to what extent the court s chosen method of identification of CIL affects the process of custom formation and the resulting system of norms in general The book will be of great value to researchers and scholars of international law international relations and practitioners with interests in customary international law Hansard's Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Parliament,1887 Hansard's Parliamentary Debates ,1869 Parliamentary Debates ,1869 Cobbett's Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Parliament,1887 Syama Prasad Mookerjee, the Hindu Dissent and the Partition of Bengal, 1932-1947 Chhanda Chatterjee,2020-06-14 This study on Dr Syama Prasad Mookerjee will help the readers understand the circumstances under which he assumed the leading role in the carving out the province of West Bengal from the littoral that was soon to become the province of East Pakistan The role of Dr Syama Prasad Mookerjee in demanding the separation of the Hindu majority districts in the western half of Bengal from the proposed East Pakistan has not been studied so far or documented The Right historians today try to view it as a great triumph for the Hindus while Secular ones try to paint Syama Prasad as an arch communalist Underlying both versions of the story is an assumption that the partition of Bengal was a much sought after goal pursued by Syama Prasad Yet an impassioned examination of the actual documents show that Syama Prasad tried to work out a formula for the co existence of the Hindus and the Muslims till the very last Only when all attempts including that of Mahatma Gandhi in the dark days of the Noakhali riots failed to dissuade the Muslim League from trying to push the subcontinent towards partition that Syama Prasad launched his drive for the separation of the western districts of Bengal from East Pakistan Partition was the bane of the Hindu Mahasabha They had called a hartal on 3 July 1947 to register their disapproval of the idea But once partition gained acceptance at all levels beginning from the Congress to the Viceroy Lord Mountbatten Syama Prasad saw no alternative to making the best of a bad bargain and pushed for partition The bloodbath of 16 August 1946 in Calcutta and the reprehensible violation of Hindu women in Noakhali the following October cast the die He took a leaf out of Master Tara Singh s plans in the Punjab for the regrouping of the provinces by isolating the non Muslim population from the Muslim majority zones The Congress Working Committee took the same line passing a resolution on 8 March 1947 in favour of the isolation of the non Muslim areas in the Punjab from the predominantly Muslim ones This strengthened Syama Prasad s case for the partition of Bengal However this was a last resort measure failing all other options Please note This title is co published with Manohar Publishers Delhi Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Conquest of violence : the Gandhian philosophy of conflict ; [a penetrating analysis of techniques of non-violent action] Joan V.

communal ones The focus is on three major communal riots that the province witnessed the Dacca Riots 1941 the Great Calcutta Killings August 1946 and the Noakhali Riots October 1946 This book moves beyond the binary understanding of communalism as Hindu versus Muslim and looks at the caste politics in the province and offers a complete understanding of the 1940s before partition Village Housing in the Tropics Jane Drew, Maxwell Fry, Harry L Ford, 2013-11-26 Tropical Architecture although now a highly contested and debated term is the name given to European modern architecture that has been modified to suit the climatic and sometimes cultural context of hot countries These hot countries were labelled the tropics and were often European colonies or countries that had recently won their independence Fry Drew's book written on the threshold of the end of the British Empire was one of the first publications to offer practical advice to architects working in the tropics based on the empirical studies they conducted whilst based in British West Africa during the Second World War The book with its numerous illustrations plans and easy to follow explanations became a key manual for all architects working in hot climates and in particular those tasked with designing dwellings and small town plans Although the Royal Engineers and Schools of Tropical Medicine had long been designing and campaigning for better planning improved sanitation and had for example developed methods of cross ventilation this book became an instant hit Tropical Architecture suddenly bloomed into its own distinct canon and by 1955 the Architectural Association had set up a course specialising in tropical architecture led for a short time by Fry Village Housing in the Tropics had a significant impact when it was written on a profession that had had little guidance on working in hot climates and on architecture students and universities who began to modify their courses to accommodate different conditions Although from a post colonial perspective many scholars now associate this architecture as being a continuation of the Imperial mission this does not reduce the significance of the publication Indeed Tropical Architecture is regarded as being the forerunner to green architecture developing passive low energy buildings that are tailored to suit their climate and built with local materials The Parliamentary Debates from the Year 1803 to the Present Time, 1869
