The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth-century French Literature Alison Siân James, 2020 Studying works by authors including Gide Breton Aragon Yourcenar Duras and Modiano this volume re thinks twentieth century French literature and engages with the question of distinctions between the factual and the fictional Photo-textualities Marsha Bryant, 1996 This anthology investigates books that juxtapose photographs and written language photo texts considering a variety of examples from America Britain Canada and France Ranging from Nathaniel Hawthorne's The Marble Faun to Michael Ondaatje's postmodern novel Coming Through Slaughter and Edward Said's postdocumentary After the Last Sky the contributors analyses address photo textuality's implications for representation and its cultural contexts A truly interdisciplinary collection Photo Textualities features contributors who work in literary studies English romance languages as well as contributors who work in media studies film graphic arts Photo Textualities invigorates critical inquiry with its range of literary and photographic genres including photo texts that elude genre classification Besides documentary and biography nonfiction literary genres include autobiography and travelogue The range of photographic genres extends to landscapes portraiture documentary tourist snapshots and media images as well as to the standard photo textual forms of published album and photo essay BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Nadja André Breton, 1960 Nadja originally published in France in 1928 is the first and perhaps best Surrealist romance ever written a book which defined that movement's attitude toward everyday life The principal narrative is an account of the author's relationship with a girl in the city of Paris the story of an obsessional presence haunting his life The first person narrative is supplemented by forty four photographs which form an integral part of the work pictures of various surreal people places and objects which the author visits or is haunted by in Nadja's presence and which inspire him to meditate on their reality or lack of it The Nadja of the book is a girl but like Bertrand Russell's definition of electricity as not so much a thing as a way things happen Nadja is not so much a person as the way she makes people behave She has been described as a state of mind a feeling about reality k a kind of vision and the reader sometimes wonders whether she exists at all yet it is Nadja who gives form and structure to the novel Light Writing & Life Writing Timothy Dow Adams, 2000 On the surface the use of photography in autobiography appears to have a straightforward purpose to illustrate and corroborate the text But in the wake of poststructuralism the role of photography in autobiography is far from simple or one dimensional

Surrealism, Politics and Culture Raymond Spiteri, Donald Lacoss, 2020-03-18 This title was first published in 2003 Drawing on literary art historical and historical studies this essay collection explores the complex encounter between culture and politics within Surrealism The Surrealist movement was one of the first cultural movements to question explicitly the relation between culture and politics and its attempt to fuse social and cultural revolution has been a critical factor in shaping our sense of modernity This anthology addresses not only the contested ground between culture and politics within

Surrealism itself and within the subsequent historical accounts of the movement but also the broader implications of this encounter on our own sense of modernity Its goal is to delineate the role of radical politics in shaping the historical trajectory of Surrealism

Wandering Women in French Film and Literature Mariah Devereux Herbeck, 2013-10-02 How and when can a narrative agent or voice be considered unreliable What happens when narrative authority fails and just as importantly why does it As a means to answering these questions Wandering Women in French Film and Literature examines the phenomenon of narrative drift through in depth analysis of twentieth century novels and films

Philosophy of Meaning II Geoffroy de Clisson, 2025-05-14 The philosophy of meaning is structured around four main axes knowledge aesthetics ethics and identity By engaging with the question of the emergence of consciousness it examines the logical limits of materialism and reductionism and offers a critique of physicalist monism in favor of a reimagined dualism one grounded in the discontinuity between matter and meaning a discontinuity that alone makes possible the emergence of objective discourse At the heart of this approach lies the idea of an original openness of being to the world a silent exposure to what is external to it preceding language logic and any form of representation Three central dimensions of experience can thus be explored on the basis of this primordial structure aesthetics through music as an immediate access to the articulation between the sensible and the significant ethics as a fundamental questioning of the relationship to otherness that precedes the normative concerns of morality and identity conceived as a dynamic dialectic between openness and the gathering of being These domains are not separate fields but each in its own mode expresses the structure of a radical dualism the condition for any formal production any act of thought and any possibility of understanding the world Underlying it all is an attempt to reconcile science and humanism through a philosophy of form freedom and spirit

Surrealism and the Gothic Neil Matheson, 2017-08-07 Surrealism and the Gothic is the first book length analysis of the role played by the gothic in both the initial emergence of surrealism and at key moments in its subsequent development as an art and literary movement The book argues the strong and sustained influence not only of the classic gothic novel itself Ann Radcliffe Charles Maturin Matthew Lewis etc but also the determinative impact of closely related phenomena as with the influence of mediumism alchemy and magic The book also traces the later development of the gothic novel as with Bram Stoker's Dracula and its mutation into such works of popular fiction as the Fant mas series of Marcel Allain and Pierre Souvestre enthusiastically taken up by writers such as Apollinaire and subsequently feeding into the development of surrealism More broadly the book considers a range of motifs strongly associated with gothic writing as with insanity incarceration and the accursed outsider explored in relation to the personal experience and electroshock treatment of Antonin Artaud A recurring motif of the analysis is that of the gothic castle developed in the writings of Andr Breton Artaud Sade Julien Gracq and other writers as well as in the work of visual artists such as Magritte

City Gorged with Dreams Ian Walker, 2002 The author analyses how the Surrealists utilised the tactics of documentary and how Surrealist ideas in turn influenced the development of documentary photography

This is a study of what Louis Aragon called surrealist realism the exploration of the real life surreality of the city The Risky Business of French Feminism Jennifer L. Sweatman, 2014-08-26 The Risky Business of French Feminism Publishing Politics and Artistry examines the institutional history of the publishing house Editions des Femmes as well as its relationship to the French Women's Liberation Movement MLF from 1972 to the present The founding and subsequent success of Editions des Femmes in the publishing milieu intensified the ideological divisions within the MLF and highlighted the extent to which that movement failed to adequately reflect on the power inherent in its recourse to print culture as an agent of change In particular Editions des Femmes produced several periodical publications and pioneered a woman centered subculture that attached militant political meanings to the practice of buying and publishing books While the MLF succeeded in changing legislation detrimental to women it was not able to create unified cultural politics or construct a long term media strategy that could preserve the movement's original ideals and unity Jennifer L Sweatman explores the long term dissipation of the MLF as a unified force not only as an outcome of ideological disagreement but also due to conflicting views on culture women's creativity as a strategy for empowerment and the utility of media for creating change As the MLF fragmented unable to fully come to terms with its various consumer identities its need for capital to support creative projects and its difficult experience with collective decision making the Editions des Femmes project was seen as incredibly controversial However Editions des Femmes embodied a broader strategy for cultural transformation that privileged women's creative works rather than feminism situating it as a successful forerunner of the revitalization of the publishing industry from below as small independent houses challenged the large media conglomerate control of the industry French Literature: A

Very Short Introduction John D. Lyons, 2010-04-22 A concise and lively introduction to the world of French literature publisher description Narratives of the Therapeutic Encounter Susan Bainbrigge, Maren Scheurer, 2020-07-27 This collection of essays explores the ways in which talking therapies have been depicted in twentieth century and contemporary narratives life writings fiction and poetry in French This vibrant corpus of francophone literary engagements of therapy has so far been widely unexplored but it offers rich insights into the connections between literature and psychoanalysis As the number of autobiographical and fictional depictions of the therapeutic encounter is still on the rise these creative outputs raise pressing questions why do narratives of the therapeutic encounter continue to fascinate writers and readers What do these works tell us about the particular culture and history in which they are written What do they tell us about therapeutic and other human encounters The volume highlights the important role that the creative arts have played in offering representations and explorations of our minds our relationships and our mental health or more pressingly ill health The volume's focus is not only on the patient's experience as expressed via the creative act and as counterweight to the practitioner's case study but more specifically on the therapeutic encounter specifically the relationship between therapist and patient The contributors here engage with ideas and methodologies within contemporary psychoanalytic thought including but not limited to those of Sigmund Freud Melanie Klein Andr Green Julia Kristeva Jacques Lacan and Donald Winnicott highlighting the dynamic research culture that exists in this field and maintaining a dialogue between the humanities and various therapeutic disciplines Narratives of the Therapeutic Encounter combines the analysis of psychoanalytic and fictional texts to explore the implications that arise from the space between the participants in therapy including creative and aesthetic inspirations therapeutic potentials and ethical dilemmas Insane Passions Christine Coffman,2006-12-12 In France in 1933 two sisters presumed to be lovers murdered the women who employed them as maids Known as the Papin affair the incident inspired not only Jean Genet s 1947 The Maids but also an essay by Jacques Lacan that presents the sisters crime as fueled by a narcissistic homosexual drive that culminated in the assault In this new investigation of the roots of the twentieth century myth of the lesbian as madwoman Christine Coffman argues that the female psychotic was the privileged object of Lacan s effort to derive a revolutionary theory of subjectivity from the study of mental illness Examining Lacan s early writings French surrealism Djuna Barnes Nightwood and H D s homoerotic fiction in light of feminist and queer theory Insane Passions argues that the psychotic woman that fascinates modernist writers returns with a murderous vengeance in a number of late twentieth century films including Basic Instinct Sister My Sister Single White Female and Murderous Maids Marking the limit of social acceptability the psychotic lesbian repeatedly appears as the screen onto which the violence and madness of twentieth century life are projected A History of the Surrealist Novel Anna Watz,2023-02-16 A History of the Surrealist Novel offers a rich long and elastic historiography of the surrealist novel taking into consideration an abundance of texts previously left out of critical accounts Its twenty thematically organized chapters examine surrealist prose texts written in French English Spanish German Greek and Japanese from the emergence of the surrealist movement in the 1920s and 1930s through the post war and postmodern periods and up to the contemporary moment This approach extends received narratives regarding surrealism s geographical locations and considers its transnational movement and modes of circulation Moreover it challenges critical biases that have defined surrealism in predominantly masculine terms and which tie the movement to the interwar or early post war years This book will appeal both to scholars and students of surrealism and its legacies modernist literature and the history of the novel Art of the Twentieth Century Jason Gaiger,Paul Wood,2004-03-11 This reader a companion to The Open University s four volume Art of the Twentieth Century series offers a variety of writings by art historians and art theorists The writings were originally published as freestanding essays or chapters in books and they reflect the diversity of art historical interpretations and theoretical approaches to twentieth century art Accessible to the general reader this book may be read independently or to supplement the materials explored in the four course texts The volume includes a general introduction as well as a brief introduction to each piece outlining its origin and relevance The Invention of Politics in the European Avant-Garde \(1906-1940\) ,2016-08-01 In 1906 for the first time in his life F T Marinetti connected the term avant garde with the idea of the future thus paving the way for what is now commonly called the modernist or historical avant garde Since 1906 the ties between the early twentieth century European aesthetic vanguard and politics have been a matter of debate With a century gone by The Invention of Politics in the European Avant Garde takes stock of this debate Opening with a critical introduction to the vast research archive on the subject this book proposes to view the avant garde as a political force in its own right that may have produced solutions to problems irresolvable within its democratic political constellation In a series of essays that combine close readings of texts and plastic works with a thorough knowledge of their political context the book looks at avant garde works as media producing political thought and experience Covering the canonised avant garde movements of Futurism Expressionism Dadaism and Surrealism but also focussing on the avant garde in Europe's geographical outskirts this book will appeal to all those interested in the modernist avant garde

The Critique of Work in Modern French Thought Alastair Hemmens, 2019-04-26 What is work Why do we do it Since time immemorial the answer to these questions from both the left and the right has been that work is both a natural necessity and barring exploitation a social good One might criticise its management its compensation and who benefits from it the most but never work itself never work as such In this book Alastair Hemmens seeks to challenge these received ideas Drawing on the new critique of value school of Marxian critical theory Hemmens demonstrates that capitalism and its final crisis cannot be properly understood except in terms of the historically specific and socially destructive character of labour It is from this radical perspective that Hemmens turns to an innovative critical analysis of the rich history of radical French thinkers who over the past two centuries have challenged the labour form head on from the utopian socialist Charles Fourier who called for the abolition of the separation between work and play and Marx's wayward son in law Paul Lafargue who demanded The Right to Laziness 1880 to the father of Surrealism Andr Breton who inaugurated a war on work and of course the French Situationist Guy Debord author of the famous graffiti never work Ultimately Hemmens considers normative changes in attitudes to work since the 1960s and the future of anti capitalist social movements today This book will be a crucial point of reference for contemporary debates about labour and the anti work tradition in France
