Namu Quest For The Killer Whale:

Namu, Quest for the Killer Whale Ted Griffin, 1982 Puget Sound Whales for Sale Sandra Pollard, 2014-06-24 A look at the history of the commercial capturing of orcas in Washington's Puget Sound the whales taken and the efforts to save them In November 2005 Washington's iconic killer whales known as Southern Resident orcas were placed on the endangered species list It was a victory long overdue for a fragile population of fewer than one hundred whales Author and certified marine naturalist Sandra Pollard traces the story and destinies of the many Southern Resident orcas captured for commercial purposes in or near the Puget Sound between 1964 and 1976 During this time these highly intelligent members of the dolphin family lost nearly one third of their population Drawing on original archive material this important volume outlines the history of orca captivity while also recounting the harrowing struggle and ultimate triumph for the Puget Sound orcas freedom Making liberal use of interviews correspondence and newspaper accounts as well as less intensive use of legislative governmental and nonprofit records Pollard constructs an easily digestible narrative for lay individuals curious about the hunting of Puget Sound's Northern and Southern Resident killer whale groups between 1965 and 1976 Puget Sound Whales for Sale significantly succeeds the former Blackfish in breadth and depth Pacific Northwest Quarterly Orca Jason Michael Colby, 2018 Drawing on interviews official records private archives and the author's own family history this is the definitive story of how the feared and despised killer became the beloved orca and what that has meant for our relationship with the ocean and its creatures More Than Luck James S. Griffin, 2011-06-15 If someone was to ask me what comes to mind when I think about Jim I'd say he didn't let life slide away Booth Gardner governor State of Washington James S Griffin the grandson of pioneer Washington state families recounts his life story for his grandchildren and generations to come Beginning with his first memory as a four year old his memoir blends tales of his own life with descriptions historical events and the role his families and distant relatives played in the early years of the city of Tacoma as well as the founding of Everett Washington He also details their participation in a terrifying confrontation often referred to as the Everett massacre prior to Washington statehood More than Luck is a humorous yet tragic memoir that recounts a number of remarkable life threatening encounters He heard these stories from his relatives and also by listening to bedtime stories about kin who came west to the Washington Territory in the late nineteenth century to homestead to become lumber barons mayors judges legislatures and entrepreneurs Their stories and their legacy helped shape Jim Griffin's character and the direction his life has taken Death at SeaWorld David Kirby, 2012-07-17 A scientific thriller that exposes the dark side of America's most beloved marine mammal park It centers on the battle with the multimillion dollar marine park industry over the controversial and even lethal ramifications of keeping killer whales in captivity Following the story of marine biologist and animal advocate at the Humane Society of the United States Naomi Rose the author tells the story of the two decade fight against public relations savvy SeaWorld which came to a head with the tragic death of trainer Dawn Brancheau in 2010 The author puts that horrific attack in context Brancheau's death was only the most publicized among several brutal attacks at marine mammal theme parks This book introduces real people taking part in this debate from former trainers turned animal rights activists to the men and women that champion SeaWorld and the captivity of whales As the story progresses and orca attacks on trainers become increasingly violent the warnings of scientists fall on deaf ears only to be realized with the death of Dawn Brancheau Finally the book covers the media backlash the eyewitnesses who come forward to challenge SeaWorld's glossy image and the groundbreaking OSHA case that challenges the very idea of keeping killer whales in captivity Orcas of the Gulf Gerard Gormley, 2000-08 Book Description Orcas of the Gulf will be a pleasure to anyone who wants to explore the realities of nature Mr Gormley's awe and respect for these magnificent whales is shared with us as a small pod of orca pass through the familiar waters off New England We find ourselves enveloped in the interlocked interwoven spectrum of the sea everyday life to the orca white water drama and magical beauty to Man Much seems incredible impossible even mythical yet the author has included every available bit of science in his exciting and educational narrative He takes us a few steps farther than science has yet gone with common sense and realism challenging the scientists to discover the full world of the orca His narrative theories on perception communication pod society and chillingly realistic assessment of human impact are most interesting The values and perceptions expressed in this work are not human but they may just be the orca's and we can all learn from that p William W Rossiter Vice President Cetacean Society International Author bio Gerard Gormley lives in Manchester by the Sea Massachusetts where he studies sea life especially cetaceans as an avocation His previous natural history A Dolphin Summer won broad critical acclaim for its artistic and scientific merit His third nature book about humpback whales is in progress Formerly a submariner and science writer Mr Gormley supplements his writing income by selling collectible books over the Internet Orca, the Whale Called Killer Erich Hoyt, 1990 After seven summers of following these intelligent and playful creatures in the waters off northern Vancouver Island with his colleagues Erich Hoyt gives the latest world catch and live capture statistics of killer whales as well as updated records of those kept captive

Descendants of Johan Zimmermann and Christine Schuld Ewert Zimmermann Linda Masden Vixie, 2006 The Historical Animal Susan Nance, 2015-09-22 The conventional history of animals could be more accurately described as the history of human ideas about animals Only in the last few decades have scholars from a wide variety of disciplines attempted to document the lives of historical animals in ways that recognize their agency as sentient beings with complex intelligence This collection advances the field further inviting us to examine our recorded history through an animal centric lens to discover how animals have altered the course of our collective past The seventeen scholars gathered here present case studies from the Pacific Ocean Africa Europe and the Americas involving species ranging from gorillas and horses to salamanders and orcas Together they seek out new methodologies questions and stories that challenge accepted historical assumptions and structures Drawing upon environmental social and political history the contributors employ research from such wide ranging fields as philosophy and veterinary medicine embracing a radical interdisciplinarity that is crucial to understanding our nonhuman past Grounded in the knowledge that there has never been a purely human time in world history this collection asks and answers an incredibly urgent question for historians and others interested in the nonhuman past in an age of mass extinctions mass animal captivity and climate change when we know much of what animals have done in the past which of our activities will we want to change in the future Operation Orca Daniel Francis, Gil Hewlett, 2007 Through the story of Springer and Luna the larger history of orcas is explored in the Pacific Northwest and the whale's transformation for killer to icon Griffin Families Marry John Raymond Griffin, 1987 John Griffin 1804 1876 was born in England He married Mary Chapman 1801 1851 and they had six children They immigrated to the United States in 1845 and settled in Benton Township Lake County Illinois He married Harriet Kirk 1823 1899 in 1852 and they had five children Descendants and relatives lived in Illinois Wisconsin Iowa Washington and elsewhere Orca Erich Hoyt, 1984 Account of a study of killer whales undertaken between 1973 and 1979 off the coast of BC Oceans, 1982 Congressional Record United States. Congress, Subject Catalog, 1982 Library of Congress, 1982 The Presence of Whales Frank Stewart, 1995 Frank Stewart an observer writer storyteller and lover of whales gathers the most compelling contemporary essays on cetaceans in the first anthology to bring together many of the foremost marine scientists and nature writers including Diane Ackerman Barry Lopez Farley Mowat Faith McNulty and Jonathan White The essays are organized in five sections that celebrates our ongoing fascination with these fragile giants Sharing the World of Giants contains essays inspired by being in the presence of whales Songs from the Deep concentrates on whale vocalizations Sightings of the Leviathan are compelling accounts of personal observations of whale behavior Death at Sea and On Shore touch on the mystery of whale groundings and other violent encounters and A Splendid but Uncertain Company explores the privilege humans sense when near whales and the compact human contact has had on these glorious but gentle beasts Sea Frontiers, 1985 American Book Publishing Record, 1984-04 Interspecies Communication Newsletter, 1982 Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1982
