Napa An Architectural Walking Tour Images Of America:

Napa Anthony Raymond Kilgallin, 2001-07-10 Though world famous for its miles of superior vineyards Napa offers much more to the historian than its reputation as wine maker Just an hour from San Francisco and Sacramento the many towns of the Napa region are small enough to be walkable friendly and unique in design The 240 images in this new book with some photographs never before collected demonstrate the architectural and historical diversity of this beautiful region presented in walking tour format Through vintage photographs the reader is pulled back in time to 1880 Napa where a scant but diverse 4 000 residents reside Of those people only 163 were actually born in California which accounts for the variety of architectural styles throughout the county The multinational heritages of Irish German English Canadian Swiss Scottish French Swedish Mexican Italian and Chinese settlers are richly expressed through the architecture and landmarks of Napa s villages and towns Captured here are the homes and structures that give the region its glow including Napa s Churchill Manor Greystone Winery in St Helena Magnolia Hotel in Yountville and Stags Leap manor in the heart of the Stags Leap District

Tomales Bay Anthony R. Kilgallin, 2013 Tomales Bay is a 6 800 acre estuary on the West Marin coast 40 miles northwest of San Francisco The bay occupies the seaward end of a rift valley that was formed by the intersection of the San Andreas Fault with the Northern California coastline The bay is 12 miles long one mile wide and relatively shallow with an average depth of 18 feet The bay exchanges water with the Pacific Ocean thus supporting a unique marine culture and industry begun by the Coastal Miwok Indians 5 000 years ago American and European pioneers in the mid 19th century saw Tomales Bay as the promised land for beef cattle and dairy ranching farming fishing and logging This book celebrates these pioneer settlers and their accomplishments in the towns of Marshall and Tomales in particular On April 18 1906 the San Francisco Earthquake did not spare Tomales Bay Nevertheless West Marin citizens rebuilt their communities and have preserved pasturelands and maritime seashores to the present day Shoreline Highway 1 from Point Reyes Station north to the Sonoma Border encompasses the harmonic balance of environmentalism and pristine wilderness

Napa County Todd L. Shulman, 2009 The rich history of Napa County spans from the first indigenous American Indians through the Spanish mission period from the first pioneer white settlers and Gold Rush forty niners to the agricultural and viticulture gold rush and into the tourist destination it is today As soon as postcards came into being the enterprising business and resort owners in Napa County began using them to advertise and promote Napa as a destination resort It is through these windows into the past sent across the country and the world by visitors and residents alike that we get a glimpse into life in the Napa Valley during the last century
