Narrative After Deconstruction:

Narrative after Deconstruction Daniel Punday, 2012-02-01 Interrogating stories told about life after deconstruction and discovering instead a kind of afterlife of deconstruction Daniel Punday draws on a wide range of theorists to develop a rigorous theory of narrative as an alternative model for literary interpretation Drawing on an observation made by Jean Fran ois Lyotard Punday argues that at the heart of narrative are concrete objects that can serve as lynchpins through which many different explanations and interpretations can come together Narrative after Deconstruction traces the often grudging emergence of a post deconstructive interest in narrative throughout contemporary literary theory by examining critics as diverse as Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze Elizabeth Grosz and Edward Said Experimental novelists like Ronald Sukenick Raymond Federman Clarence Major and Kathy Acker likewise work through many of the same problems of constructing texts in the wake of deconstruction and so provide a glimpse of this post deconstructive narrative approach to writing and interpretation at its most accomplished and powerful

Narrative after Deconstruction Daniel Punday, 2003-01-01 Develops a rigorous theory of narrative as a post deconstructive model for interpretation

Challenging Theory: Discipline After Deconstruction Catherine Burgass, 2019-01-04 First published in 1999 this volume perceives that English literature is under threat as an academic discipline In Challenging Theory Catherine Burgass warns against the recent trend towards the conflation of literature teaching with cultural studies in British and American universities Focusing on theory of deconstruction as developed by Jacques Derrida in the 1960s the book redresses some common misinterpretations of Derrida's work relating to the status of metaphysical oppositions Part One discusses textual differences and the ways in which these may dissolve and reform according to different cultural contexts The practical issues associated with teaching literature and literary theory in universities are examined in Part Two while Part Three highlights some of the more invidious claims of literary theorists and questions the value of metaphysical analysis as a tool for political critique Challenging Theory tackles an important debate that lies at the heart of humanities teaching It illuminates the impact on academia of the work of critical theorists over the last thirty years and provides a platform for future reassessment of the relationships between literature philosophy and theory

Handbook of Narrative Analysis Luc Herman, Bart Vervaeck, 2019-12-01 Stories are everywhere from fiction across media to politics and personal identity Handbook of Narrative Analysis sorts out both traditional and recent narrative theories providing the necessary skills to interpret any story In addition to discussing classical theorists such as Gerard Genette Mieke Bal and Seymour Chatman Handbook of Narrative Analysis presents precursors such as E M Forster related theorists Franz Stanzel Dorrit Cohn and a large variety of postclassical critics Among the latter particular attention is paid to rhetorical cognitive and cultural approaches intermediality storyworlds gender theory and natural and unnatural narratology Not content to consider theory as an end in itself Luc Herman and Bart Vervaeck use two short stories and a graphic narrative by contemporary authors as touchstones to illustrate each approach to narrative In doing so they illuminate the practical implications of theoretical preferences and the ideological leanings underlying them Marginal glosses guide the reader through discussions of theoretical issues and an extensive bibliography points readers to the most current publications in the field Written in an accessible style this handbook combines a comprehensive treatment of its subject with a user friendly format appropriate for specialists and nonspecialists alike Handbook of Narrative Analysis is the go to book for understanding and interpreting narrative This new edition revises and extends the first edition to describe and apply the last fifteen years of cutting edge scholarship in the field of narrative theory human existence      Islāmic Counselling and Psychotherapy G. Hussein Rassool, 2024-10-08 Isl mic Counselling and Psychotherapy An Introduction to Theory and Practice provides foundation level knowledge of and perspective on the fundamental principles and practices of counselling and psychotherapy from an Isl mic perspective This groundbreaking practical framework incorporates Isl mic spirituality religion and cultural contexts into the therapeutic process It makes the case that authentic Isl mic spirituality based on submission to God forms the cornerstone of good mental health The book s foundation focuses on the therapist s role and ethical considerations specific to Isl mic psychotherapy It explores the integration of Qur nic teachings and h d ths and delves into dream interpretation and the clinical applications of the Siraat Al Isl mic psychotherapy practice model This thoroughly revised new edition also highlights advances and developments in scholarship and evidence based practices and introduces postmodern psychotherapy approaches like narrative and hope therapy This text provides a clear understanding of the nature scope and process of Isl mic psychotherapy for Isl mic practitioners or clinicians working with Muslim clients      Narrative Psychology and Vygotsky in Dialogue Jill Bradbury, 2019-09-06 This book draws together two domains of psychological theory Vygotsky s cultural historical theory of cognition and narrative theories of identity to offer a way of rethinking the human subject as embodied relational and temporal A dialogue between these two ostensibly disparate and contested theoretical trajectories provides a new vantage point from which to explore questions of personal and political change In a world of deepening inequalities and increasing economic precarity the demand for free decolonised quality education as articulated by the South African Student Movement and in many other contexts around the world is disrupting established institutional practices and reinvigorating possibilities for change This context provokes new lines of hopeful thought and critical reflection on dis continuities across historical time theories of social and psychological developmental processes and the practices of intergenerational life particularly in the domain of education for the making of emancipatory futures This is essential reading for academics and students interested in Vygotskian and narrative theory and critical psychology as well as those interested in the politics and praxis of higher education      Metagnosis Danielle Spencer, 2020-10-27 Bridging memoir with key concepts in narratology philosophy and history of medicine and disability studies this book identifies and names the phenomenon of metagnosis the experience of learning in adulthood of a longstanding condition It can occur when the condition has remained undetected e g colorblindness and or when the diagnostic categories themselves have shifted e g ADHD More broadly it can occur with unexpected revelations bearing upon selfhood such as surprising genetic test results Though this phenomenon has received relatively scant attention learning of an unknown condition is often a significant and bewildering revelation one that subverts narrative expectations and customary categories How do we understand these revelations In addressing this topic Danielle Spencer approaches narrative medicine as a robust research methodology comprising interdisciplinarity narrative attentiveness and the creation of writerly texts Beginning with Spencer s own experience the book explores the issues raised by metagnosis from communicability to narrative intelligibility to different ways of seeing Next it traces the distinctive metagnostic narrative arc through the stages of recognition subversion and renegotiation discussing this trajectory in light of a range of metagnostic experiences from Blade Runner to real world mid life diagnoses Finally it situates metagnosis in relation to genetic revelations and the broader discourses concerning identity Spencer proposes that better understanding metagnosis will not simply aid those directly affected but will serve as a bellwether for how we will all navigate advancing biomedical and genomic knowledge and how we may fruitfully interrogate the very notion of identity

Queer

Experimental Literature Teagan Bradway, 2017-05-09 This volume argues that postwar writers queer the affective relations of reading through experiments with literary form Tyler Bradway conceptualizes bad reading as an affective politics that stimulates queer relations of erotic and political belonging in the event of reading These incipiently social relations press back against legal economic and discursive forces that reduce queerness into a mode of individuality Each chapter traces the affective politics of bad reading against moments when queer relationality is prohibited obstructed or destroyed from the pre Stonewall literary obscenity debates through the AIDS crisis to the emergence of neoliberal homonormativity and the gentrification of the queer avant garde Bradway contests the common narrative that experimental writing is too formalist to engender a mode of social imagination Instead he illuminates how queer experimental literature uses form to redraw the affective and social relations that structure the heteronormative public sphere Through close readings informed by affect theory Queer Experimental Literature offers new perspectives on writers such as William S Burroughs Samuel R Delany Kathy Acker Jeanette Winterson Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Alison Bechdel and Chuck Palahniuk Queer Experimental Literature ultimately reveals that the recent turn to affective reading in literary studies is underwritten by a para academic history of bad reading that offers new idioms for understanding the affective agencies of queer aesthetics
