through a saturated world of bizarre vegetation fantastically contorted slime coated trees and deep white mud a world dominated by bushmaster snakes scorpions and giant bird eating spiders This wasn't the end of it however The stately prow itself posed extreme technical complications the rock was streaming with water and the few and far between ledges were teeming with scorpion haunted bromeliads This was not a challenge to be taken lightly However if anyone was going to do it it was going to be this group of UK climbing pioneers backed by The Observer supported by the Guyanan Government and accompanied by a BBC camera team their mission was very much in the public eye Climb to the Lost World is a story of discovering an alien world of tortured rock formations sunken gardens and magnificent waterfalls combined with the trials and tribulations of day to day expedition life MacInnes dry humour and perceptive observations of his companions flora and fauna relay the story of this first ascent with passion and in true explorer style The Lost Worlds of Rhodes Nathan Shachar,2013 Focuses on the Sephardi community Spanish speaking Jews who arrived in Rhodes sometime after the Spanish expulsion edict of 1492 and who remained the largest single group within the old city walls until Italy adopted German racial legislation in 1938 The Lost World of DeMille John Kobal,2019-10-25 Longlisted for the 2020 Moving Image Book Award by the Kraszna Krausz Foundation As only an accomplished author consummate collector and savvy insider can John Kobal tells the story of the man who invented Hollywood Cecil Blount DeMille 1881-1959 Kobal narrates the story of DeMille's life and follows the director's career from his first film The Squaw Man in 1914 through the seventy films he directed culminating with The Ten Commandments in 1956 before his death in 1959 Even that first film received an enthusiastic response from the public and that popular enthusiasm would follow DeMille throughout his career DeMille got his start by observing a film being shot once standing for hours on a box looking through a window watching every move made by the director players and cameraman From that humble beginning he soon mastered the craft of directing and created one of show business's greatest careers Autocrat and artist DeMille immersed himself totally in each picture he directed and demanded complete fealty from his casts and crews DeMille was said to know more about what the American public wanted than anyone else in Hollywood He pushed the boundaries of censorship and audiences responded by forming long lines at the box office From the American West to ancient Egypt he created such magical films as The Crusades and The Greatest Show on Earth that brought vividly to life fantasies perfectly suited to post World War I and mid century America Kobal describes DeMille's impact on Hollywood as a director and showman He argues that this master filmmaker stands for something largely lost in American filmmaking a sort of naive generous big thinking self confidence a belief that all things are possible John Kobal wrote over thirty books on film and photography His final manuscript The Lost World of DeMille was completed shortly before his death in 1991 It is published at last by University Press of Mississippi The Land of Lost Gods Ahmet Ümit,2024-11-20 That is why I shall begin in the place you thought you had forgotten Those that forget shall pay the price for forgetting Those that did not show due respect shall be rewarded with the severest of punishments those that tore me from
