, 2021-11-22 The traumatic experiences of persecution and genocide have changed traditional views of literature The discussion of historical truth versus aesthetic autonomy takes an unexpected turn when confronted with the experiences of the victims of the Holocaust the Gulag Archipelago the Cultural Revolution Apartheid and other crimes against humanity The question is whether and if so to what extent literary imagination may depart from historical truth In general the first reactions to traumatic historical experiences are autobiographical statements written by witnesses of the events However the second and third generations the sons and daughters of the victims as well as of the victimizers tend to free themselves from this generic restriction and claim their own way of remembering the history of their parents and grandparents They explore their own limits of representation and feel free to use a variety of genres they turn to either realist or postmodernist ironic or grotesque modes of writing Experienced Life and Narrated Life Story Gabriele Rosenthal, 2024-04-10 How do people narrate events in their life story and in the history of their family or families when making a self presentation How are narratives and experiences in the present related to experiences and narratives in the past This book answers these questions with a theoretical and empirical study of the interconnections between remembering experiencing and presenting what was experienced at different points of the life course and of the associated collective histories It also discusses rules for conducting interviews that support processes of remembering and for carrying out an analysis that does justice to this

dialectic The author exploits ideas from phenomenology and Gestalt theory in this book which has become a classic Since its first publication in 1995 she has increasingly taken inspiration from the figurational sociology of Norbert Elias Accordingly this English edition contains a new introduction and a new chapter on this later expansion of her approach to sociological biographical research The Nazi Past in Contemporary German Film Axel Bangert,2014 From intimate portrayals of ordinary Germans and Nazi leaders to immersive spectacles of war and defeat this study argues that since 1990 German film has focused on portraying the Nazi past from within Universal Pronouncing Dictionary of Biography and Mythology Joseph Thomas,1908 The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Encyclopedia of Camps and Ghettos, 1933-1945 United States Holocaust Memorial Museum,2009 Created by the Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum the monumental 7 volume encyclopaedia that the present work inaugurates will make available in one place for the first time detailed information about the universe of camps sub camps and ghettos established and operated by the Nazis altogether some 20 000 sites from Norway to North Africa and from France to Russia This volume covers three groups of camps the early camps established in the first year of Hitler s rule the major concentration camps with their constellations of sub camps that operated under the control of the SS Business Administration Main Office and youth camps Overview essays precede entries on individual camps and sub camps Each entry provides basic information about the purpose of the site the prisoners guards working and living conditions and key events in its history Material drawn from personal testimonies helps convey the character of each site while source citations for each entry provide a path to additional information The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Encyclopedia of Camps and Ghettos, 1933-1945, Volume I United States Holocaust Memorial Museum,2009-05-22 Describes the universe of camps and ghettos some 20 000 in all that the Nazis and their allies operated from Norway to North Africa and from France to Russia This volume covers three groups of camps the early camps that the Nazis established in the first year of Hitler s rule the major SS concentration camps with their constellations of subcamps and the special camps for Polish and German children and adolescents Les Vengeurs Alphonse de Lamartine,1863 Prisoners of the Home Front Martin F. Auger,2011-11-01 In the middle of the most destructive conflict in human history almost 40 000 Germans civilians and prisoners of war were detained in internment and work camps across Canada Five internment camps were located on the southern shores of the St Lawrence River in the province of Quebec at Farnham Grande Ligne le aux Noix Sherbrooke and Sorel Prisoners of the Home Front details the organization and day to day affairs of these internment camps and reveals the experience of their inmates Martin Auger shows how internment imposed psychological and physical strain in the form of restricted mobility sexual deprivation social alienation and lack of physical comfort In response Canadian authorities introduced labour projects and education programs to uphold morale thwart internal turmoil and prevent escapes These initiatives were also intended to expose prisoners to the values of a democratic society and prepare them for postwar reintegration Auger concludes that Canada abided by the Geneva Convention its treatment of German prisoners was humane Prisoners of the Home Front sheds light on life behind barbed wire filling an important void in our knowledge of the Canadian home front during the Second World War , Sparta's German Children Helen Roche,2013-12-31 From the eighteenth century until 1945 German children were taught to model themselves on the young of an Ancient Greek city state Sparta From older children from teachers in the classroom and from higher authority first in Prussia then in Imperial and National Socialist Germany came images of Sparta designed to inculcate ideals of endurance discipline and of military self sacrifice Identification with Sparta could also be used to justify ideas of domination over Germany s eastern neighbours Helen Roche is the first to examine this still sensitive topic systematically and in depth She collects and analyses official and published German evocations of Sparta but also and remarkably reconstructs the experiences of German children taught to be little Spartans in the Prussian Cadet Corps and National Socialist elite schools the Napolas In treating the final and gravest period of this process the author has personally collected testimony from numerous surviving German witnesses who attended the Napolas as children in the early 1940s That testimony is presented here in a work which is likely to prove definitive not only for its treasury of new information but for its elegant and humane analysis

Stolen Childhood at an Elite Nazi School Helene Munson,2024-05-28 A shocking personal memoir and new perspective on World War II following Helene Munson s journey in her father s footsteps through the years when he was one of Hitler s child soldiers When Helene Munson finally reads her father Hans Dunker s wartime journal she discovers secrets he kept buried for seven decades This is no ordinary historical document but a personal account of devastating trauma During World War II the Nazis trained some three hundred thousand German children to fight for Hitler Hans was just one of those boy soldiers Sent to the elite Feldafing school at nine years old he found himself in the grip of a system that substituted dummy grenades for Frisbees By age seventeen Hans had shot down Allied pilots with antiaircraft artillery In the desperate final stage of Hitler s war he was sent on a suicide mission to Z vada on the Sudetenland front where he witnessed the death of his schoolmates and where Helene begins to retrace her father s footsteps after his death As Helene translates Hans s journal and walks his path of suffering and redemption she uncovers the lost history of an entire generation brainwashed by the Third Reich s school system and funneled into the Hitler Youth A startling new account of this dark era The Feldafing Boys grapples with inherited trauma the burden of guilt and the blurred line between perpetrator and victim It is also a poignant tale of forgiveness as Helene comes to see her late father as not just a soldier but as one boy in a sea of three hundred thousand forced onto the wrong side of history and left to answer for it Previously published in hardcover as Hitler s Boy Soldiers The 12th SS Panzer Division "Hitlerjugend" Adrian Dragoş Defta,2021-06-21 This book demythologises one of the top Waffen SS units during the Second World War the Hitlerjugend Division In addition to bringing together new research in European historiography it also represents an innovative scientific approach using social psychology It provides insights into inner psychological mechanisms that facilitated moral disengagement and culminated in the division s unparalleled combat motivation and war crimes Best known for their alleged fanaticism Nazi indoctrination and inclination to perpetrate atrocities Hitlerjugend soldiers are analysed here using perspectives drawn from across sociology anthropology and psychology The Gait as Political Choreography Ami Kobayashi,2024-12-30 This book explores the entangled relationship between marching and political ceremonies in schools for the consolidation of the nation state in Germany and Japan in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Through addressing the relationship between the individual marching body gymnastics classes in schools and political ceremonies in public spaces this book aims to crystalize the ways in which the authorities choreographed the ideal gait transmitted it to students and deployed it in political ceremonies By analyzing archived sources written in German and Japanese Ami Kobayashi investigates the transnational character of the marching ceremony and the knowledge transfers behind it She explores the process of nation state building primarily in terms of cultural performance arguing that the collective upright gait was a form of political choreography orchestrated by political authorities and performed by youth
