Nag Hammadi Codices Facsimile 5codex 4:

The Facsimile Edition of the Nag Hammadi Codices James M. Robinson, 1984 The collection of thirteen codices found in upper Egypt near Nag Hammadi in 1946 is one of the major archaeological discoveries of our time Apparently the library of a Gnostic community in late antiquity the codices are a repository of important spiritual materials from throughout the ancient world Hence a thorough analysis of this new material is indispensable for any proper understanding of the history of religions in this period The rich documentation which the codices add to early Coptic text material promises to raise to a new precision the historical analysis of that language This edition presents collotype reproductions in natural size of all folios of the thirteen codices as well as reproductions of the covers and photographs previously taken of fragments that are now lost

The Nag Hammadi Story (2 vols.) James M. Robinson, 2014-06-05 The Nag Hammadi Story is not a history of research in the usual sense of a Forschungsbericht which would report on the massive amount of scholarship that has been devoted to the content of the Nag Hammadi Codices for more than a half century Rather it is a socio historical narration of just what went on during the thirty two years from their discovery late in 1945 via their initial trafficking and then the attempts to monopolize them until finally through the intervention of UNESCO the whole collection of thirteen Codices was published in facsimiles and in English translation both completed late in 1977 Nag Hammadi and Gnosis

 Serageldin,2008-02-28 In adopting the theme of What Happened to the Ancient Library of Alexandria this book aims at presenting afresh a highly specialized discussion of primary sources related to the diverse aspects and episodes of that long disputed question The book covers a wide range of topics beginning with an initial presentation of different Ancient Egyptian types of library institutions with a special focus on the later Coptic Nag Hamadi Library It then deals with the troubled times under later Ptolemies and Romans when the Royal Library the Daughter Library and the Mouseion came under a succession of threats Caesar's Alexandrian War in 48 B C and during the tragic developments in the third and fourth centuries which ultimately culminated in the destruction of the Serapeum that housed the Daughter Library A discussion of the intellectual milieu during the fourth and fifth centuries follows as well as the conflicting attitudes within the Church with regard to classical learning An analysis of historical and new archaeological evidence confirms the fact that Alexandria continued to be a city of books and scholarship centuries after the destruction of the Library Finally the late medieval Arab story of the destruction of the Library by order of Caliph Omar is fully considered and refuted through textual analysis of the original sources Contributors include William J. Cherf, Dimitar Y. Dimitrov, Maria Dzielska, Mostafa A. El Abbadi, Jean Yves Empereur, Fayza M. Haikal, Georges Leroux, Bernard Lewis, Grzegorz Majcherek, Mounir H. Megally, Birger A. Pearson, Lucien X. Polastron, Qassem Abdou Qassem and Ismail Serageldin

Snapshots of Evolving Traditions Liv Ingeborg Lied, Hugo Lundhaug, 2017-01-23 Scholars of early Christian and Jewish literature have for many years focused on interpreting texts in their hypothetical original forms and contexts while largely overlooking important aspects of the surviving manuscript evidence and the culture that produced it This volume of essays seeks to remedy this situation by focusing on the material aspects of the manuscripts themselves and the fluidity of textual transmission in a manuscript culture With an emphasis on method and looking at texts as they have been used and transmitted in manuscripts this book discusses how we may deal with textual evidence that can often be described as mere snapshots of fluid textual traditions that have been intentionally adapted to fit ever shifting contexts The emphasis of the book is on the contexts and interests of users and producers of texts as they appear in our surviving manuscripts rather than on original authors and their intentions and the essays provide both important correctives to former textual interpretations as well as new insights into the societies and individuals that copied and read the texts in the manuscripts that have actually been preserved to us

Greek and Arabic words are also provided The new Foreword by James M Robinson provides the reader with an up to date summary of the current state of Coptic studies

The Gospel and the Gospels Simon J. Gathercole, 2022-08-11 A robust scholarly defense of the distinctiveness of the canonical Gospels Do the four New Testament gospels share some essence that distinguishes them from noncanonical early Gospels The tendency among biblical scholars of late has been to declare the answer to this question no that Matthew Mark Luke and John were grouped together by happenstance and are defended as canonical today despite there being no essential commonalities between them Simon Gathercole challenges this prevailing view and argues that in fact the theological content of the New Testament Gospels distinguishes them substantially from noncanonical Gospels Gathercole shows how the Gospels of Matthew Mark Luke and John each include four key points that also formed the core of early Christian preaching and teaching Jesus s identity as messiah the saving death of Jesus the resurrection of Jesus and Scripture s foretelling of the Christ event In contrast most noncanonical Gospels like the Gospel of Thomas the Gospel of Truth and Marcion s Gospel only selectively appropriated these central concerns of early Christian proclamation

The Cross in the Visual Culture of Late Antique Egypt Gillian Spalding-Stracey, 2020-04-28 In The Cross in the Visual Culture of Late Antique Egypt Gillian Spalding Stracey brings the design of crosses in monastic and ecclesiastical settings to the fore Visual representations of the Holy Cross are often so ubiquitous in Christian art that they are often overlooked as artistic devices themselves This volume offers an exploration of the variety of designs and associated imagery by which the Cross was expressed across the Egyptian landscape in late antiquity A survey of locations and images leads to an analysis of artistic influences possible symbolism variance across time and place and the contextual use of the motif Gillian Spalding Stracey provides the reader with an art historical perspective of the socio cultural situation in Egypt at the time

Studies on Greek and Coptic Majuscule Scripts and Books Pasquale Orsini, 2018-11-19 The volume contains a critical review of data results and open problems concerning the principal Greek and Coptic majuscule bookhands based on previous research of the author revised and updated to offer an overview of the different graphic phenomena Although the various chapters address the history of different types of scripts i e biblical majuscule sloping poitend majuscule liturgical majuscule epigraphic and monumental scripts their juxtaposition allows us to identify common issues of the comparative method of palaeography From an overall critical assessment of these aspects the impossibility of applying a unique historical paradigm to interpret the formal expressions and the history of the different bookhands comes up due to the fact that each script follows different paths Particular attention is also devoted to the use of Greek majuscules in the writing of ancient Christian books A modern and critical awareness of palaeographic method may help to place the individual witnesses in the context of the main graphic trends in the social and cultural environments in which they developed and in a more accurate chronological framework
