Lost Pals! Dean Davies, 2014-10-13 Dean Rhys or Taff to his mates has been AWOL from the British army, done a bunk for quite some time now along with his ex-recce team. What was left of them. Most of his recce team had died in the last adventure they had gotten mixed up in which had forced them to abscond from the British army. There were only three of them left now: Dean Rhys, Taff, Moose and Dunc. A while ago whilst they were serving in Bosnia in the reconnaissance platoon they were following orders to set up an ambush coordinated and lead by a drunken platoon sergeant who had taken over instead of the platoon commander. Things went wrong. Their own ambush got ambushed. The team got involved with taking a hell of a large amount of silver bullion from the Serbs after some suspicious ugly killings. The UN went mad, international embarrassment occurred. The silver bullion was sneaked back to the UK, the platoon's corrupt platoon sergeant double crosses the recce team. Somehow the IRA got involved and the recce team decides to go AWOL to sort out the problems their own way. The team is hunted down by government agents across international waters. The team got away with it. They managed to escape on a high class boat to Brazil, captained by Dunk's uncle, another dodgy character. Dean has a female partner called Carmem, originally born in Brazil, she came to the UK a long while ago. Dean and Carmem both had their identities changed completely with the help of Brazilian black market friends. With all the money from the mission cleaned up and changed into a lot of different currencies, they both took over a local café. It was Carmem's dream. Dean and Carmem go off cruising around the world on their posh boat and their share of the money from the silver bullion. Dean's pal Duncan, after he has his identity changed, decides to drive round Brazil with his girlfriend. They decide to check out the Brazilian Amazon rain forest and go missing in there. Moose receives a coded message on his secure pager, Dunc asking for help. Dunc's vehicle found in the Amazon River. No bodies are found, there are strange tribal arrows in the tyres. Moose sends me a text on my pager asking for help. It takes too long to get back to Brazil on our boat. Moose had already left in search of Dunc. Carmem gets me help to find my pals. Three ex-soldiers from the Brazilian armed forces. I set off to the Amazon rain forest to find my lost pals.

Lost Face Jack London, 1910 Lost Face is a collection of seven short stories by Jack London. It takes its name from the first short story in the book about a European adventurer in the Yukon who outwits his Indian captors' plans to torture him. This collection includes London's best known short story To Build a Fire. It tells the story of a new traveler in the Klondike who ignores warnings about traveling alone and whose life depends on the ability to build a fire.

Scribners Monthly, 1878 Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine ..., 1878

Buffalo Girls Larry McMurtry, 2010-06-01 A strange old woman caked in Montana mud pens a letter to her darling daughter back East; the writer's name is Martha Jane but her friends call her Calamity. I am the Wild West no show about it. I was one of the people who kept it wild. Larry McMurtry returns to the territory of his Pulitzer Prize winning masterwork Lonesome Dove to sing the song of Calamity Jane's last ride. In a letter to her daughter back East, Martha Jane is not shy about her own importance. Martha Jane, better known as Calamity, is just one of the handful of aging legends who travel to London as part of Buffalo Bill Cody's Wild West Show in Buffalo Girls. As he describes the insatiable curiosity of Calamity's Indian friend No-Ears, Annie Oakley's shooting match with Lord Windhouveren and other highlights of the tour, McMurtry turns the story of a band of hardy irrepressible survivors into an unforgettable portrait of love, fellowship, dreams, and heartbreak.

Lost Cove, North Carolina Christy A. Smith, 2021-12-13 Located just seconds from the winding Tennessee border, the remote mountain settlement of Lost Cove, North Carolina, was once described as where the moonshiner frolics unmolested. Today, Lost Cove is a ghost town accessible mainly to hikers hoping to catch a glimpse of the desolate settlement. In this first historically comprehensive book on Lost Cove, the author paints a portrait of an isolated yet thriving settlement that survived for almost one hundred years. From its founding before the Civil War to the town's ultimate decline, Lost Cove's history is an in-depth account of family life and kinship in isolation. The author explores historically relevant interviews and genealogical findings from railroad documents, old newspaper articles, church records, and deeds. Also included are oral histories that provide authentic conversational accounts from families in the cove.

Lost and Found Jamey Glasnovic, 2014 For many people moving to a mountain town is the realization of a dream, the final step in a pilgrimage to a relaxed lifestyle in a rugged and beautiful setting. For Jamey, the long journey began when he was a teenager in the 1980s with the vague idea there might be a better life somewhere out West. Eventually, he fled the chaos and stress of the big city and tried to settle into an uncomplicated Rocky Mountain existence. It wouldn't stay uncomplicated for long. A spirited amble by bicycle and on foot, inspired by the work of Bill Bryson, this explores the heart of the Rocky Mountain Parks and examines the consequences of celebrating that beauty too effectively with mass tourism and over-ambitious development. Eschewing the convenience of motorized transportation, Glasnovic earns every kilometre that passes beneath his feet, and along the way, he learns a thing or two about feeling profoundly connected to place, an experience some would describe as being home.
