Choctaw Prophecy Tom Mould, 2003-01-22 Explores the power and artistry of prophecy among the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians who use predictions about the future to interpret the world around them This book challenges the common assumption that American Indian prophecy was an anomaly of the 18th and 19th centuries that resulted from tribes across the continent reacting to the European invasion Tom Mould's study of the contemporary prophetic traditions of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians reveals a much larger system of prophecy that continues today as a vibrant part of the oral tradition Mould shows that Choctaw prophecy is more than a prediction of the future it is a way to unite the past present and future in a moral dialogue about how one should live Choctaw prophecy he argues is stable and continuous it is shared in verbal discourse inviting negotiation on the individual level and because it is a tradition of all the people it manifests itself through myriad visions with many themes In homes casinos restaurants laundromats day care centers and grocery stores as well as in ceremonial and political situations people discuss current events and put them into context with traditional stories that govern the culture In short recitation is widely used in everyday life as a way to interpret validate challenge and create the world of the Choctaw speaker Choctaw Prophecy stands as a sound model for further study into the prophetic traditions of not only other American Indian tribes but also communities throughout the world Weaving folklore and oral tradition with ethnography this book will be useful to academic and public libraries as well as to scholars and students of southern Indians and the modern South

Affect, Performativity, and Chinese Diasporas in the Caribbean Elena Igartuburu García, 2024-02-12 Affect Performativity and Chinese Diasporas in the Caribbean Hopeful Futures analyzes the emergence of Chinese diasporic literature and art in the Caribbean and its diasporas in the twenty first century This book considers the historical and critical discourse about the Chinese diasporas in the Caribbean and proposes a textual and visual archive selecting contemporary texts that signal a changing paradigm in postcolonial literature at the turn of the twenty first century Whereas historically Chinese minorities had been erased or presented as ultimate Others contemporary texts mobilize Chinese characters and their stories strategically to propose alternative configurations of community and belonging grounded in affective structures and contest the coloniality of national imaginaries

Narrativity, Coherence and Literariness Eva Sabine Wagner, 2020-06-08 The search for the defining qualities of narrative has produced an expansive range of definitions which largely unconnected with each other obscure the notion of narrativity rather than clarifying it The first part of this study remedies this shortcoming by developing a graded macro model of narrativity which serves three aims Firstly it provides a structured overview of the field of narrative elements and processes Secondly it facilitates the classification of narratological approaches by locating them on different stages of narrativity Finally it focuses attention on narrative dynamics as interpretative processes by which readers seek to produce narrative coherence The second part of this study identifies three different narrative dynamics which characterise Laclos's Dangerous Connections Kafka's Castle and Toussaint's novels Wagner bases her analyses of these dynamics not only on the texts themselves but also on the ways in which literary scholars imbue the texts with narrative coherence This book provides a long overdue systematisation of the jumbled field of theories of narrativity and opens new perspectives on the difficult relationship between narrative theory and interpretation

Dictionary of Media and Communication Studies James Watson, Anne Hill, 2015-10-22 The Dictionary of Media and Communication Studies has provided students and the general public alike with a gateway into the study of intercultural communication public relations and marketing communications since 1984 In this 9th edition James Watson and Anne Hill provide a detailed compendium of the different facets of personal group mass media and internet communication that continues to be a vital source of information for all those interested in how communication affects our lives They cover new applications and developments such as the incorporation of Neuroscience techniques in advertising and marketing Other updates include Cyber bullying Twitter scandals conduct in media organizations on line lobbying global protesting petitioning and gender issues relating to social media in general While new entries explore the profound shifts that have taken place in the world of communication in recent years the purpose of this new edition is not necessarily to keep abreast of every new media event but to reflect the trends that influence and prompt such events such as the Leveson Inquiry and Report and phone hacking via mobile phones

Politics seems to be playing out more on Twitter than in The Times This volume seeks to make its twenty first century readers more media literate as well as more critical consumers of modern news
