Whitehead's Radically Different Postmodern Philosophy David Ray Griffin, 2012-02-01 Postmodern philosophy is often dismissed as unintelligible self contradictory and as a passing fad with no contribution to make to the problems faced by philosophers in our time While this characterization may be true of the type of philosophy labeled postmodern in the 1980s and 1990s David Ray Griffin argues that Alfred North Whitehead had formulated a radically different type of postmodern philosophy to which these criticisms do not apply Griffin shows the power of Whitehead's philosophy in dealing with a range of contemporary issues the mind body relation ecological ethics truth as correspondence the relation of time in physics to the irreversible time of our lives and the reality of moral norms He also defends a distinctive dimension of Whitehead's postmodernism his theism against various criticisms including the charge that it is incompatible with relativity theory

Partakers of the Divine Jacob Holsinger Sherman, 2014-04-01 An extended essay in contemplative philosophy the meeting of mystical and philosophical theology Partakers of the Divine shows that Christian philosophical and contemplative practices arose together and that throughout much of Christian history philosophy theology and contemplation remained internal to one another Further the relation of philosophy theology and contemplation to one another is of more than antiquarian interest for it provides theologians and
